After completing a course at the district school, he went to New York and started in business. In 1851 he returned to Burlington, Vt., and began the manufacture of friction matches. Feeling the importance of being near the source of supply of his raw material, in 1854 he went to Hull, Canada, and there using the great power of the Chaudiere Falls, he became the largest manufacturer of matches in British North America. In 1856 he added saw-mills and factories for the manufacture of pails and tubs. In 1868 he extended his business and built other saw-mills and sash, door, blind, and box factories. Before his death he had established himself as the very largest individual saw-miller in the world. The industry developed so tremendously that in 1886 the works were formed into a stock company, "The E. B Eddy Co , Lim." In 1892 the company began the manufacture of pulp and paper and of utensils made of pulp. In all this expansion E. B. Eddy was the great prime-mover, and captain. At his death he left an estate of fifteen to twenty millions. He also took his place in public life. He was Mayor of Hull for thirteen years and he represented the county of Ottawa in the Quebec Legislature as a Conservative. He was a Mason and a member of the Baptist Church.

Children, b. in Sheffield, Pa.:
i BYRON BARNES HORTON, b. Aug. 26, 1873. Mr. Horton early became interested in the genealogy of his parents and grandparents. When Dr. Charles Eddy of Brooklyn died, leaving his unfinished notes for a revised edition of his genealogy of 1881, the family gave to Mr. Horton all the manuscript, which he had left. Mr. Horton began to complete this work and was busy on this when the World War broke out and it became necessary to lay aside all such works of research for work connected with the War. Before he was able to begin again, the Eddy Family Association was formed in 1920 and began again the collection of records. When Mr. Horton learned of this purpose, he very generously offered to loan all of his collections to the Association. He felt, however, that he had not fulfilled the trust given him until he had typed and bound a copy of the manuscript left by Dr. Charles Eddy. This has been given to the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston. He is also preparing an account of his own branch of the Eddy Family, which is to be a very full account of the "Ancestors and Descendants of Zachariah Eddy of Warren, Pa." This book will be very valuable for this branch of the Eddy Family and will contain much more than can be given in a genealogy such as this which covers all branches of Eddys.

5150 George Alfred Eddy (Morton, David, Samuel, Samuel, Samuel, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. Apr. 19, 1834, at Eddy Ridge, Wayne Co., N. Y.; d. Sept. 4, 1894, in Colorado; m. Nov. 14, 1868, at Leavenworth, Kan., Margaret Louise Norton; b. Nov. 14, 1848, at Chillicothe, O.; dau. of Miles and Abigail (Sherwood) Norton. (Miles Norton was b. in Vernon, N. Y., and d. Nov. 14, 1858. Abigail Sherwood was b. in Oneida Castle, N. Y.; and d. in Apr. 1895, at Leavenworth, Kan.)

George A. Eddy was a man of strong character. He started to work when he was twelve years old on a night shift in a saw-mill. About 1857 he went to Leavenworth, Kan., and there opened a drugstore and built up a prosperous wholesale drug business, covering the whole state of Kansas. His commodities had to be carried by wagon train and pack horses. He was a deacon and trustee of the First Congregational Church, and the intimate friend of Justice David J. Brewer. In 1886 he was made receiver of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway and for eight years effectively handled an intricate and difficult task. As a trustee of Washburn College, and on the State Y. M. C. A. Board, holding many offices of prominence in his town and state, he became widely known as a civic leader. Under a heavy burden of public duty for several years he served his town as Police Commissioner, cleaning up problems of vice and liquor in a difficult crisis. He dropped dead in camp during a hunting expedition in Colorado, mourned by his city, and widely remembered for the integrity of his character and his marked ability. Margaret Norton Eddy, a graduate of Elmira College and Vassar, is a woman of brilliant mind and strong personality. She was very active in the literary and social life of Leavenworth in the "Early Days" and a leader in the church activities. Mrs. Eddy came to Kansas as an early pioneer in 1854. She saw her uncle's drugstore looted and burned and watched a guerilla mob drive all Free Soil sympathizers through the streets to the river boats, her uncle among them. Her father and mother being ordered off by the rebel sympathizers, the house was barricaded while deeds of violence and lawlessness were watched from the windows in secret. In later years, in her deep interest in all Christian work, she gave her sons to missionary service, while she journeyed twice to India, founding the Kodaikanal School for Missionaries' Children which still exists as a model. She is energetic and alert at 82 years of age, leading in many lines of social and public welfare. She is a descendant of William Carpenter who came to Weymouth, Mass., in 1638 and of Thomas Sherwood (1586–1655) who came in the "Francis" in 1634 and settled in Fairfield, Conn., before 1648, building the first grist mill there on Mill Plain.

He served in the Civil War, first as a member of the Zouaves and then he was transferred to Doubleday's Artillery, later known as the 4th Heavy Artillery. Later he was transferred to the office of the Secretary of War where he was made officer of the Countersign. When safe telegraphic communication was interrupted he was obliged to carry the countersign himself to the commanders of the different corps. After Grant assumed command, the constantly shifting headquarters and the distances to be covered made this a very difficult office and one full of adventure and daring. For three years Herman Eddy served in this department of the secret service before being mustered out.

Child:

Huggins; b. Dec. 6, 1856, in New York City; d. Nov. 16, 1922, at Bayonne, N. J.; dau. of Augustus Zadok and Cynthia Miller (Wood) Huggins. Augustus Huggins was son of Zadok and Anna (Morrison) Huggins and grandson of Joseph and Rebecca (Eddy) Morrison. (See 5198).

He was educated at Belvidere, Ill., and studied for awhile at the University of Chicago. For nearly twenty years he was an accountant. He was nearly forty years of age before his genius was known. From that time on he showed remarkable inventive talents. He took the first mid-air kite-photograph ever taken in the Western Hemisphere on May 30, 1895, and the first mid-air temperature in the world from kites in Feb. 1891.

William Eddy invented the first tailless kite in 1890 and he made and flew the first box-kite in this country. He carried on many experiments with kite photography with atmospheric electricity. He also made a model aeroplane which flew three miles without power about 1905. During the Spanish-American War he sold his whole outfit for the purpose of detecting the enemy, to the U. S. A. He became an authority on storms and atmospheric conditions and became known, not only in this country but also abroad, through his constant appearance in the newspapers with accounts of his experiments and discoveries. His scientific articles appeared in many magazines and papers.

He was a soldier in the Civil War in Co. A of the 13th Iowa Vol. At the close of the war he went to Kansas where he settled in Johnson Co. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and an officer of the same. His business was farming and stock raising, but in 1892 his health became so poor that he was obliged to give up such a strenuous life and he then moved to Belleville, Kansas. During the war Jennie Eddy tended the farm and planted the crops in the absence of her brother at the front. She learned to spin and weave and knit. Later when there was an opportunity, she attended Cornell College at Mt. Vernon, Ia. She has been greatly interested in Sunday Schools and both home and foreign missions.

Note. The following incident was told by one of his regiment about Mr. Arrasmith. He said:

"We were ordered to go to Fort Pillow when General Forest was there. Our gun-boat got loose from our vessel. The Commander immediately called for volunteers. Comrade Arrasmith stepped out straight as an arrow, and said, 'I enlisted to save our country. We can do nothing without our gun-boat.' He plunged into the river with bullets flying all around, secured the gun-boat, returned to the vessel unharmed, when it looked as though he had stepped into the very jaws of death."

In a letter written in 1916, Mr. John Eddy wrote: "My father, Otis Eddy, took care of his grandfather, Willard Eddy, during the last ten years of his life, when he was bedridden, and partly from memory and partly from repeated relation by my father and mother when I was young, my memory is stored with many incidents of Willard Eddy's career." John M. Eddy was the last Eddy born on the old Eddy homestead in Richfield, N. Y., where three generations had lived for over 50 years. At the age of six his parents went to Michigan. They lived at Lima and Superior but chiefly near Plymouth, Wayne Co. He was of a studious nature and had a good education in the public schools. When twenty-four years of age he went to California to teach school. He purchased a farm of 80 acres and alternated farming and teaching. In 1888 he became an editorial writer on "The Humboldt Times." In 1892 he became Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. In 1895 he went to San Francisco. The following year he resumed editorial work on the "Daily Record" in Stockton and in 1898 on the "Daily Independent." During the Panama Pacific Exposition, he was chief clerk of the bureau of societies and conventions. He became interested in good roads and has helped many counties of California in their drive for better traveling facilities. At the request of the Director of Congress at the Universal Exposition he had charge of the correspondence of the Congress of Genealogy and was a delegate of the "Old Plymouth Colony Descendants" in July 28–30, 1916. His home is now in San Francisco.

He was prepared for college at Williston Seminary at Easthampton, Mass., and entered Hamilton with the Class of 1868. He was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He was a member of Delta Upsilon. He took up the study of medicine, and was for the year 1870–1871 the house surgeon at the Long Island College Hospital. On leaving that post he was appointed medical officer in the United States Army, and was stationed in Texas, where he remained until 1874. From 1875 to 1878 he was stationed at Fort Lowell and later Fort Thomas, in Arizona. In 1877 he withdrew from the army and took up the private practice of his profession in California. In 1882 Dr. Eddy was appointed a reviewer in the Government Bureau of Pensions, in Washington, D. C., a position he held for over forty years. He was a member of the Episcopal church, and of the Masonic fraternity. He had no children.

5757 Charles Eddy (James, Otis, Willard, Enoch, Zachariah, Zachariah, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Feb. 28, 1850, at Bangor, Maine; d. Aug. 10, 1911, at Brooklyn, N. Y.; m. June 25, 1875, at Brooklyn, N. Y., Anna Edner; b. Dec. 5, 1848, at Stockholm, Sweden; d. 1914. He was a physician. He was educated in the public schools of New York and in the College of the City of New York. He finished at the Bellevue Hospital Medical College in 1873.

He had always been interested in the history of his family and amused himself in odd moments by collecting all the items regarding the Eddys that he could find. By correspondence and research, he amassed a large number of facts. These he arranged and had printed early in 1881 in a small book of about 170 pages, the "Genealogy of the Eddy Family." This edition was issued just after the great reunion in Providence of the Eddy families who had gathered to celebrate the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the landing of the two Eddy brothers John and Samuel Eddy, at Plymouth.

So great was the enthusiasm at that meeting that Robert Henry Eddy of Boston undertook the printing of a book which would contain all the addresses of the day. Dr. Charles Eddy very kindly loaned him whatever material he had on hand which pertained to the various families, and late in 1881 the large edition of the Eddy family was issued. In the article under "Dr. Charles Eddy" of this later book, Robert Henry Eddy acknowledges his great indebtedness to Dr. Charles Eddy.

About 1905 Dr. Charles Eddy began to revise and to add to his first edition. He died before this was accomplished. His manuscript and letters were then given to Mr. Byron Barnes Horton, who has recently had them copied and bound and placed in the New England Historical and Genealogical Rooms in Boston, where they may be consulted.

It is to Dr. Charles Eddy as well as to Caleb Eddy of Boston, and his son Robt. H. Eddy, that all Eddys owe a great debt, for he collected information which would otherwise have been lost with the death of many of the older members.

In 1865 the family left Oregon and returned to Jefferson Co., N. Y., to the old homestead. Horatio entered Dean Academy at Franklin, Mass., and then graduated from Tufts College. He located at Watertown, N. Y., where he studied law and was admitted to the bar at Rochester. In 1878, he went to Topeka, Kan., then to Leadville, Col., and soon to Summit County, Col., where he engaged in mining and prospecting. In 1880 he was elected State Senator. In 1885 he went to Routt Co., where he engaged in stock-raising. In 1888 he was elected to the House of Representatives from Grande and Routt counties and was the speaker for that term. In March 1893 he purchased control of the "Evening Telegraph," at Colorado Springs, but in a few months sold out and took over the "Sun" in Denver. This was consolidated with the Denver "Times" in 1894, when he became editor of it. In the legislature he was a ready and logical debater. As a parliamentarian he had no superior in that body. As a writer he was pungent, strong and logical. The town of Eddy in Routt Co., Col., was named after him. (From Frank Hall's History of Colorado, Vol. 4, p. 433). He never married.

(1) Oct. 18, 1892, at Boston, Marguerite Harris Brown of Cleveland, O.; dau. of Samuel Everett and Rose Hadassah (McBride) Brown. She was b. Apr. 27, 1870; d. Dec. 27, 1892, at Redlands, Cal. He m. (2) Nov. 24, 1926, at New York City, Mrs. Luella (Eddy) Smith, widow of Horace G. Smith, and daughter of Will Currier and Rosalie Smith (Hawkins) Eddy of Auburndale, Mass. She was b. Mar. 6, 1884. (See No. 8871.)

He was one of those to whom appeared the vision of a large association composed of the descendants of John and Samuel Eddy. From the founding of the Eddy Family Association in 1920, he has been the secretary and the editor of the Bulletins, issued twice a year by the association. He was instrumental in having the Eddy Family Association incorporated under the laws of Mass. and to him perhaps more than to any other one individual is due the great success of this large undertaking. For ten years he has devoted all the time that he could spare from his business to the immense amount of correspondence necessary for such a work. He is a civil engineer, but for many years he was with his brother in the insurance business in Boston. At present he is in New York at 100 William St., engaged in the insurance business under the firm name of James W. Eddy and Co. Mrs. Luella Eddy is the recording secretary of the Eddy Family Association, Inc.

6188 John Hardenbergh Eddy (Peleg, Thomas, Peleg, Esek, Jeremiah, John, Zachariah, Samuel, William), b. Mar. 6, 1865, at Roxbury; m. Oct. 17, 1888, at Brighton, Emily French; b. Jan. 24, 1864, at Randolph, Mass.; dau. of Austin Bryant and Sarah Jane (Atkins) French.

John H. Eddy after finishing his education in the Boston Latin school in 1882, entered business with one of the largest wool merchants in Boston. In Nov. 1889 he went into the Fire Insurance business with his father. Upon the retirement of the latter in 1896 he continued under the firm name of John H. Eddy & Company. He has been an active worker and officer in the various associations connected with that business. He is president of the Boston Board of Fire Underwriters, a director in the Holyoke Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Boston and a member of various other insurance groups and also of the Boston Chamber of Commerce. For many years he has served as treasurer and president of the Norumbega Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He was one of the first to plan the Eddy Family Association in 1920 and from its beginning he has been a vice-president and has served as chairman of the Finance Committee. It is largely due to his interest and work that the finances have always been in a flourishing condition. He lives at 542 Walnut St., Newtonville, Mass.

In 1863, when he was fourteen, he entered the service of the American Telegraph Co. at Whitehall, as its manager and chief telegrapher. Later he turned his attention to the development of the telephone. In 1877 the American Speaking Telephone Company assigned to him several counties in northern New York and he began to give exhibitions at night, using the telegraph lines between Glens Falls, Ausable Forks, Plattsburg and Rutland. By this means he interested the public. In 1882 he was made manager of the Exchange opened by the Union Hill Telephone Co. in Whitehall. This became the head of the Albany district. In 1911 he became a special agent for the Hudson Division of the New York Telephone Co. He now holds (1927) the record for having completed sixty-four years of service in the New York Telephone Company or its predecessors.

He is one of the well-known artists of America. He was a pupil of Volk, Cox, Twachtman, George Elmer Browne and several other famous artists. He is a member of many art associations, among them the Provincetown Art Association Guild of American Painters and Allied Artists of America. His paintings hang in several of the public galleries in America. Two of his paintings have recently been copied for the covers of the Literary Digest. The cover of the number issued on July 26, 1924, was a copy of his painting in the Babcock Galleries, New York City. It gave a picture very characteristic of his style. It was entitled "A Nantucket Doorway." On the number issued October 29, 1927, the picture was of "A Venetian Canal". At Passaic, N. J., in the Reid Memorial Library is another very characteristic work, entitled "St. Michaels at Passaic." His home is in Westfield, N. J., but much of his time is spent in traveling and in spots which furnish subjects for his brush.

JOHN EDDY OF TAUNTON AND HIS DESCENDANTS

9276 John Eddy (Parentage not known), d. Nov. 27, 1695, at Taunton, Mass.; m. (1) Nov. 12, 1665, Susannah Paddock of Dartmouth (Taunton, V.R.), who d. Mar 14, 1670, at Taunton (V.R.). She was the dau. of Robert and Mary Paddock (Austin Gen. Reg., pp. 187–189). He m. (2) May 1, 1672, Deliverance Owen of Braintree, Mass. (Taunton and East Bridgewater, V.R.). She was the dau. of William and Elizabeth (Davis) Owen (Austin, 160 Allied Fam.) and was b. Feb. 15, 1654. Another authority gives the wife of William Owen as a daughter of Charles and Margaret Grice. Deliverance married (2) Nathaniel Smith, who died before 1717. (Taunton Deeds, Vol. XII, p. 202). She died May 3, 1726 at Norton, Mass.

For years Miss Clara Avery, a descendant of John Eddy of Taunton, has searched both in Old England and New England for some clue to the parentage of this John Eddy, but with no success. The compiler also has studied most carefully the early records of Plymouth and of Taunton. Every reference to this John Eddy previous to 1670 which has been discovered is hereafter recorded. Both Miss Avery and the compiler feel that there is a very close association between the family of John Eddy of Taunton and Samuel Eddy of Plymouth and that John at one time was either a member of Samuel's household or else a very close neighbor.

The first mention in the records of the John Eddy known later as John Eddy of Taunton, carpenter, is as a witness to a deed in which John Eddy of Plymouth, blacksmith, was the grantee. He purchased lands adjoining those of John Eddway (Eddy), carpenter. The deed follows:

PRENCE GOUR

The foregoing copy is from Plymouth Colony Records. Vol. II, Pg. 37. John B. Washburn, Regr.

The Plymouth records have two other references to a John Eddy who is not the John Eddy, blacksmith, son of Samuel. John, the blacksmith, went to Marthas Vineyard in the late summer of 1660 and remained there the rest of his life, so he cannot be the John of the following records. On July 23, 1661, a jury was summoned "to enquire into the sudden death of John Bond of Plymouth, a servant to George Watson" (Plym. Court Orders). John Eedey was one of the twelve to sign the verdict. Again on Oct. 4, 1664, "James Bell of Taunton was fined 3 sh. 4d. for striking John Eedey" (Court Orders).

These three references prove the presence of John Eddy, the carpenter, in Plymouth, previous to his settlement in Taunton, and his signature as a witness to the deed proves that he was at least an acquaintance, if not a relative, of John Eddy, the blacksmith. He may have been a brother of John, the blacksmith. At this period both in England and in New England, brothers bearing the same name are frequently found. He may have been a half-brother, a son of Samuel, by a wife before Elizabeth, or he may have been a son of that Eddy, who according to Pope (Pioneers of Massachusetts) came from Boxted, Eng., in 1639. It is known that Samuel had a younger brother, Zachariah Eddy, so it is possible that he was the immigrant Eddy of 1639 and John was his son. Perhaps this Eddy of 1639 made his home with Samuel or perhaps he did not live long and that is why no trace of him can be found in the records. In this event it is very easy to think of the carpenter, John, as a member of his uncle's family and so at hand when a witness for the deed was needed. It is known that Samuel and Elizabeth apprenticed their son John to Francis and Katherine Goulder and that John Eddy, son of Samuel, learned the trade of a blacksmith. It has always been supposed that the apprentice to the Goulders and the blacksmith were the same person, but if it could be proved that Francis Goulder was a carpenter, then it would follow that it was the other John who had been apprenticed and so the question of the parentage would be settled. Up to the present no record of the trade of Francis Goulder has been found.

A list of those owning land in Taunton in 1643 contains the names of Mr. John Browne, John Gilbert, Jr., Thomas Gilbert, Christopher Thresher, Richard Stacey, William Hailstone, John Macomber, John Browne, William Hodges, Thomas Harvey, Aron Knapp, William Wetherell, and a second list adds Thomas Lincon. There is no Eddy on the list.

How or when John Eddway, carpenter, came into possession of that tract of land in Taunton is not recorded. If a deed or grant of land could be found it might solve the problem of the parentage of John, the carpenter. There can be no question of the fact that there is a very close relationship between the carpenter John and the family of Samuel of Plymouth. The first names of the descendants of John of Taunton are almost identical in the first three or four generations with those of Samuel of Plymouth. Eleazar, Deliverance and Experience, of the Taunton line, do not appear in the Plymouth group, but Samuel, Obadiah, Zachariah, Ebenezer, Jonathan, Joseph, Asa, Nathan, Ephraim, Moses, and Joshua, are characteristic of both.

John Eddy, the carpenter, and Zachariah Eddy, son of Samuel, married sisters. After his marriage to Susannah Paddock, John Eddy went to Taunton and settled on his land there, not far from Scaddings Pond and its outlet, Mill River. He seems to have taken no active part in the town's affairs. In 1675 when a Census was taken to learn the fighting strength of the town at the outbreak of King Philip's War, John Eddy appears as the head of a family.

On Apr. 8, 1682, the military company of Taunton was divided into four squadrons, for the "guidance of members in attendance of meeting on the Lord's Day." The "first Squadron is ordered to bring their arms to meeting the third Sabbath, which will be the sixteenth of this month and ye rest of ye squadron successively . . ." "the Court Order is that every souldier bring his armes fixed to meeting when it is his turn, with six charges of powder and shot and if any refuse or neglect to performe therein to be fined two shillings for every such default and ten shillings if it appear to be in contempt . . . and if any stay from meeting because they will not bring their armes to meeting such to be summoned to court . . . ." In 1691 John Eddy was fined 6 sh. Once during King William's War his horse was impressed for the use of Uriah Leonard, who used it to travel to Little Compton, R. I., on an expedition. (Note. There is a possibility that John Eddy, son of Obadiah of Middleborough, is the John Eddy of these last two records, but the absence of the word Junior would seem to imply that it was the elder John Eddy who was thus mentioned.)

The Plymouth Records contain this interesting item concerning the pay of soldiers. (Plym. Rec., Vol. V, p. 236). Constables of Taunton now in being are required by the court that when a p'sell of Iron shall be attached by them for the defraying the rate of the souldier's wages that they require Ensign Leonard or James Lincon to draw it forth into merchantable barrs.

All the other records concerning John Eddy of Taunton pertain to the purchase or sale of land, and to the division of his property after his death. In 1660 he was in possession of land at Scadding Meadows, near Aaron Knapp's. On Oct. 13, 1668, he purchased from William Hailstone about 20 acres near the head of Babbit's Brook and bounded by the commons (Vol. I, p. 276, Bristol Co. Deeds). Ten years later he purchased from William Wetherell more land near his home lying northerly of Scadding, on the west side of Mill River, bounded by Mill River on the east, land of Joseph Grey on the south, by Christopher Thresher on the west and land of Nicholas White on the north (Bristol Co. Deeds, Vol. I, p. 275) and again the same year he purchased from Increase Robinson, "meadow and upland, westerly from the meeting-house at a place called Rumford on the Three Mile River, the upland bounded by a branch of the Three Mile on the west, and land of Christopher Thresher on the north." Four years later on May 2, 1682 he purchased from Benjamin Leonard and wife Sarah more property in this same section, bounded by land of John Eddy on the south side and by John Macomber on the north. This was in the section known as Brown's farm and was the 13th lot in the Rumford Division (Vol. I, p. 277). The next year he added again to these lands by purchase from Thomas Gilbert. The lands adjoined those already in his possession at "Rumford" (Vol. I, p. 279). He purchased also from John Macomber, Sen'r, Mary Evans and Thomas Linkun.

Mill River is the outlet of Scadding Pond, flowing through Whittenton, Brittaniaville and Hopewell. It empties into the Taunton River at the Neck of Land. The Three Mile River is formed by the junction of the Rumford and Wading Rivers in Norton and flows through Oakland, Westville, and North Dighton.

In addition to the purchases John Eddy was granted land by the town for various reasons. These grants are found in the Proprietor's Records.

(Vol. I, p. 121). On the west side of the Taunton Great River at a place called Crooked Meadow land laid out to Rev. Samuel Danforth and of this John Eddy has two acres and more.
(Vol. II, p. 34). Appointed to John Eddy, by virtue of his ½ purchase of John Macomber, Senior, 5 acres of land at the head of the land that was Christopher Thresher's . . . and ten acres more on the north side of the Three Mile River opposite the land he bought of Thomas Gilbert and of John Macomber, Senior. On Jan. 29, 1666 it was granted to John Eddy to have five or six acres . . . in lieu of a highway through his land and on Dec. 27, 1669 he was granted 6 acres of plain adjacent to the land which he bought of Hailstone.

In the allotment of lands in the South Purchase there was some trouble, for on Nov. 29, 1672, it is agreed that Joseph Willis, John Eddy and Thomas Armsbee are this day excepted to have a part in the land down the river—Capt. Southworth Purchase. In the list of three days previous, Nov. 26, 1672, John Eddy's name was included among the 87 names. Again on Mar. 18, 1683 when another declaratory deed of the 87 men associated in 1672 was made, it is stated that ten men were omitted. One of the ten thus mentioned was John Eddy. (Plym. Col. Rec. Deeds, Vol. V, p. 302 and South Purchase Prop. Rec. Vol. I, p. 15.)
John Eddy died without a will. After his death his property was divided by the court. (See Eddy Bulletin No. 13, p. 184, for the full account.) Those who received shares were the widow, Deliverance Eddy, sons Ebenezer, Eleazer, Joseph, Jonathan, daughters Susannah Eddy, Patience Eddy, Mary Rude, eldest dau.; Mercy Fisher, second dau.; Hannah Eddy. (Bristol Co. Probate, Vol. II, p. 20.) Another record in Taunton states that "Susannah Durffes, dau. of John Eddy Dec'd, and wife of John Durffes, relinquished to her mother Deliverance Smith, widow, their share in the homestead of John Eddy, Dec'd." (Deeds Vol. XII, p. 203.)

In the earliest Preston land records John Rude is spoken of as of Norwich, Conn. Upon the settlement of her father's estate in Taunton, Aug. 15, 1696, Mary Rude received a share, as follows:

Fifthly, we order and appt that sd widow pay out of the moveables unto Mary Rude the eldest daughter of sd dec'd thirteen pounds seven shillings and five pence with what she hath had already. (Bristol Co., Mass. Probate, Vol. II, p. 20.)

In the records of deaths in the books of the First Congregational Church of Preston is this,—"1795, Feb'y 10, Zecheriah Rude, 104 yrs. 7 mo."

9278 John Eddy (John of T), b. Jan. 19, 1670, Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); d. 1690 or 1691 at Anticosti Island in the St. Lawrence River (Bristol Co. Deeds, Bk. 30, p. 257). He was probably unmarried. He left no children as his brothers were his heirs. He is not mentioned in the settlement of his father's estate in 1696. He and Daniel Fisher were both in Capt. Samuel Gallop's Co. in the expedition against Canada under Sir William Phipps in 1690. He is the John Eddy mentioned in the following records:

Impress Warrant. June 24, 1690.

To John Thresher of Taunton of Bristol Co. or his deputy.

These are in their majesties name to require you to impress for their majesties service against the common enemy . . . John Edy, jr. . . . and for each of them a sufficient gun and powder-horn or cartouch box, and a hatchet, all to be ready to march by the third of July next.

Given under our hands in Taunton, June 21, 1690. (Thomas Leonard Papers)

The Price of Soldiers Armes as they were pressed for the Expedition of 1690 . . . John Eddys gun of John Macomber, £1 10sh. (City Hall Papers, quoted in the "History of Taunton", by Samuel Hopkins Emery.)

Taunton ye IX November 1690. (Hist. of Taunton, by Emery.)

John Eddy's name is on the list of those who served in Capt. Gallop's Co. in the Canada Expedition in 1690 whose heirs in June 1771 were granted lands in Lenox and Savoy, Mass., "in compensation for a former grant which was lost by running the line of the state of New Hampshire."

Ebenezer Eddy of Norton, blacksmith, sold Joseph Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, "all rights . . . unto any grants already made or that may hereafter be made by the great and general court of this province to the officers and souldiers in the Canady Expedition 1690 wherein my brother John Eddy (to whom I am ye next male heir) was present and under the command of Capt. Samuel Gallop . . . dated Feb. 23, 1736. (Bristol Co. Deeds Bk. 28, p. 69.)

Jonathan Eddy of Taunton, cooper, for £250 a "part of which money I had when I gave a deed of my honored father's homestead and the rest paid by Joseph Eddy of Taunton" to whom I "quit-claim all my rights in Taunton and in Gallop township so called except a piece of Cedar Swamp which came to me by my brother John Eddy who died on Onticost Island . . . " Deed, dated Feb. 18, 1740, and acknowledged Feb. 23, 1740. (Bristol Co. Deeds, 30.257.)

9279 Marcy or Mercy Eddy (John of T), b. July 5, 1673, Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); m. Feb. 7, 1694/95, Daniel Fisher, Jr., at Taunton (V.R.). He was the son of Daniel^2 (Anthony^1 and Mary) and Hannah (Hill) Fisher. In the Proprietor's Records of Taunton "it is voted to lay out Daniel Fisher's grants." "Granted to Daniel Fisher on John Eddy's right," . . . the second grant dated Mar. 6, 1702/03 and is "near Joseph Eddy's fence."

9280 Hannah Eddy (John of T), b. Dec. 6, 1676, at Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); d. after 1750; m. Dec. 24, 1696, at Taunton (V.R.), Eliezer Fisher; son of Daniel^2 (Anthony^1 and Mary) and Hannah (Hill) Fisher. Eliezar Fisher was b. May 12, 1673; d. bet. Nov. 16 and Dec. 3, 1750. He left a will dated Oct. 24, 1750, in which he mentions wife, Hannah; sons, Eliezar, John, Nehemiah, Nathan, Edmon, Jonathan, dec'd; and daughters, Patience, wife of Seth Eddy; Charity, wife of Seth Carpenter; Joanna Whitman, wife of David Whitman, and Mary, wife of David Darby (Bristol Co. Probate, Bk. 12, p. 443).

(Note. The will of Eliezar Fisher is printed in the Eddy Family Bulletin No. 11, p. 193.)

Eliezar Fisher was very prominent in the affairs of Norton, where he lived. When the church was to be raised at a cost of £42 in Jan. 1709/10 his portion was 10 sh. on "heads," 1 sh. 5 pence on real estate and 3 sh. 6 pence on personal estate (History of Norton by J. F. Clark).

In 1707 he was one of those who petitioned for a new precinct as he lived "6 miles from the Taunton Meeting House." On May 17, 1708, he objected to having any change made in the burying field, namely the Common Burying Ground, situated a mile and a quarter south of the centre of the village near the town line between Taunton and Norton. He declared that the vote to set off the northern part of the town was illegal. In 1727 he was chosen selectman. A fac-simile of his signature may be seen on page 81 in Clark's History of Norton.

Hannah was admitted to the church in Norton in 1714. In 1744 it is recorded that some of their children went to Louisburg to fight in the war with France.

9296 Mary Fisher, b. Aug. 30, 1720; m. David Darby.

9281 Ebenezer Eddy (John of T), b. May 16, 1679, Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); d. at Norton, Mass. bef. Dec. 4, 1756, when Sarah Tucker and Sarah Eddy were appointed to administer his estate. His first wife was Mary Fisher who was living in 1729/30 (Bristol Co. Deeds, Bk. 34; p. 320). His second wife was Sarah Leonard; b. May 21, 1680 (Leonard Gen. p. 84).

(Note. It is claimed that a Sarah Leonard was the second wife of Ebenezer's brother, Joseph Eddy, who left a wife, Sarah, at his decease in 1758. [Will of Joseph Eddy, Bristol Co. Probate, also Eddy Family Bulletin No. 11; p. 189.] Whether there were two Sarah Leonards, whether Joseph married his brother's widow or whether the wife of only one of the brothers was Sarah Leonard has not as yet been proved.)

In the distribution of his father's estate Ebenezer received the land that was purchased of Increase Robinson and the 20 acres bought of Mr. Shove. It is probable that he settled on a part of this near what is now called Crane's Depot. He was one of the earliest settlers of Norton, and he, together with his brother, Eleazar Eddy, and his brother-in-law, Eleazer Fisher, and forty others, signed a document asking for a new precinct in Taunton (Mass. State Papers, Vol. CXIII, p. 512).

"We whose names are underwritten, being part of the inhabitants of Taunton old Town, and part of Taunton North Purchase, being very sensible of the great difficulty that we are under in liveing so remote from the publick worship of God, and great need of haveing it settled amongst us, that so our children and those under our care and charge, as well as ourselves, may enjoy the means of grace . . . have this day 27 Nov. 1707 chosen . . . agents . . . to request the town to bound us out a presink for the maintainence of a minister, etc." The petition itself shows even more clearly the firm intention of the people to bring up their families in the fear of God.

"We humbly and earnestly desire the town seriously to consider of the vary difficult circumstances that we are under in liveing so remote from the publick worship of God, that great part of the year we can not come to meeting, and that we can at no time of the year without very great difficulty bring allmost any of our children to meeting; so that if we continue long after this manner, the sowls of our children, and those under our care and charge will be in danger of perishing for lack of knowledge, for it is Evident from scripture that faith comes by heering, and heering by the word preacht. Tho we are not insencable of our poverty, and great difficulty that we shall thereby meet with in carrying on such desire . . . we earnestly desire and hope that the town will forward so good a design." (Mass. State Papers Vol. CXIII, p. 513.)

To add emphasis to the above petition the writers add that Eleazar Eddy and Ebenezer Eddy dwell nearest to the Taunton Meeting House and they dwell five and a half miles away (Clark's Hist. of Norton, p. 60).

Ebenezer Eddy was greatly interested in the church. From the rate bill which was made out for the erection of the meeting house in Norton in Jan. 1709/10, Ebenezer's tax was "10 shillings on Heads, 1 shilling and five pence on Real Estate and 5 shillings and 10 pence on Personal Estate" and again when it was "voted to give ye minister £20 for the finishing of his house" . . . "Ebenezer Eddy was excepted in said account having given already. He has given 5 shillings already."

On Jun. 12, 1749 Ebenezer Eddy and others petitioned "the Precinct Committee to call a precinct meeting to make choice of some man to settle in ye worke of ye Gospell ministry amongst us."

Once when a committee was chosen to wait on Rev. Mr. Avery "to come and answer to some objections which the church body takes against him, thinking he had acted without authority of the church," Ebenezer Eddy registered his vote "against Mr. Joseph Avery, his ruling and governing this church."

One more record in 1752 shows that Ebenezer Eddy at seventy years of age is the same devout, God-fearing, man of his youth. His signature is affixed to the following statement. "We, the subscribers of the First Church of Christ in Norton, Having read the Church Covenant which our fathers entered into when this church was first Geathered in this place, and voted our consent thereto (it being a Congregational church) do now, in the Presance of God, Renew the same by subscribing our names thereto, this 17th day of Nov. 1752." A fac-simile of his signature is on page 81 of Clark's History of Norton. Ebenezer's wife, Mary, was admitted to the church in 1718 from the church in Taunton.

In 1728 the town of Norton chose Ebenezer Eddy to be one of its wardens in accordance with a vote that the town shall have from two to six wardens who shall be "men of good substance and of sober Life and conversation, whose duty it is to see that the Sabbath was duly observed in all public houses and elsewhere and to examine all persons suspected of unnecessary travelling on the Sabbath . . . and such as absent themselves from the publick worship."

His name is found signed to several public documents, generally in company with that of Eleazar Eddy and Eleazer Fisher. When the call came for Military Practice, he joined the First Military Co. of Taunton, on May 30, 1700. His name also appears on Capt. Leonard's list of "Impressed Men delivered to Leftenant Samuel Williams, April 12, 1704."

He was a blacksmith by trade as several of his land transactions show, but he generally called himself yeoman. He bought and sold land quite frequently, most of it being in the Rumford section, on the Rumford river, also on the Wading river, at Lockety Neck, at Crooked Meadow, at the Seconk Cedar Swamp and at the Crooked Meadow Cedar Swamp. His name also appears in the Proprietor's records.

Ebenezer Eddy outlived all of his children. He died intestate. When Ebenezer's property was settled it was divided among the heirs of Ichabod, eldest son; heirs of Ebenezer, deceased, second son; heirs of Samuel Eddy, deceased, third son; heirs of Mary Tucker, deceased, oldest daughter; heirs of Jemima Tucker, deceased, second daughter and heirs of Waitstill Tucker, deceased, third daughter. The settlement was made April 13, 1757. The Bristol Co. Probate Records contain a fine inventory of his possessions. The following deeds contain items of genealogical interest. They are on file in Bristol Co.

Ebenezer Eddy, husbandman, to Joseph Eddy . . . "my rights in the dower of my honored mother Deliverance Smith, late of Taunton, deceased, which fell to her . . . from the property of my honored father John Eddy late of sd Taunton, dec'd." Dated Mar. 26, 1739. (Bristol Co. Deeds, Bk. 28, p. 347.)

Ebenezer Eddy of Norton . . . "to my son Ichabod Eddy of Norton, husbandman . . . a part of my homestead farm on the westerly side thereof, twenty acres." Dated April 7, 1727. (Bk. 17, p. 468.)

Ebenezer Eddy of Norton, "blacksmith, for £100 to my son, Samuel Eddy of Norton, husbandman . . . part of my homestead farm, fifteen acres on the road from Taunton to Norton." Dated April 6, 1742. (Bk. 52, p. 520.)

Ebenezer Eddy of Norton yeoman . . . to Ebenezer Eddy, Jr. of Norton, laborer . . . a part of my now dwelling farm. Dated Feb. 21, 1755. (Bk. 41, p. 241.)

Children of Ebenezer and Mary (Fisher) Eddy, all born in Norton, Mass. (V.R.):

+9297 Ichabod Eddy, b. Feb. 2, 1702/03.
+9298 Mary Eddy, b. Nov. 22, 1704.
9299 Sarah (or Zerviah) Eddy, b. May 9, 1705; d. June 14, 1705.
+9300 Ebenezer Eddy, b. Apr. 16, 1707.
+9301 Jemimah Eddy, b. Feb. 28, 1708/09.

+9303 Samuel Eddy, b. Aug. 24, 1712.

9282 Eleazar Eddy (John of T), b. Oct. 16, 1681, Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); d. Dec. 8, 1739, Norton, Mass. (V.R.). He m. (1) Mar. 27, 1701, Elizabeth Randall; m. (2) July 6, 1722/23 at Taunton, Elizabeth Cobb (V.R.).

From the division of his father's property he received the land bought of Thomas Gilbert and land on the northerly side of the Three Mile river, the Cedar Swamp lot and a half purchase right in the 50 acre division and the meadow purchased of John Macomber. He sold a part of this to his brothers, Joseph and Ebenezer, and some to his son, Caleb. In one deed he called himself, "mill-wright," but in his will he left to his son, Caleb, "all my carpenter's tools and joiner's and wheelwright tools," so it is probable that he followed in his father's footsteps and learned the carpenter's trade.

In many town matters his name was linked with that of his older brother, Ebenezer. He signed the petition for the new precinct in 1709. (See account under Ebenezer.) His home was five and a half miles away from Taunton Meeting House. When the tax for finishing the minister's house was assessed "his share was 6 shillings 8 pence on Heads, 2 shillings 2 pence on real estate, and 3 shillings 3 pence on personal estate."

Eleazar's name appears in the Proprietor's records as having land granted unto him and it is on the roster of the First Military Co. of Taunton on May 30, 1700. His signature may be seen on his will on file in the Bristol Co. Probate records. In 1720 he was town treasurer and in 1721, 1722, 1724 and 1726 he was tax assessor. On Oct. 25, 1738, he was chosen to see "that no one kills wild deer between the last day of December and August 1st following under a penalty of £2 for the first offense; £3 for the second; £5 for the third;" etc. (Hist. of Norton by Clark.)

The following are abstracts from deeds on file in Bristol Co., Mass.:

Eleazar Edy of Norton . . . "to my brother Ebenezer Edy of Norton . . . a Rumford lot . . . set out to Eliezer as part of his portion of his deceased father, John Eddy's estate." . . . Dated Mar. 7, 1719–20. (Bk. 15, p. 422.)

Eliazer Edy of Norton . . . "to my son, Caleb Eddy, land in Norton between Eliazer Edy's homestead and land of John Briggs . . . " Dated Dec. 20, 1720. (Bk. 18, p. 135.)

Eleazar Edy of Norton, "millwright, to Joseph Edy of Taunton, yeoman . . . all right I ever had in dower or thirds of my honored mother, Deliverance Smith, late of Taunton, deceased, which fell to her out of ye estate of my honored father, John Eddy, late of Taunton, deceased." Dated Mar. 26, 1739. (Bk. 28, p. 346.)

Eleazar Eddy left a will, dated Nov. 7, 1739 in which he mentioned "eldest son, John, now in Colchester, Conn.; second son, Caleb; Eleazar, my third son; sons Joshua, Obediah, Jonathan, Oliver; daughter Elizabeth Penny, who has a son John; daughter, Hannah Miller and daughter Charity Baker."

(Note. The will is printed in full in the Eddy Family Bulletin No. 11).

+9305 John Eddy, b. abt. 1701.
+9306 Caleb Eddy, b. abt. 1702.
+9307 Hannah Eddy, b. abt. 1704.
9308 Elizabeth Eddy, b. abt. 1705; m. Apr. 8, 1726, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.), Nathan Penny. (In Bristol, R. I. records, the name is spelled Perry but in the father's will and in the Norton records it is Penny.) She witnessed a deed (B.C.D. 37:495). They had a son, John Penny.
9309 Charity Eddy, b. abt. 1707; m. Sept. 25, 1729 (Cape Cod Genealogies No. 73), Josiah Baker, son of Wm.^{2} (Francis^1 Baker and Isabel Twining) and wife Mercy (. . .) Baker. (Will of father and Cape Cod Gen. No. 73.)
+9310 Eleazar Eddy.
+9311 Joshua Eddy.

Children, by second wife:

+9312 Obadiah Eddy, b. abt. 1722 (Age given on Muster Roll in 1756 is 34).
+9313 Jonathan Eddy, b. abt. 1726.
+9314 Oliver Eddy, b. abt. 1731 (Age given on Muster Roll in 1755 is 24 yrs.).

9283 Joseph Eddy (John of T), b. Jan. 4, 1683, Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); d. bef. Feb. 6, 1759, when his will dated, July 22, 1758, was probated; m. (1) Abigail Haskins; dau. of Samuel and Mary (Astin)

Haskins. Mary Astin was the dau. of Jonah^2 (Jonah^1) Astin. Joseph married (2) Sarah Leonard who survived him.

(NOTE. Both Ebenezer and Joseph are said to have married a Sarah Leonard, but to date no evidence has been found by the compiler that Sarah Leonard married Ebenezer Eddy.)

The following abstracts from Bristol Co. Registry of Deeds show the ancestry of Abigail Haskins, and also that Abigail Haskins was the wife of Joseph.

(Bk. 18, p. 76) Lands of Jonah Astin, late of Taunton owned by posterity by verbal agreement . . . Eldest son Jonah Astin; . . . second son John Astin of Norton; . . . dau. Esther Newland, (mar. Anthony Newland); Mary wife of Sam'l Hoskins Sen'r (this may be "junior" as writing is not clear) of Taunton . . . whole 4th privilege lot being the lower lot, having already paid out of it . . . to Sarah wf. of John Knap, also sd Mary Haskins and legal representatives are to have ye upper division and little lot in 4th privilege and sd Jonah Astin's whole right to be common land in said 4th privilege. She also had a 6th part of sd half privilege in old township of Taunton and lands at Goosebery Meadow. . . . Sarah, wife of John Knap . . . Mary Hoskins is deceased and her representatives are William Hoskins and Joseph Eddy and Abagail Eddy his wife . . . and legal representatives of Sarah Knap dec'd are John Knap and Ephraim Knap, Sarah Dexter and her husband James Dexter and Mary Knapp . . . dated Apr. 2, 1718. Joseph and Abigail Eddy signed the above agreement Nov. 11, 1727 in the presence of Ebenezer Fisher and Pachants White. It is recorded Jan. 10, 1727/28. (NOTE. Pachants White was the sister of Joseph Eddy and wife of William White.)

(Bk. 18, p. 19) Jonah Astin died about 43 years ago and then was Jonah Astin Junior and was original proprietor in Taunton South Purchase and died seized of 3rd lot in first division and one whole full share . . . and is now in Dighton . . . and now belongs to Jonah Astin, eldest son; John Astin of Norton, 2nd son; Ester Newland of Norton, widow, eldest daughter; John Knap & Ephraim Knap, sons of Sarah Knap, third daughter and she is deceased; William Haskins, Jr., Abigail Eddy, wife of Joseph Eddy, children of Mary Haskins, second daughter of Jonah, dec'd and she is deceased." . . . This is dated and acknowledged June 3, 1719, and Jonah Austin and Joseph Eddy are appointed attorneys to settle up the estate.

(Bk. 17, p. 428) Joseph Eddy and Abigail Eddy and William Hoskins, son of Sam'l Hoskins dec'd, sell to N. Morey of Dighton $^5/_6$th parts of 3rd lott in the first and lower division of lotts in South Purchase of Taunton afd, now in the township of Dighton, containing about 64 acres laid out and recorded in the right of Jonah Astin, dec'd, comprising five full shares of sixth parts of afsd lott together with all that part of sd lott lately recovered by Jonah Astin of Taunton, John Austin and Ester Newland of Norton against said Nicholas Morey and anything else laid out to Jonah Astin which said premises comprehend. all the estate, . . . which Jonah Astin, John Astin, Ester Newland and Mary Hoskins . . . four of the children of aforesaid Jonah Astin, Junr. dec'd ever had in South Purchase in right of their father. Dated May 24, 1727.

At the division of his father's estate Joseph Eddy received the land at Babbit's Brook. Joseph lived about three miles from the centre — the meeting house — of Taunton, so he took an active part in the affairs of Taunton rather than Norton, where his brothers were interested. His name appears on the Roster of the First Military Co. of Taunton, dated May 30, 1700 (Hist. of Taunton by S. A. Emery, p. 354). His name is in the list of Heads of Families in 1709. In 1738 and 1740 he was collector of taxes and in 1739, tax assessor. In the Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives, Vol. XCV, page 197, the name Joseph Eddy appears on the card of Richard Liscomb of Taunton, as said Liscomb's master, — 1757.

Joseph Eddy became a large land owner, obtaining purchase rights from several so that the Proprietor's records of Taunton show many tracts of land laid out to him and the books of land evidence show many transactions. His name appears also on many deeds as a witness.

(Proprietor's Rec. Vol. III, p. 74). Laid out to Joseph Eddy . . . near Jeremiah Nulands. . . . July 20, 1715.

(Proprietor's Rec. p. 284). To Joseph Eddy . . . near Daniel Owen's.

(Proprietor's Rec. p. 444). To Joseph Eddy acd. to grant made Feb. 27, 1743, . . . east side of highway from William Hodges to ye Ware and south side from Capt. Hodges to Crossmans mill. Dated Nov. 25, 1751.

(B. C. D. Bk. 10, p. 729). "Nathaniel Fisher . . . to Joseph Eddy . . . one messuage or tract of land situate in Taunton on north-east end of a plain called bobbit's plain by Spring Brook Woods. . . . butted on John Hodges Jr. . . . and south on land of Joseph Eddy." . . . Dated May 26, 1714.

(B. C. D. Bk. 11, p. 162). "Joseph Eddy, husbandman, and Abigail Eddy his wife, . . . the northerly part of Joseph Eddy's homestead in the west part of Taunton about three miles from Taunton publick meeting house near to a plain known by name of Spring Brook Woods." . . . Dated July 13, 1716. Abigail Eddy signed with a mark.

Joseph Eddy did not confine his purchases to Taunton.

(Norfolk Co. Deeds, Bk. 42, p. 38). "Joseph Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, bought . . . ⅓ part of rights laid out to Gabriel Meade and his son, . . . except rights in 15th lot in 25th division of upland and Cedar swamp." Dated Mar. 22, 1727-28.

On Jan. 14, 1736, several of the men of Taunton, among them Joseph Eddy, met "in the little red school-house at the Neck o'land, Taunton" and organized for the establishment of a new settlement on the west bank of the Connecticut River. This was first called Township No. 1, then New Taunton; and finally changed, in 1752, to Westminster, Vt.

In the Proprietor's and Town Records, Westminster, Vt., is the following record:—

The names of Those Persons that Ware admitted Grantees or Proprietors of The Township No. 1 on the West side of Connecticut River whom the House & committee of The (Mass. Bay Colony) General Court admitted the Ninteenth Day of November, 1736: which sd Persons gave Bonds Respectively for performance of the Conditions of said Grant, viz.—

Deed at Ashford, Wenham Co., Conn. From Joseph Barney . . . to Joseph Eddy of land in Township No. 1. (Westminster). Dated Oct. 15, 1742.

Joseph Eddy of Taunton sold "to Capt. Josiah Willard, Esq. Commander at Fort Dummer in the province of New Hampshire in N. E. for £120, . . . and for various other good causes and considerations me moving" & quitclaims to him "all my rights in the new Township No. one on the West side of the Conn. river, above fort Dummer, viz. four original rights." Dated Oct. 7, 1742. Signed, Joseph Eddy.

Dec. 8, 1742 Joseph Eddy sold five other rights (Hampshire Co. Deeds at Springfield, Vol. V, p. 192) May 18, 1743.

Joseph again purchased more land. "I, Joseph White of Taunton in Bristol Co. Mass.—to Joseph Eddy of Taunton yeoman, one share or right in a narragansett township granted by the General Court at a place called Quabbin (?) . . . west of Hatfield and adjoining Hatfield; . . . said right being on original right of Joseph White, father of above Joseph White and in Co. of Hampshire." This was acknowledged in Taunton, May 18, 1743.

(Bristol Co. Deeds, Bk. 44, p. 62) George Morey of Norton and Sarah Eddy, widow, of Taunton discharged a mortgage given by Oded on land which came to him from his father. . . . Sarah Eddy signed this deed with a mark, Dec. 13, 1759.

At his death, Joseph Eddy left a will, dated July 22, 1758, in which he mentions wife, Sarah; sons, Oded; Paul dec'd; Azariah dec'd; Joseph, if he be living; daughters, Abigail Cobb; Mary Hodges, wife of Henry; Experience Willis, wife of Nathaniel; Silence Barney, wife of Elisha; Deliverance, wife of Benjamin King; also a grandson, son of Ebenezer Cobb; grandsons Paul and Polas, sons of Paul, dec'd; grandsons Azariah and Loved, sons of Azariah, dec'd and four daughters of Azariah; grandsons, Joseph and Pelatiah, sons of Pelatiah. Joseph left to his wife, Sarah, "my negro boy, Robin." In the list of soldiers from Taunton, who fought in the Revolutionary War is one named "Robin Eddy," negro, in Capt. Elisha Barney's Co. 1778 in Col. George William's regiment. (Mass. Archives quoted on p. 457 in Emery's History of Taunton.) There can be no doubt that the negro boy of Joseph's will and the Robin Eddy, soldier, are the same person. (NOTE. Another list gives the name of Robert Eddy, which I believe to be same as Robin. Ed.)

Robert Eddy, Taunton. Private, 4th co., Col. Gamaliel Bradford's regt.; Continental Army pay accounts for service from April 15, 1777, to July 29, 1777; also, Capt. James Cooper's co., Col. Gamaliel Bradford's (12th) regt.; muster return dated Feb. 1, 1778; residence, Taunton; enlisted for town of Taunton; enlistment, 3 years; joined May 1, 1777; reported "refused;" died July 29, 1777.

To Oded, Joseph left his live-stock and husbandry tools, armory, negro boy, Reuben, and ¼ of rights at a place called New Taunton, near Northfield, near also to Fort Dummer and 100 acres laid out in ye right of Joseph White. To Pelatiah he left ¼ interest in lands at a place near Fort Dummer called New Taunton. To Azariah's children he left lands on west of Hatfield which descended to me from Joseph White. To son, Joseph, if he be living or if not to any of his legal heirs . . . one Quarter of a purchase Right in ye old Township of Taunton . . . . The rest of the land in and near Taunton he divided among all of the children. (For the complete will see Eddy Family Bulletin No. 11.)

Children, by first wife, b. in Taunton (order of birth not known):

+9315 Oded Eddy.
+9317 Pelatiah Eddy.
+9318 Azariah Eddy.
+9319 Joseph Eddy.
9320 Abigail Eddy, m. Nov. 26, 1734, Ebenezer Cobb of Taunton (V.R.).
+9321 Mary Eddy.
+9322 Experience Eddy, m. Nathaniel Willis.
+9323 Silence Eddy.
9324 Deliverance Eddy, m. Benjamin King (will of father).

9284 Jonathan Eddy (John of T), b. Dec. 15, 1689, Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); d. July 10, 1745, Preston, Conn. (Conn. State Library Probate Records). He m. Mar. 1, 1728, Deborah Farley of Stoughton, Mass. (Taunton V.R.).

He received from his father's estate a "part in the dwelling house and barn and lands adjoining thereto." He was a cooper by trade and on Feb. 5, 1732, he was living in Taunton.

(Bristol Co. Deeds Bk. 21, p. 340). "Jonathan Eddy of Taunton, Cooper, . . . to Joseph Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, one messuage lying 3 miles northwardly from sd Taunton old meeting house, 30 acres . . . bounded east by a river called Mill River, south by Capt. Joseph Leonard's, north by Joseph Eddys and partly common or undivided land and west by Daniel Owen and common." Dated Feb. 5, 1732.

This deed enables one to identify on the old map of Taunton, drawn May 28, 1728, the J. Eddy which was Joseph Eddy. He is the J. Eddy which is nearest to Scadding Pond. In 1740 Jonathan sold most of his holdings in Taunton to his brother, Joseph, and it is probable that he joined his sister, Mary Rude, in Preston, at about this time.

(Bristol Co. Deeds, Bk. 30, p. 257). "Jonathan Eddy of Taunton, Cooper, . . . to Joseph Eddy for £250—a part of which money I had when I gave a deed of my honored father's homestead and rest paid by Joseph Eddy of Taunton, quitclaim all my rights in Taunton and in Gallon Township so called, except a piece of Cedar Swamp which came to me by my brother John Eddy who died on Onticost Island . . ." dated Feb. 18, 1740 and Acknowledged Feb. 23, 1740.

Zachariah Rude, the son of Mary (Eddy) Rude, of Preston, Conn., was appointed administrator on the estate of Jonathan Edy, of Preston on Aug. 13, 1745 (Conn. State Prob. Rec.). The State Library at Hartford contains a "True Inventory of the Chattels of Mr. Jonathan Eddy, Cupper, who died July 10, 1745." It was appraised at £92–3–8.

Children:

+9325 Asa Eddy, on Mar. 5, 1754, a minor over 14 years of age.
Perhaps others.

9285 Susannah Eddy (John of T), b. Sept. 18, 1692, Taunton, (V.R.); m. June 28, 1716, John Durfee of Tiverton, R. I. (V.R.). He was born May 14, 1691, son of Robert and Mary (Sanford) Durfee (Durfee Gen., p. 43).

(Abstract from Bristol Co. Deeds, Bk. 12, p. 202). "I, John Durffes of Freetown in the Co. of Bristol . . . and Susannah Durffes, the daughter of John Edy of sd Taunton dec'd . . . for money paid by their Mother, Deliverance Smith, widow relict of Nathaniel Smith, late of sd Taunton dec'd do give our share in the dwelling house and homestead of their Father John Eddy, dec'd,of Taunton . . . the dwelling house in Taunton, aforesaid." Nov. 4, 1717.

i Eliakim Durfee, b. Nov. 17, 1716.

x Zebedee Durfee, b. Mar. 13, 1732.
x Benjamin Durfee, b. Jan. 22, 1734.
xi David Durfee, b. June 10, 1736.
xii Robert Durfee, b. May 30, 1738.

9286 Patience Eddy (John of T), b. June 27, 1696, at Taunton, Mass., after the death of her father; m. before 1718, William White; b. in Taunton, Oct. 28, 1692; son of Joseph and Mary White. On Apr. 2, 1718, she signed her name "Pachants White" as witness to a deed (Bristol Co. Deeds, Bk. 18, p. 76). Patience White, wife of William White was admitted to full communion in the church at Norton, Mass. 1726 (Hist. of Norton, by J. F. Clark).

Children (White Gen.):
9326 Deliverance White, b. July 20, 1721.
9327 Patience White, b. Apr. 11, 1726; d. Stafford, Conn., Mar. 9, 1747.
9328 Hannah White, b. Sept. 6, 1729; m. . . . Whipple.
+9329 Susannah White, b. Aug. 22, 1732.
9330 Abigail White, b. Nov. 9, 1734; m. Oct. 2, 1755, Nehemiah Washburn.
9331 William White, b. Mar. 25, 1737. He was executor of his father's will.

9292 Patience Fisher (Hannah Eddy, John of T), dau. of Eleazar and Hannah (Eddy) Fisher; b. Oct. 1711, in Norton; m. (1) June 4, 1730, Norton (V.R.), John Simons (or Simmons); m. (2) Jan. 18, 1736/37, Seth Eddy, Attleboro (V.R.). He was son of John[4] Eddy (Obadiah[3], Samuel[2], William[1]). (See No. 229.) Patience died before Sept. 22, 1758, when Seth Eddy published his intentions to marry Joanna Hoskins, but she was living in 1751, when she signed a deed (Bristol Co. Deeds, Bk. 38, p. 217).

In 1759 Seth Eddy sold some property which "belonged to my wife, Patience Eddy, dec'd, which she had from her father, Eleazar Fisher." She is mentioned in the will of her father as wife of Seth Eddy. The records of the Second Congregational Church of Attleboro, p. 7, give "Mary, of Sith Eddy in his wife's right, June 24, 1750," also p. 13, "Patience Eddy, dec'd." (See No. 229.)

Children:
9332 Abiel Eddy, b. Nov. 3, 1737 (See No. 510).
9333 John Eddy, b. Oct. 9, 1739 (See No. 511).
9335 Lydia Eddy (See No. 512).
9337 Joanna Eddy (See No. 514).

9297 Ichabod Eddy (Ebenezer, John of T), b. Feb. 2, 1702/03, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.). He died before Apr. 13, 1757, when his father's estate was settled and land was set off "to heirs of Ichabod, eldest son, dec'd." He married Feb. 9, 1725/26, Joanna Heridon (also spelled Herndon), Norton (V.R.). They were both living Nov. 5, 1742, when they acknowledged a deed (B.C.D. 31.279).

Ichabod Eddy of Norton, husbandman . . . sold to William Clark "My homestead . . . joining land of Richard Godfrey on the west and to Ebenezer Eddy on the east . . . 20 acres . . . a lot given by Ebeaser Eddy to his son Ichabod." Dated Nov. 4, 1742 and signed by Ichabod Eddy and Johannah Eddy. Johannah signed with a mark.

In 1727 Joanna was admitted to full communion in the First Church in Norton, Mass. It is probable that she married again, for in the settlement of her son, John's estate, a Joanna Whittaker is spoken of as administrator. [Note. It is possible that Joanna Eddy, who married . . . Whittaker was a daughter of Ichabod.]

Child, b. in Norton (V.R.):
+9338 John Eddy, b. Feb. 8, 1727/28.

9298 Mary Eddy (Ebenezer, John of T), b. Nov. 22, 1704, Norton, Mass. (V.R.).; d. . . . ; m. March 5, 1730/31, Samuel Tucker in Norton (V.R.). 9305 John Eddy (Eleazar, John of T), b. about 1701 in Norton; d. before May 4, 1789, aged about 88, when his will was proved. He m. (1) Hannah Martin; m. (2) Dec. 29, 1725, Mary Wyborne (also spelled Weyborn and Wybourne) (First book of marriages, Preston, Conn. (V.R.) The (V.R.) Vol. I, p. 71, gives the date Dec. 2nd, 1725). She was the dau. of John and Esther (Ripple) Wiborne, whose marriage is on record in Boston. John Wiborne was of Scituate, Mass., and Esther Ripple of Boston. Mary Wiborne was born about 1702 and died about 1751 (Weyborn Gen., p. 30). She is mentioned in her father's will as Mary Eddy. John Eddy married (3) Phoebe (. . .) Griffith, widow of Capt. Stephen Griffith, July 23, 1752 (Early Conn. Marriages). He was buried in Young St. Cemetery, Hartford, Conn. (Statistical Account of the Middlesex Co., Conn., by D. D. Field, Middletown, 1819, p. 55; and Hist. of Middlesex Co., Conn., Beers & Co., N. Y. 1884, pp. 206–7). He is mentioned in his father's will (Bristol County Probate, Bk. 9, p. 316).

> first I Give and Bequeith unto my Eldest sone John Eddy who now Liveth in Colchester in ye Colony of Coneticut in new England one hundred Pounds in bills of Publick Credit to be Paid by the Ind of five years after my Deceas out of the Incoms or Rents of my farme whare on I now Liveth —which shall be Paid by my Execeters here after named that is to say twenty Pounds a year untill the whole be fully Paid I also Give unto my sd sone John Eddy my Best sute of Blew Broadcloath Clothes and my Great bibell he my said sone John Eddy Paying unto Deacon Simson of Boston Eight Pounds which I oweth him in Part for said Clothes and he also Paying unto John fosdick of Boston four Pounds which I oweth him by Bond.

Jonathan Linkon and John Andrews were appointed to take charge of his property and pay to him certain moneys for the years 1740–1744 (Bristol County Probate, Bk. 11, p. 512). After leaving Taunton he probably settled first at Middletown, Conn.

(Middletown, Conn. land records, July 28, 1720), William Ward sold the 99th lot . . . not yet laid out to John Ede, now resident in Middletown, 34½ acres, etc. . . . The Middletown records have this item, — "Zubah, dau. of John and Hannah Ede, alias Martin, b. Apr. 2, 1721." Also under date of May 19, 1722 . . . "John Edy now resident in Middletown paid" Wm. Ward, cooper, sum of £5 which he did bestow for the maintenance of Hannah Martin and her child. There is another record regarding an Azubah Edee in Durham, Conn., where she was bapt. Sept. 12, 1742.

On Nov. 12, 1727, John Eddy was a member of the First Church of Preston. He purchased at various times certain parcels of land as the following abstracts from the land records of Preston show:

(Vol. IV, year 1726) John Edy and John Rude bought land of Edward Meach, which land was near that of John Edy. Dated April 14, 1726.

Recorded Nov. 5, 1726.

(Vol. IV, p. 366) . . . There was some trouble over the land Nov. 28, 1737.

(Vol. IV, p. 367) . . . "John Edy personally appeared on the same date and made solemn oath to the truth of foregoing evidence. Mary Rude Attorney to ye within Named John Rude being notified but not present. Sworn before a justice the above deponant declared that he lived 20 miles from New London Statehouse Etc."

(Vol. IV, p. 357) . . . John Eddy buys of John Wiborn 10 acres in the township of Preston, Jan. ye 30th 1727–8.

(Vol. IV, p. 609) . . . Jan. 8, 1730–1 he buys land of Daniel Parke, and again p. 747 John Edy of Preston buys land of Daniel Parke.

(Vol. IV, p. 885) . . . May 14, 1734 he buys land of Wm. Meach.

(Vol. V, p. 55–56). John Edy and John Rude give a quitclaim deed on the disputed land to Edward Meach Nov. 28, 1737. From Preston John went to Colchester and there again made large purchases of land.

(Vol. IV, p. 12). Samuel Welles of Colchester sold to John Eddy of Preston, in County of New London,—land in Colchester . . . near that of Benjamin Fox, John Welles, Jabez Smith, etc. Apr. 18, 1738.

(Vol. V, p. 258). John Eddy of East Haddam sold to John Holmes Jr. and heirs, land situated in the town of Colchester upon the road that leads to New London . . . near John Wells and Jonathan Welles, dated March 20, 1745.

The names of John Edy and Mrs. John Edy are found in the Colchester, Conn. Congregational Church Records, Vol. I, p. 8, as persons added to the church under the pastorate of Rev. Ephraim Little. March 7, 1742. At the time of making his will John was a resident of the parish of Middle Haddam in the town of Chatham. The will is dated Apr. 8, 1782 and was proved Mar. 4, 1789, at Middle Haddam in Chatham, Conn. It mentions "my well-beloved wife Phoebe," to whom he gave one third "as long as she remains my widow." . . . "to my eldest son, John Eddy . . . to my other two sons Zephaniah and James, . . . to Elizabeth Bosworth, eldest daughter, . . . to Mary Brown, second Daughter and . . . daughter Esther Bliss." John is to care for his brother, James, during his natural life. The witnesses of the will were John Norton, Eddy Norton and Eunice Norton. In another place Mary is spoken of as Mary Brainerd. The inventory of his estate showed property of £780 2sh. 6 pence. He left a negro servant Joel, who was to be freed "if he behaves well."

Child of John and Hannah (Martin) Eddy:

+9364 Labeas Eddy (?) or Leveus Eddy (probably).

9306 Caleb Eddy (Eleazar, John of T), was the second son of Eleazar and Elizabeth (Randall) Eddy. He m. Judith . . . He purchased land in 1728, so was probably of age then. He is mentioned in his father's will as follows:

Secondly I Give and Bequeith unto my second sone Calub Eddy all my Carpenters Tools and all my Joyners and wheelrights Tools it being all I shall now Give him I having Given him divers things already and also Gave him a deed of sale of ye Lands whare on he now dwells and took a Reseight of him for forty three Pounds teen shillings tharefore Considering these things haveing ben done for him already I Give him no more now.

He died before Apr. 23, 1778. (Taunton deeds, Bk. 59, p. 359.) He married Judeah (or Judith) . . . . He was living Jan. 7, 1777 (Bristol County Deeds, Bk. 55, p. 558). Abiel Eddy, his son was appointed administrator on the estate, April 6, 1779 and on April 15, 1779 he told the court that he suspected that Judith Eddy, widow, Elijah Eddy, yeoman, and Ezra Eddy have concealed and refused to deliver certain properties for the inventory and prayed that they be cited to appear. Caleb went bonds for Lois, his brother Obadiah's widow, when she became guardian of the children. He was tax collector in 1747. He was a wheelwright by trade. He bought land in Norton in addition to what he had purchased of his father (Bristol County Deeds 18:135, 30:158; 47:334, 47:335, 55:116). The following abstracts are of interest:

(Bk. 41, p. 488). Caleb of Norton, wheelwright bought of Ezekiel Woodward of Providence, 2 acres in Norton on the north side of Eleazar Eddy's house and on ye west side of Wm. Leonard's land . . . Dated Jan. 9, 1756. (Book 41, p. 533) Sold to James Macomber a "piece of Cedar Swamp . . . and also part of Cedar Swamp in the Burnt Grown in ye 3rd Great Shear, in ye first Division of Burnt Ground, and is one half of 11th lot, in right of Wm. Evens and one half is Thomas Macomber." Dated Mar. 9, 1756. (Book 55, p. 558) Caleb of Norton sold to Joseph Andrews "my right in Taunton Great Cedar Swamp, . . . said Joseph Andrews sold me in right of John Gilbert." Dated Jan. 7, 1777. In Vol. XCV, p. 271 of the Massachusetts Archives, Caleb Eddy appears on a list dated Norton, April 6, 1757, of the 3rd Co. of Militia in the town of Norton commanded by Capt. Simeon Wetherell, comprising the Train band and Alarm list. Rank, not given. Reported: belonged to the Alarm list.

9310 Eleazar Eddy (Eleazar, John of T) was the third son of Eleazar and Elizabeth (Randall) Eddy. He m. Ruth . . . He is mentioned in his father's will as follows:

Thirdly I Give and Bequeith unto my Thurd son Elezer Eddy twenty acres of Land being statute measure bounded Easterly by Calub Eddy's Land and Leying on the northerly side of ye way opesite to my Barne and Leying on the southerly side of Jedediah Caswels Land and to Extend so far westward as to Take twenty acres as above sd.

He sold land in Norton in 1740.

(Bristol County Deeds, Bk. 30, p. 158) Eleazar Eddy of Norton, son of Eleazar of Norton, late dec'd sold to Caleb Eddy of Norton, yeoman ". . . parcel of land in Norton and part of my honored father's homestead, twenty acres . . . near Jedidiah Capwell's land," dated Dec. 25, 1740. It is probable that he married in Preston, Conn., . . . for the records of the birth of two children in 1736 and 1738 are found there. In 1755 Eleazar Eddy of Norton was in the expedition to Crown Point.

Children, b. in Preston, Conn. (V.R.) (perhaps incomplete):
+9386 Elisha Eddy, b. Aug. 24, 1736.
9387 Lydia Eddy, bapt. Jan. 21, 1738, Preston, Conn. (V. R.).

9311 Joshua Eddy (Eleazar, John of T), He is mentioned in the will of his father as follows:

"fourthly I Give and bequeith unto my fourth sone Joshua Eddy twenty acres of upland being statute measure to be measured of from ye north west Corner of my now dwelling farme and to be Bounded westerly by ye River till it Coms to ye meadow which I have Improved this forty years to Geather with Two acres of meadow statute measure to be measured of from ye uper Ind of my sd meadow to be measured of by a southwest Line from ye upland to ye River the said twenty acres is to Come as Low down stream as ye said two acres of meadow doth and so to Run North East as far as to make twenty acres and to be bounded up by ye Brook as it tis bounded by ye Returnes"

In 1744 he was living in Worchestershear, Duke Co., N. Y., according to a deed in Bristol Co. (Book 37, p. 267).

"I, Joshua Eddy of Worchestersheare in Dukes County in the Government of New York, farmer for £90 sell to John Harvey, gentleman, and his son John Harvey Jr. of Taunton . . . Land in Norton 22 A., 20 acres of upland and 2 of meadow and is part of homestead of Eleazar Eddy's estate late of Norton, dec'd set out to me," . . . dated Nov. 19, 1744, and signed by Joshua Eddy. It was acknowledged in Taunton on the same date. This is all that is known at present about this Joshua Eddy. He or a son is probably the Joshua Eddy, who served in the Revolution in Dutchess Co., N. Y.

9312 Obadiah Eddy (Eleazar, John of T), b. about 1722, since he came of age in 1744 (B.C.Prob. 11.513) (B.C.D. 44.461). The Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives give his age as 34 in May 29, 1756. He died Sept. 19, 1756, at Lake George in the French and Indian War (Hist. of Norton). He married on July 20, 1744 at Taunton (V.R.) Lois Hix (also spelled Hicks); dau. of James and Marah Hix of Rehoboth (B.C.D. 37.292). In the marriage record he is called Obadiah Jr. probably to distinguish him from Obadiah^5 Eddy, the son of John^4 Eddy (Obadiah^3, Samuel^2) who also lived near, in Taunton.

By the will of his father, Eleazar Eddy, Obadiah was placed under the guardianship of Jonathan Lincoln and John Andrews. He was bound out to service by them and their accounts are on file for the care of his property for the years 1740–1744. He called himself husbandman when selling land. He inherited from his father land and buildings, some of which he sold to John Harvey (B.C.D., 41.405) and to John Crane (B.C.D., 41.496). The land which he had from his father was on the east side of the Three Mile river. The part of the will of Eleazar Eddy referring to the three younger sons is found on p. 187 of the Bulletins.

He enrolled in Capt. Hodges Co. on May 5, 1756, during the French and Indian War. He was made a corporal and was with Capt. Hodges when his Company was surprised. He lost his life fighting beside Capt. Hodges on that ill-fated day, Sept. 19, 1756. (Hist. of Norton). In the Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives the name of Obadiah Eddy appears in . . ..

Reported; Dead.

Upon the death of Obadiah, his wife Lois became the guardian of Ephraim, Considerit, James, Rachel and Obediah, all under fourteen. Caleb Eddy went bonds for her. In an account rendered May 9, 1763, Lois charged for clothing for Considerit for four years; for clothing and food for Rachel for about four years before she was seven years old; and for board two and one-half years for Obadiah before he was seven, so it is probable that the children were bound out at seven years of age. The account speaks of the apprenticing of James and also states that the last child was born after the death of her husband, and she prays for allowance "for great-coat cut up for my children." It is not clear whether there was a sixth child or whether the one born after her husband's death was one of the five above mentioned. There may have been a sixth child, whose name we do not know, who lived to grow up, and marry.

The following abstracts are of interest from Bristol Co. Deeds (B.C.D. 37. 379) Obediah Eddy of Norton, husbandman, and wife Lois sold to Hezekiah Hicks land in Rehoboth near Great Meadow, . . . 15 acres . . . bounds mention . . . David Round . . . 9313 Jonathan Eddy (Eleazar, John of T), b. about 1726, as he came of age in 1747 (Bristol Co. Prob., 11.513); d. in Eddington, Me., in Aug. 1804, aged 78 years; m. May 4, 1749, at Norton, Mass., Mary Ware; d. at Eddington, Me., in 1814; dau. of Dr. William and Mary (Maxcey) Ware.

Jonathan was a minor when his father died. He was placed under the guardianship of Jonathan Linken and John Andros in accordance with the will of his father. (Accounts of the guardianship are on file in Bristol Co. Probate.) From his father he received several pieces of property (See Bulletin No. 11, p. 187). On June 22, 1748 he bought a house of George Leonard and in the following spring he was married.

In 1750 it was decided to build a church in Norton and the people were called upon to tell what they would do. Jonathan Eddy promised "to get 13 good Raills for the seats for the new meeting house, 17 feet long, 3 in. & ½ thick and 5 inches deep & five sills, 16 ft. long and . . . inches deep 5½ all to be att the same price yt the planck are goot for the seats." (Hist. of Norton by Clark). In the History of Norton there is a ground plan of the church. Jonathan Eddy had a pew near the stairs leading to the Women's gallery (p. 235). Those who had pews on the lower floor paid for the privilege of building the pew and "each person that has bought a place for a pew in ye sd meeting shall have Liberty to Build their pews themselves provided they build them acd to the direction of the committee appointed for Building sd meeting house & that they shall be allowed 40 shillings for each pew they so build, they to provide all things needful for the building their Respective pews."

On Apr. 4, 1754 Jonathan sold to John Crane " . . . land in Norton, being the homestead where I now dwell." The bounds mention the Three Mile River and a meadow belonging to Obadiah. His wife Mary signed with a mark and his brother Oliver witnessed the deed. The following year he purchased 130 acres of Robert Cook and land was bounded by land of heirs of Eleazar Eddy. On Dec. 10, 1756, he sold land to Samuel Newcomb . . . on both sides of the road that goes from Eddy's dwelling-house to John Briggs.

In 1754 Jonathan Eddy enlisted for service in the French and Indian War, and he was in almost continuous service until 1761. He was first employed for the defence of the Eastern frontiers and was at Fort Cumberland, N. S., in 1755 under Col. John Winslow in the expedition which expelled the Acadians. Later he was in New York at Fort William Henry and he also took part in the Crown Point Expedition. He appears as sergeant, 2nd lieut. and captain. As captain he was again at Fort Cumberland under Col. Joseph Frye. The Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives contain the following records of his career from 1754 to 1761.

In addition to the above public records of the service of Jonathan Eddy in the Colonial Wars, the family found among some old papers his Order Books. They are three in number. The first is a fragment of his Order Book for 1755, the second his "Order Book from Apr. 23, 1759 to Dec. 31, 1759 and Jan. 1760." These two books have been given by the descendants to the Archives Department of the Commonwealth of Mass. and placed in the State House in Boston. Miss Clara Avery has had copies of these printed and distributed to various libraries. One is filed in the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston. The third Order Book is owned by the Library of Congress.

These books tell how he left Mansfield and traveled with his company of men to Castle William and there embarked for Fort Cumberland.

After the War was over Jonathan returned to Norton where he remained until early in 1763. During this time he bought and sold lands in Norton. In one transaction he "reserved all his right, . . . to all the place where people diged for silver mine, for all ye heirs of Ebenezer Eddy, late deceased" (B.C.D. 52.474). This was situated on the Three Mile River. In 1762 Jonathan was made selectman, but the following year he went to Cumberland, Nova Scotia. Here, near Fort Cumberland, he purchased lands and soon became one of the most esteemed citizens. He was chosen a member of the Nova Scotia Legislature and Deputy Provost Marshal and he held several other offices there until the outbreak of the Revolution. He fled to the States leaving his family behind and on Mar. 27, 1776, he was at Gen. Washington's headquarters at Cambridge, where he besought aid for those who were left in Nova Scotia, whose sympathies were with the colonists. Washington presented his petition to Congress and Capt. Eddy went to Philadelphia, to urge that aid be given. But Congress had already more on its hands than it could attend to, so it declined to give him any assistance. (Note. On his return he called on his cousin John Eddy, then living in Chatham, Conn.) (Porter's "Memoir of Jonathan Eddy.")

He received from Massachusetts, by order of the General Court on Sept. 5, 1776, certain supplies, ammunition and provisions, and he started back to Machias, Passamaquoddy and up the St. John's River, collecting men as he went along, so that when he set out for Cumberland he had 72 men and by the time he reached Cumberland more had joined him. He then demanded the surrender of the Fort. Upon the refusal of Col. Gorham to surrender, he attacked, but failed to take it and was obliged to retreat. The Government of Nova Scotia then endeavored to capture him by offering a large reward but he escaped. He was present at Machias when it was attacked by the British Fleet. Although Col. Jonathan Eddy's expedition was a failure so far as the capture of Fort Cumberland was concerned, it served the purpose of keeping about two thousand of the British at Halifax for a considerable time and so prevented them from joining the forces at New York or some other part of the States. He returned to Mansfield where he resided until he removed to Sharon in 1781.

When residing in Sharon Jonathan was chosen to represent the town at the "Great and General Court of the Commonwealth of Mass." and he served on various commissions.

About this time the government of Massachusetts upon the request of Congress granted to Col. Jonathan Eddy and about twenty of his associates a large tract of land on the east side of the Penobscot River at the head of tidewater, in recognition of their services to the country during the Revolutionary War. In the summer of 1784 Col. Jonathan with his family removed to this place and the township was afterwards known as Eddytown Plantation and the town was later called Eddington in honor of Col. Jonathan Eddy.

Col. Jonathan in 1785 purchased the first vessel ever owned on the Penobscot, the schooner, "Blackbird", which was probably a fishing vessel, voyaging to Grand Manan. Col. Jonathan held many offices in the new township. He was the first magistrate. He was appoined Special Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, a Registrar of Probate, and a Justice of the Peace for the County.

In 1801 Congress granted land to the Refugees from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Col. Eddy received as his share 1,280 acres in the Chillicothe District, Ohio. This land is the site of the present city of Columbus. (Note. The original copies of these Land Grants are in the possession of the Ohio State Archaeological Society at Columbus. The Registration of the Schooner "Blackbird" is in the possession of the Maine Historical and Genealogical Society.)

For a more detailed life of Col. Jonathan Eddy see "A Memoir of Col. Jonathan Eddy of Eddington, Me.", by Joseph Porter, and for a short account see "Acadiensis" for July, 1906. The above sketch is based upon the information found in these two articles.

Note. In this Memoir, Mr. Porter makes the following statement: "In 1765 he sold Abial Atwood of Oxford, a negro-wench for £40." The compiler thinks the Jonathan Eddy who sold this woman was Jonathan Eddy of Oxford and not Capt. Jonathan Eddy, as he was living in Nova Scotia in 1765.

Note. From Revolutionary Mss., New York State Library 29258, is the following . . . By the United States in Congress Assembled. April 13th, 1787. On the report of a Committee to whom was referred a Petition of Jont. Eddy and other Refugees of Nova Scotia.

"Resolved that Jonathan Eddy and Other Refugees from Nova Scotia on account of the Attachment to the Interest of the United States be recommended to the Humanity and Particular Attention of the Several States in which they Respectively Reside and that they be informed that whenever Congress can Consistently make grants of Land they will Reward in this way as far as may be Consistent Such Refugees from Nova Scotia as may be disposed to live in the Western Country." (Quoted in "The Refugees of 1776 from Long Island to Connecticut," by Mather, on page 971.) 20 Refugees from Nova Scotia found in ye Bay State. 300 acres of Land Granted them from that State on Penobscot River at the head of Navigation. York State has Rewarded those found in that State in the Same Way.

In the 1790 Census, Jonathan Eddy is noted as a resident in Maine with one male over 16, one under 16, and one female in his household.

(Vol. XCV, p. 206). Oliver Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, February 18, 1757 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Joseph Hodges. Quality, Sergeant. Residence, Taunton. Entered service, March 22 (year not given). Served until Dec. 5, probably 1756. Length of service, 37 weeks. Remarks: Endorsed: Col. Gridley's Regt. on expedition to Crown Point. Reported: 18 days travel allowed.

(Vol. XCV, p. 347). Oliver Eadey appears on a List dated Taunton (May) 14, 1757 of men in Capt. Thomas Cobb's (4th Taunton) Co. Reported on Training Band List. Rank: Soldier.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 20). Oliver Eddy appears on a billeting account dated Sutton, Dec. 30, 1758, rendered by John Holland. For billeting the soldiers on their return from the Expedition to the Westward. Capt. Richard Cobb's Co., Col. Ruggles' Regt., Charged with 1 meal.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 165). Oliver Eddy appears on a return dated Apr. 26, 1759, of men enlisted or impressed for His Majesty's service in Col. Ephraim Leonard's Regt., to be put under the command of His Excellency Jeffry Amherst, Esq., General and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's forces in North America, for the invasion of Canada. Age, not given. Residence, not given. When enlisted, not given. Reported served on a former expedition, not given. Remarks: Rank, Ensign. Reported . . . among officers who lived within limits of said regt. and who are going into above service.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 371). Oliver Eddy appears on a billeting roll sworn to . . . Suffolk ss. Feb. 7, 1761, of Capt. Jonathan Eddy's Co., Col. Joseph Fry's Regt., Enlisted, Mar. 31, 1759. Roll made up to April, 13, 1759. Date of receiving King's provisions. Number of days, 12. Amount, 2s . Remarks: . . . Quality . . . Ensign.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 444). Oliver Eddy appears on a Roll of Officers and Men in Capt. Jonathan Eddy's Co., Col. Frye's Regt., in service at Nova Scotia after Jan. 1, 1760, and at time of discharge. Rank, Ensign. Service began Jan. 1, 1760. To what time paid, Nov. 22 (1760).

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 217). Oliver Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, December 13, 1760, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Jonathan Eddy. Quality, Ensign. Residence, Tautin (Taunton) Entered service, Mar. 31, 1759. Served until, Nov. 22, 1760. Length of service, 86 weeks, 1 day. Remarks: Endorsed: Co. at Fort Cumberland.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 434a). Oliver Eddy appears in a list of the officers and privates brought as passengers on board the sloop, "Prosperous", John Bragdon, Master, from Fort Cumberland, Chignecto, to Boston. An account on list rendered by said Bragdon, against the Province of Mass. Bay for their passage money is dated Boston, Nov. 24, 1760. Rank: Ensign.

After the French and Indian War he was made Constable and it was one of his duties to collect the assessment for the town of Taunton for the province. It would seem that Oliver at one time neglected his duty for he was taken to task by the General Court of the Province in the following indictment:

(B. C. D., 55. 268). By virtue of an act of the General Court of the Province of Massachusetts held at Cambridge, May 20, 1771, there was assessed on Taunton ye sum of £248 48 sh. as their portion of assessment. . . . £24 . . ., 7 sh. and 8p. part thereof was committed to Oliver Edy, then constable of Town with warrant to collect same, whereof he paid unto his Majesty's treasury nothing. There remaineth in his hands 24-7-8 which he hath not paid or discharged himself of and neglects to account for. Dated April 20, 1773.

It is very evident that the money was not forthcoming from Oliver for we find that (B.C.D. 55.244) "Oliver Eddy of Taunton is a defective constable of Taunton," (Sheriff was allowed to levy on lands or tenements of any defective constable) and a warrant of distress was issued by Honorable Harrison Gray, Treasurer of the Province of Massachusetts, and he sold at auction a portion of Oliver's estate in order to recover the money. The "land was partly in Norton and partly in Taunton, and is part of homestead farm of Oliver Eddy, a defective Constable, . . . 10 acres, 5 Rods on the highway leading from Friend's Meeting House to Norton near Three Mile River."

Although Oliver was an ensign in the French and Indian War he served in the Revolutionary War as a private, not as an enlisted soldier but as a minute-man. His service is as follows:

Oliver Eddy, Taunton. Private, Capt. Ichabod Leonard's co., Col. John Hathaway's regt.; service, 22 days, in April, 1777; company marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I.

In 1790, when the U. S. Census was taken his household in Taunton consisted of two males over 16, three under 16, and one female. After his death his widow, Abigail, administered his estate. She was appointed Feb. 27, 1800. On April 17, 1800, she sold land in Taunton on the road from the Quaker Meeting House to the Three Mile River. The following deed is of interest:

(B.C.D. 105-508). "George Reed, yeoman, and Elizabeth Reed his wife; Lydia Eddy, widow; Oliver Eddy, yeoman and his wife Abigail Eddy, all of Taunton; Abiel Eddy and Zerviah Eddy his wife of Norton; David Harvey, yeoman; Henry Harvey, yeoman; and John Eddy of Norton, yeoman . . . all owners of real estate left by David Harvey and all but John Eddy in real estate of our mother Abigail Harvey, deceased, sell . . . John for his share, one third of the west half of 21 acres, one third of land near Zerviah and adjoining John Crane." Dated April 28, 1794 and witnessed by Abisha Leonard and Apollos Eddy.

Children, b. in Taunton (names of others (see 1790 Census) not known):

+9397 Abigail Eddy.

9315 Oded Eddy (Joseph, John of T), b. . . .; Taunton, Mass.; d. . . .; m. Ann . . .

The records are not clear as to the relationship between Oded and Ann after their marriage. When Oded sold land in 1759 and 1760 no wife signed off her dower rights. When the son, Oded, married Wealthy Pratt, he was called, "son of Widow Ann Smith." This would lead one to suppose that Oded's mother had married a second time, a man by the name of Smith. But in 1780 Oded Eddy was still living and was a lieutenant in the Revolutionary Army. From these facts it would seem that Oded and Ann had separated and she had remarried. There is on file the death of Obed Eddy in Taunton on July 10, 1805. Doubtless this is Oded, the son of Joseph.

Oded was sole executor of his father's will and inherited as follows:

I Give to my son Oded Eddy forty five acres of Land in sd Taunton to Lay on ye westerly side of my home stead fairm and to Lay in as Square figure as may be ye north and south Ends of sd Land to be of Equal Breadth; I also give said son ye one half of ye Ten acre Grant made me in sd Taunton in ye neck over ye Ceder Swamp Bridge and one purchas Right in sd old Township of Taunton in Common & undevided Land which Right I Purchased of ye whites—and also ye one half of about forty five acres of Land in sd Taunton Laying on ye East side of ye way Leading from Joseph Leonards towards Ebenezer Woodwards: and Joyns to Land where my son Paul Late Improved near ye house where he Late Dwellt and between ye Land of James Boldrey & Elijah Linkon with one half of a peice of Ceder Swamp I purchassed of ye Newlands—and one half of a Right in ye sixth shear in Taunton Great Ceder Swamp in the first Laying out which I Purchassed of Joseph Willis Late Deceased—as also one Lott in Both Divisions in ye Ceder Swamp Called ye Burnt Ground in sd Taunton which Right was originally ye sd Whites all which sd Tracts and Lands & Rights to Lands Lays in ye County of Bristol and he sd son to have and hold ye same to him his heirs and assigns for Ever as an absolute Estate in fee simple provided he pay ye Legaceys here after I Shall order him to pay—and also I Give him sd son Two Third Parts of all my out Dore movables That I Shall Die Seized off viz my of Live Stock and husbandry Tools my wifes cow & horse first Deducted: with ye whole of my armory I also Give my negro Boy Reuben to sd Oded To have and to hold for Ever—and also to sd Oded I Give one Quarter of my Right in ye Lands at a place Calld new Taunton near northfield near also to fort Dumer to him & his heirs and assigns for Ever and also I Give sd Oded one hundred acres of Land on ye west of Hatfield being ye first hundred acres laid out on ye Right of Joseph White to him his heirs and assigns for Ever with one bed and furnature.

He was a farmer. In 1759 he sold to William Thayer . . . "one purchase right in common or undivided stock given to me by my father, Joseph Eddy, which he purchased of ye Whites. Also 45 acres on the westerly side of Joseph Eddy's homestead farm . . . obtained by the last will of my father, Joseph Eddy." Deeds dated Dec. 18, 1759, and signed by Oded, but no wife signed.

In the following year, Feb. 25, 1760, he sold to Pelatiah Eddy, "land that was my honored father's . . . near James Boldrey . . . to ye Burying Place." This was witnessed by Sarah Eddy. No wife signed. (B.C.D. pp. 45, 46, 131.)

On Mar. 14, 1760 Oded Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, sold to Elijah Linkon . . . "5 acres near Linkon's land adjacent to Joseph White's and Henry Hodges' land . . . being the land held with Pelatiah Eddy and given by my father. This was witnessed by Joseph Eddy and no wife signed. A few days later Oded gave to Henry Hodges the power of attorney to sell off any lands received from his father which he has not yet sold. This was a few days previous to his setting out on an expedition against Canada, in the French and Indian War. The Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives have the following records.

(Vol. XCIII, p. 132). Oded Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Nov. 8, 1754, of the company in His Majesty's service employed for the defence of the Eastern frontiers under the command of Capt. William Peirce; Quality, Corporal. Residence, Taunton. Entered service, May 31, 1754. When discharged, Oct. 6, 1754. Length of service, 4 mos. 2 wks. 3 days. Remarks. Reported allowed 4 days travel. Endorsed, Col. Winslow's Regt.

(Vol. XCIII, p. 139, a). On an account rendered by Col. John Winslow against the Province of Mass. Bay for bounty paid by himself and Maj. Frye to soldiers enlisted into his regiment in 1754 . . . 28¢ per man. Said Eddy reported as belonging to Capt. William Pierce's Co.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 416). In a Return of men enlisted for His Majesty's service in the intended expedition against Canada. . . . 1760. Residence, Taunton. Enlisted, Mar. 27, 1760 under Maj. John Tapley. Sworn, Mar. 29, 1760. Mustered, Mar. 29, 1760.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 372). On a Muster Roll dated Boston, Feb. 26, 1761, of a company under the command of Capt. Nathaniel Bailey. Quality, Private. Residence, Taunton. Entered service, Apr. 4, 1760. Served until Dec. 6, 1760. Length of service, 35 wks. 2 days. Remarks: Reported 200 miles travel home allowed.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 374). On an account dated Boston, Feb. 9, 1761, rendered by Thomas Goldthwait for paymaster's supplies to Capt. Nathaniel Bailey's Co. Said Eddy reported as having received of the paymaster $8.00—£2–8s–0 and charged with a draft in favor of Mr. Cobham — 16 sh.—total £3–4s–0.

The Eddy Genealogy of 1881 states that he was Lieutenant, Second Co. First Regt., June 17, 1778, as well as Second Lieutenant in Caleb Hill's Co., in 1776. If this is true, then the Oded Eddy mentioned as Private in the following records is probably the son, Oded. But in that case one would have expected him to be called Oded, Jr., unless as was suggested previously Oded died earlier, leaving a widow, who married for her second husband . . . Smith. In that case all the records of the Revolutionary War would refer to the son, Oded.

Oded Eddy. Private, Capt. John Shaw's co., Col. Jacob Gerrish's regt. of guards; enlisted Aug. 24, 1778; discharged Dec. 14, 1778; service, 3 mos. 20 days, at Cambridge; roll dated Raynham; also, Capt. Peletiah Eddy's co., Col. John Hathaway's (Bristol Co.) regt.; enlisted March 23, 1779; discharged April 15, 1779; service, 24 days; company detached from militia and marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I.; roll dated Taunton; also, Capt. Ichabod Leonard's co., Col. Abial Mitchel's regt.; commanded by Lieut. Col. James Williams, Brig. Gen. Godfrey's (Bristol Co.) brigade; service, 8 days; company marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I., on the alarm of Aug. 1, 1780.

Oded Edey. Private, Capt. Simeon Cobb's co., 3rd regt., Gen. Godfrey's brigade; enlisted Aug. 14, 1779; service, 1 mo. 2 days; company detached from militia to serve at Rhode Island for 4 weeks in a regiment under Capt. Samuel Fisher.

Obed Eaddy, Taunton. Private, Capt. Josiah King's co.; marched Sept. 29, 1777; discharged Oct. 29, 1777; service, 1 mo. 2 days; company marched from Taunton under command of Col. George Williams on a secret expedition to Rhode Island.

Child of Oded and Ann (. . .) Eddy:

+9399 ODED EDDY, b. Feb. 28, 1760. (Family Records.)

9316 Paul Eddy (Joseph, John of T), b. about 1720; d. Oct. 1753 (Hodges Gen., p. 122). He is mentioned in his father's will dated July 22, 1758, as dec'd. He m. Jan. 2, 1745/46, Elizabeth Hodges of Taunton, Mass. (V.R.). She was the dau. of Henry³ Hodges (Henry², William¹) and his wife Sarah² Leonard (James¹). She was born in Taunton in 1722 (Hodges Gen., p. 122) and died Nov. 30, 1765 (Hodges Gen.). After the death of Paul she married (2)

Benjamin Wilbour, of Raynham, son of Shadrach and Joanna (Neal) Wilbour. He died Aug. 6, 1763. Elizabeth Hodges was the sister of Henry Hodges, who married Mary Eddy, the sister of Paul Eddy.

Paul Eddy was a soldier. He was attached to a troop of horse from Taunton under the command of Zephaniah Leonard which was sent to the frontier in 1759 to try to settle the question of the ownership of the country between the St. Lawrence and New England, which was not settled by the Treaty of Peace in 1748. (Emery, Hist. of Taunton, p. 417.)

(Vol. XCIII, p. 56). Paul Eddy appears on a Muster Roll sworn to Raynham Mar. 31, 1749, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Zephaniah Leonard—Troop of Horse. Quality, Centinel. Residence not given. Entered service, Sept. 28. Served until Oct. 3, Year not given but probably 1748. Length of service 6 days. Service on an alarm.

(B.C.D. Bk. 43.161). "George Williams of Taunton and Sarah his wife; John Harvey ye 2nd of Taunton and Abigail, his wife; Elizabeth Eddy, widow; all three daughters of Lieut. Henry Hodges, late of Taunton, dec'd, sell to Henry Hodges our brother,—ye homestead farm, late our father's in Taunton . . . dated May 1, 1756." Elizabeth Eddy signed with a mark.

Children (Will of Joseph Eddy, also Guardianship papers B.C.P.):

+9400 Paul Eddy, b. 1749 (Hodges Gen.).
+9401 Apollos Eddy, b. 1752 (Hodges Gen.).

9317 Pelatiah Eddy (Joseph, John of T), b. . . .; d. Nov. 25, 1793; Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); m. (1) Mar. 23, 1758, Jane Cobb, Taunton (V.R.). He m. (2) Lydia Harvey. She was the dau. of David[5] Harvey (William,[4] Thos.[3], Wm.[2], Thos.[1]) and his wife, Abigail Woodward (Israel[1]).

Lydia was sister of Abigail Harvey, wife of Oliver[3] Eddy (Eleazer[2] John of T) and to Zerviah Harvey, wife of Abiel[4] Eddy (Caleb[3], Eleazar[2] John of T). She was living in Dec. 1794. She died bef. June 11, 1827 (B.C.D. 125.484), when her son Pelatiah sold land inherited from her. He inherited a large estate from his father. See Will, p. 186 in Bulletin.

He sold much of this land at various times, but still at his decease had a goodly amount which was inherited by his children. He was a soldier in the French and Indian War. The Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives have the following records of Pelatiah Eddy.

(Vol. XCV, p. 251). Paletiah Eddy appears on a List dated April 6, 1757, of the . . . Not given . . . Co. of Militia in the town of Taunton, commanded by Capt. Joseph Hall, comprising the Train band and Alarm list. Rank, Private (probably). Reported belonged to the Train band.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 343). Peletiah Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Feb. 14, 1760, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. John Harvey, Quality, Corporal. Residence, not given. Entered service, May 1, 1759. Served until Dec. 14, 1759. Length of service, 32 wks. 4 days. Remarks: . . . Endorsed . . . Co. in the expedition to Crown Point.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 205). Peletiah Edey appears on a Billeting Account sworn to Worcester ss. Sept. . . 1760, rendered by Nathaniel Wolcott for meals furnished soldiers, invalids, on their return from the army; . . In Oct. and Nov. 1759, Capt. Harvey's Co., Col. Willard's Regt., Charged with 1 meal 6 d. Remarks: Residence, Taunton.

When the Revolutionary War began Pelatiah Eddy was ready to enlist. He was first a second lieutenant and later he became a Captain. His service was as follows:—

Pelatiah Eddy. 2d Lieutenant, Capt. Elisha Barney's 10th (Taunton) co., 3rd Bristol Co. regt. of Mass. militia; list of officers chosen by the several companies in said regiment, as returned by George Williams and James Williams, Jr., field officers; ordered in Council April 13, 1776, that commissions be issued; reported commissioned April 5 [?] 1776; also, 2d Lieutenant, Capt. Ebenezer Dean's co., Col. John Dagget's regt.; list dated Taunton, Dec. 20, 1776, of officers of cos. raised in Bristol Co. from Brig. Gen. George Godfrey's brigade, and returned Jan. 1, 1777, as stationed at or near Howland's Ferry for defence of Rhode Island; also, Captain, 10th co., 3d Bristol Co. regt. of Mass. militia; list of officers; commissioned July 27, 1778; also, Captain, Col. John Hathaway's (Bristol Co.) regt.; engaged March 23, 1779; discharged April 15, 1779, service, 24 days; company detached from militia and marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I.; roll dated Taunton; also, Captain. Col. Abiel Mitchel's regt. commanded by Lieut. Col. James Williams, Brig. Gen. Godfrey's (Bristol Co.) brigade; service, 8 days; company marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I., on the alarm of Aug. 1, 1780.

The following from the Bristol Co., Mass. Registry of Deeds contain items of interest.

(B.C.D. 44.240.) Peletiah Eddy of Taunton "sold to William Woodward 8 acres on land granted to me in ye right originally John Macomber's which grant bears date Feb. 25, 1760, . . . bounded on a road which leads from Joseph Eddy's gate to Ebenezer Woodward's." Dated, May 12, 1760 and signed by Pelatiah Eddy.

(B.C.D. 50.354.) Pelatiah Eddy of Taunton . . . "quitclaims all right to several small pieces . . . old Cedar Swamp, which Joseph Eddy purchased of Joseph Willis a grant to my father, Joseph Eddy, . . . land at Cedar Swamp Bridge . . . and Candle Wood Neck." Dated Jan 8, 1762.

(B.C.D. 54.338.) Pelatiah Eddy of Taunton Yeoman sold to Elijah Lincoln blacksmith," dated Mar. 24, 1772. This was witnessed by Joseph Eddy and Hannah Leonard.

(B.C.D. 46.546.) Pelatiah Eddy of Taunton sold "my tract of land in Taunton at a place . . . called Green Cedars, . . . bounded on burnt ground line, east by Ambrose Linkon and Daniel Linkon and came to Peletiah by his father, Joseph Eddy's will." Dated, Nov. 19, 1763. Signed by Pelatiah and wife, Lydia. She signed with a mark. It was witnessed by Seth Owen and Jonathan Leonard.

(B.C.D. 72.333.) Pelatiah Eddy of Taunton to John Eddy of Norton yeoman . . . "a tract of land lying in Norton 3 acres bounded Northerly, easterly and partly westerly on land of John Crane and partly westerly on land of Abiel Eddy and southerly on the Three Mile River so called, reserving ye right of dower and power of Thirds of Abigail Harvey, widow of David Harvey, during her natural life." . . . dated July 28, 1791 and signed by Pelatiah and Lydia Eddy who signs with a mark. It was witnessed by Apollos Leonard and Prudence Leonard.

(B.C.D. 73.410.) I, Lydia Eddy of Taunton, gentlewoman, to John Eddy of Norton, yeoman "3 acres . . . the whole lot that fell to me in the Pine woods by my mother Abigail Harvey, dec'd. Bound westerly on Abiel Eddy and north on David Arnold and east on Henry Harvey and south on Jonathan Leonard." Dated Dec. 19, 1794 and witnessed by Asahel Eddy and Mary Eddy.

In the 1790 Census Pelatiah Eddy was in Taunton with a household consisting of two males over 16, and two females.

Children, probably all by second wife, Lydia Harvey, except Joseph (order of birth not known):

+9406 Timothy Eddy.

9318 Azariah Eddy (Joseph, John of T), b. . . .; d. before Oct. 14, 1749, when Joseph Eddy, his father, asked that an administrator on his estate be appointed; m. Jan. 22, 1738, Martha Pierce; dau. of John and Abigail (Vinton) Pierce (Pierce Gen.).

"To the Honorable George Leonard, Esq'r, of the Probate of Wills . . . for the county of Bristol. Whereas, my son Azariah Eddy of Dighton in the county afsd late deceased, died intestate and no administration has been granted on sd estate, these are therefore to desire your Hon'r to grant administration of said estate to me the subscriber and your petitioner as in duty bound . . ." signed Joseph Eddy and dated at Norton, Oct. 14, 1749. Thereupon Martha was cited to appear at Tuesday's court in Freetown, Nov. 1749 "because Joseph hath applied for administration", "to choose or refuse."

Martha then replied,—"To the Honorable George Leonard Esq'r, Judge of Probate of Wills for the County of Bristol, etc. . . . Whereas God in his Providence has suddenly taken away by death my husband, Azariah Eddy, late of Dighton in the County of Bristol. These are therefore to request and desire your Honor to appoint and Impower my loving brother, John Pierce, Jr. of the town and county afsd to administer on all the estate both real and personal of my said deceased husband." Dated at Dighton, Oct. 15, 1749.

Then an Inventory of Azariah's possessions was taken. It is on file in Taunton. It gives a splendid idea of the equipment of the ordinary family of the times. From the various accounts turned in, it is evident that Azariah was killed as there was a coroner's inquest. Probably he was drowned, as he is called boatman in one of the reports. It is also clear that Loved Eddy was born after the death of Azariah, for Martha "Prays allowance for her charge in Lying in with a child after the decease of her husband." On Nov. 7, 1749, Martha was appointed guardian of Azariah, Bethany, Abigail, Martha and Rhoda Eddy all under 14 and "children of Azariah Eddy, your late husband, boatman" (B.C.P. 12.94). From this it is evident that Loved was not yet born.

Azariah Eddy died before his father. In Joseph's will, Azariah is mentioned as deceased and as having two sons, Azariah and Loved, and four daughters, whose names are not given. Until 1742, Azariah lived in Taunton as a farmer or laborer. But in that year, he purchased land in Coventry, R. I., moved his family there and was admitted Freeman (R. I. Colonial Records, Vol. V, p. 63). Although he was made Freeman on May 3, 1743 in Coventry, R. I., he remained there only a year. In 1744 he returned to Mass. and made his home in Dighton. At first he was a farmer but later became a boatman.

The following deeds on file in Coventry, R. I., are of interest.

Joseph Carpenter of Coventry, yeoman to Azariah Edy of Taunton, yeoman " . . . land in Coventry called the 17 men's Purchase, lately in Warwick and is to the westward of the River called Cars River & is land I now live on, with housery etc. . . . and is land I bought of Charles Andrew. . . . 18 acres west on James Green, north on highway, east and south on land of Robert Green." . . . Dated Apr. 1, 1742. Signed by Joseph and Mary Carpenter, and witnessed by Robert Green, Elisha Johnson and Joseph Mathewson.

Peter Green sold to Azariah Edy of Taunton, Bristol County in Province of Mass., laborer, . . . "land in Coventry, in the part called or known as the 10 men's land & is one quarter of the farm called masons. . . . bounded west on land of Elisha Green south on James Green and east on the highway,—93 acres—also ½ of a lot No. 16 in so called maroone swamp, containing 9½ acres, commencing with Elisha Green and William Green of Warwick." Dated Apr. 2, 1742, and witnessed by Benj. Earl and Jerre. Lippit. (Bk. 1, p. 38.)

I, Azariah Edy of Dighton, husbandman . . . "sell to Benjamin Andrews of East Greenwich, laborer,—Marroon Swamp, near Green or Summit—bounded westerly on land of Elisha Greene of Warwick, south on James Greene and Wardal Greene 95 acres and is part of the farm No. 13 of land called the Tenmen's land together with ½ right in the lott No. 16 in marroon swamp in Coventry." Dated May 3, 1744. Witnessed by Wm. Wall and William Arnold, Jr.

Azariah Eddy of Dighton, tanner, "eldest son of Azariah Eddy, late of Dighton, dec'd, intestate for . . . 7£ sell to Elkanah Johnson and Elisha Johnson of Coventry . . . all said Azariah of Dighton, dec'd, died seized of and by reason of said land lying so remote and not being furnished with a description of the same in a more correct and perfect manner," . . . etc. Dated June 22, 1763. Signed by Azariah Eddy. Acknowledged at Newport, R. I. and witnessed by John and Elizabeth Davis.

Children, order of birth unknown:

+9407 Azariah Eddy.
9408 Martha Eddy, a minor in 1749 and 1763, when Thomas Joslin was her guardian.
9409 Abigail Eddy, a minor in 1749 and 1759, when Edward Shove was her, guardian.
+9410 Bethany Eddy.
9411 Rhoda Eddy.
+9412 Loved Eddy, b. after Nov. 7, 1749, and before August 1750.

9319 Joseph Eddy (Joseph, John of T), b. . . .; d. . . .; m. Apr. 21, 1733, Mary Hix of Rehoboth (V.R.) (also Taunton V.R.). His name first appears on the records as a witness to a deed given by his uncle Jonathan Eddy on Feb. 5, 1732, accompanied by that of Azariah Eddy and again on the 13th of Feb. 1732, as a witness to the will of Daniel Owen (B.C.D. 28.68 and B.C.P. 8.212). It is probable that soon after his marriage he left Taunton to try his fortunes in new lands which were being opened. From Joseph's will it is clear that he had not been heard from in Taunton for a long while, for Joseph says:

I Give to my son Joseph Eddy if he be Living or if not to any of his Legal heirs Lawfully Begotten by him one Quarter of a purchase Right in ye old Township of Taunton in sd County which Decended to me on ye Right of Edward Bobbit as by Deed to me from Elkanah Bobbit but in Case sd son Joseph be not surviving nor no Legall heirs or heirs I Give sd Quarter of a Right to my Two Daughters Abigail Cobb & Mercy Hodges They to have ye same in Equal halfe to them their heirs and assigns for Ever

It is probable that Joseph Eddy died before 1790 as his name does not appear in the census of that date.

9321 Mary Eddy (Joseph, John of T), b. Apr. 14, 1718, Taunton, Mass. (Hodges Gen., p. 120); d. Sept. 29, 1811, Taunton (Gravestone record, also Hodges Gen.); m. Feb. 25, 1741 42, at Taunton, (V.R.), Henry Hodges, Jr. (See will of Joseph Eddy). He was the son of Henry³ Hodges (Henry², Wm.¹) and his wife Sarah² Leonard (dau. of James¹ and Lydia Leonard). He was b. in 1718 (Hodges Gen.) and d. June 29, 1778 (Hodges Gen.).

They lived on the south side of the road to Norton about a quarter of a mile east of the bridge over the 3 Mile River. He was selectman in 1755, 1762, 1763, 1768, 1770. He appears in one deed owning land in common with the Eddys.

(B.C.D., Vol. 44, p. 159). "Henry Hodges, grantee to Oded Eddy and Pelatiah Eddy both of Taunton on ye one part and Simeon White of Taunton on ye other part . . . having land adjacent at a place called Scadding . . . land late of Joseph Eddy Dec'd . . . near a path from Simeon White's house toward late ye home of Joseph Eddy dec'd and on the north side of ye way leading from said Simeon's toward Ephraim Woodward's" . . . Dated Mar. 21, 1760.

Mary Eddy Hodges died at the age of 93 yrs. 5 mo. 15 days, and is buried in Oakland Cemetery. She appears also as Mercy Eddy. It is Mary in the will of her father where she is mentioned as follows:

I Give to my five Daughters over and above what Each of them has all Ready Reievd viz to Abigail wife of Ebenezer Cobb Exsperece wife of Nathaniel Willis Mary wife of Henry hodges Delverace ye wife of Benjamin King & Silence ye wife of Elisha Barney my Six acres of Cedarswamp in ye Great Cedar Swamp Laying on ye west side of ye Seventh Shear or Lott Decended to me by Execution obtained against Daniel fisher Junr: and also all my Right to Land in ye north purchass in ye Great Ceder Swamp which I purchased of Thomas Linkon son of John Linkon To them & Each of Thim to hold in Sevarlly their heirs and assigns for Ever one fifth part Each—Also to Each of sd Daughters Eight pounds Each to be paid by my Exeu$_{r}$. here after named within Two years after my Decease. Mary (Eddy) Hodges was one of the members of the Taunton church who withdrew in 1792 to form the Congregational church in West Taunton.

Children of Henry and Mary (Eddy) Hodges (Hodges Gen.):

i Zephaniah Hodges, b. 1743.
ii Spencer Hodges, b. 1745 (?).
iii Henry Hodges, b. 1746/47.
iv Lydia Hodges, b. 1749/50.
v Abiathar Hodges, b. 1752/53.
vi James Hodges, b. 1754/55.
vii Elkanah Hodges, b. 1757.

9322 Experience Eddy (Joseph, John of T), b. . . .; d. . . .; m. Nov. 23, 1738, at Taunton, Nathaniel Willis of Taunton (V.R.) (will of Joseph).

For her share in her father's estate see account under her sister Mary Eddy.

9323 Silence Eddy (Joseph, John of T), b. May 27, 1734 (Bible Rec.); d. Aug. 2, 1815 (Bible Rec.); m. at Taunton (V.R.), May 30, 1751, Capt. Elisha Barney (will of Joseph Eddy). He was the son of Jonathan⁴ Barney (John³, Jacob², Jacob¹) and his wife Anna Dean; dau. of John and Hannah Dean. He was b. Mar. 26, 1730 (Bible Rec.), and d. Oct. 9, 1781.

He was a tavern keeper in Taunton, a farmer, and tax collector. He held a captain's commission under George the Third. Later he was in the Revolutionary War, where he was Captain of the 10th (Taunton) Co., 3rd Bristol Co. Regt., and on the list of Mass. Militia Officers commissioned April 5, 1776. His will, dated July 1, 1779, was proved Dec. 31, 1781, at Taunton, and it mentions all the children except Anna, who was dead.

In the 1790 Census, Silence Barney was a widow living in Taunton and the head of a family of one male over 16, one male under 16, and two females.

In 1764 Elisha and Silence Barney sold to Samuel Bassett 1/5 interest in the estate of Joseph Eddy of Taunton (B.C.D.).

Children (the dates of birth were obtained by Mr. Eugene Preston of Colorado from an old Bible Record):

i Hannah Barney, b. May 10, 1752; m. Ebenezer Chase.
ii Rufus Barney, b. July 22, 1754; m. Sept. 18, 1774, Sarah Holmes.
iii Mary Barney, b. Feb. 22, 1758; m. 1774, Spencer Lyon. Their daughter, Fanny Lyon, mar. Obadiah Eddy, son of Obadiah. iv Anna Barney, b. Dec. 6, 1762; d. aged 3.
v Elkanah Barney, b. Sept. 20, 1767; m. June 20, 1790, Katherine King. (Query,—Was Katherine King the daughter of Deliverance (Eddy) and Benjamin King?)
vi Elisha Barney, b. July 17, 1776; m. May 15, 1796, Mehitable Leonard.

9325 Asa Eddy (Jonathan, John of T), b. before 1739, probably at Preston, Conn., perhaps in Taunton, Mass. He was over 14 years of age in 1754 when he chose Simeon Fobes as guardian (Probate Rec. of Preston). He m. Aug. 2, 1761, at Preston, Elizabeth Gore of Norwich, Conn., the dau. of Samuel and Desier (Desire?) Gore. She was b. Dec. 15, 1738, at Voluntown, Conn., and d. Mar. 14, 1790, at Salisbury, Conn. (also given Mar. 4). (See Hist. Col. of Salisbury.) It is claimed by one branch of the family that Asa Eddy married a second time Sarah . . . and by the second wife had one child, b. in Sheffield, Mass.

From the French and Indian War Rolls in the Conn. Hist. Soc. Col. (Vol. I, p. 191) it is shown that Asa Eddy was a member of the 12th Co. in Col. Lyman's Reg't; Capt. Gallup . . . that he enlisted March 28, 1757, and was discharged Dec. 2, 1757. On April 10, 1758, he again enlisted in the 2nd Co., 2nd Reg't under Capt. Coit and was discharged Nov. 20, 1758. Capt. Coit was of Preston and Capt. Gallup of Groton, Conn.

He probably went to Salisbury about 1768 or 1769. Vol. VII and VIII of Land Rec. show that he purchased land in Preston from 1764 through 1769. There are records showing that an Asa Eddy purchased land in Salisbury, Conn., from 1777 through 1801. Beside this Asa Eddy and his son Asa Eddy, Jr., there was living in this section, another Asa Eddy with a son Asa. (See No. 369.) This makes it rather confusing to distinguish between the two families. When the 1790 Census was taken it would seem that the Asa Eddy who was living in Litchfield was this Asa and the one in Sheffield was Asa Jr. his son, while the one in Great Barrington was the younger Asa of the other family, whose father Asa Senior had died earlier. In 1790 Asa Eddy of Litchfield had a household consisting of two males over 16, two under 16, and three females, the one in Sheffield had one male over 16, one under 16, and two females, while the one in Great Barrington had one male over 16, one under 16, and three females.

The records filed at the Conn. State Library show that Asa Eddy was of the party that went from Conn. to effect the capture of Fort Ticonderoga in April–May 1775. It seems very likely that this record refers to this Asa Eddy, since he had earlier been a soldier and so was a man of experience to whom such work could be intrusted. It is however possible that it was the younger Asa of the other branch.

The following also seem to refer to this elder Asa Eddy.

Asa Eddy. Capt. William King's co., Col. John Fellow's regt.; order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Dorchester, Nov. 17, 1775.

Asa Eady. Private, Capt. Noah Lankton's co., Col. Ashley's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted April 26, 1777; discharged May 20, 1777; service, 25 days, at Saratoga, by order of Gen. Gates; also, Corporal, Capt. Elijah Deming's detachment from Col. Ashley's regt.; enlisted June 4, 1778; discharged July 15, 1778; service, 41 days; company ordered to Albany by Gen. John Fellows.

Asa Eade. Corporal, Capt. Silas Goodrich's co., Col. John Ashley's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted Sept. 19, 1777; discharged Oct. 19, 1777; service, 1 mo. 1 day, in Northern department; company ordered out by Maj. Gen. Gates.

Children, by first wife:

+9413 Mary Eddy, b. Apr. 25, 1762, at Preston, Conn. (Preston Rec.).
+9414 Asa Eddy, b. Apr. 1, 1764, at Preston (Preston Rec.). His pension Affidavit gives the date of birth as Apr. 16, 1766, at Preston.
9415 Betsee Eddy, b. Dec. 1, 1766, at Preston.
+9416 John Wilks Eddy, b. Apr. 16, 1768, at Preston.

+9419 Rufus Eddy, b. May 22, 1778, at Salisbury, Conn.
9420 Ebenezer Eddy, b. July 10, 1780. He appears in land records from 1804–1812 in Salisbury, Conn.
+9421 Hannah Eddy, b. May 5, 1783.

Child, by second wife:

9422 Phebe Eddy, b. Nov. 9, 1791.

Children:

+9433 Ede Whitaker, b. Sept. 8, 1776.
9434 Sarah Whitaker, m. David Lee.
9435 Henry Whitaker, b. Mar. 6, 1759; d. 1776 in Rev. War.
9436 Susanna Whitaker, m. Wm. Milliken.
9437 Jonathan Whitaker, m. Ruth . . . .
9438 Elizabeth Whitaker, d. aged 18 yrs., unm.
9439 Timothy Whitaker, m. Charity . . . .
9440 Patience Whitaker.

9338 John Eddy (Ichabod, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Feb. 8, 1727/28 Norton (V.R.); d. before 1771, when Joanna Whittaker was appointed administrator on estate of John Eddy, dec'd, late of Norton and son of Ichabod Eddy (Bristol Co. Probate). He is probably the John Eddy who died in Norton, Jan. 25, 1768 (V.R.). No record of his marriage has been found.

John Eddy is on the Muster Roll of Captain Jonathan Eddy's Company in Col. Joseph Frye's Regiment from April 2, 1759, to Sept. 30, 1760, at Fort Cumberland, Nova Scotia. (Memoir of Col. Jonathan Eddy by Joseph W. Porter, p. 8.)

In 1760 he was in Nova Scotia and was probably there in 1757, but he returned to Norton before his death.

(Bristol Co. Deeds.) "John Eddy of Horton, King's Co. and province of Nova Scotia to Jonathan Eddy of Norton, . . . land in Norton and Co. of Taunton, . . . seven acres left me as a legacy by my grandfather, Ebenezer . . . " Dated Oct. 22, 1760. This was signed and acknowledged at Horton, Nova Scotia on the 24th of Oct., 1760, and witnessed by Silas and Reuben Crane.

It would seem that at some time this piece of land had been thought to contain silver, because when Jonathan Eddy sold it later, he reserved all his right . . . to "all of ye place where people diged for silver mine, for all ye heirs of Ebenezer Eddy, late deceased," etc. (B.C.D. 52.474).

Jonathan Hodges was appointed guardian of "John Eddy, a person who is of age, but who is out of the province, grandson of Ebenezer Eddy, late of Norton dec'd on July 12, 1762 (Bristol Probate Rec.). When Ebenezer Eddy's estate was settled Mar. 16, 1757, he is referred to as a person who is of age, but out of this province, grandson of Ebenezer Eddy of Norton, dec'd and son of Ichabod Eddy, dec'd, son of the sd Ebenezer Eddy (Bristol Probate). In the account of Joanna Whittaker, administrator on the estate of John Eddy, Joanna reported "cash received from Jonathan Hodges, who was guardian to sd John Eddy, above named, dec'd who was out of this province at the time of taking sd guardianship papers. £5 14 sh. 3 pence."

9340 David Eddy (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Apr. 6, 1737 (V.R.): m. (1) Apr. 5, 1764, Keziah Ormsbee of Rehoboth, Mass. (V.R.); b. Feb. 23, 1740; d. Feb. 11, 1771, Rehoboth (V.R.); dau. of Jacob and Mary (White) Ormsbee. He m. (2) Sept. 13, 1772, at Rehoboth (V.R.), Mary Bliss, dau. of Abraham and Sarah (Ormsbee) Bliss (Bliss Gen.). He lived in Rehoboth until some time after his second marriage when he removed to Brookfield, Mass.

He was a soldier in the French and Indian Wars. His name appears on the Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives in the form of Eady and Eddey, as follows:

(Vol. XCV, p. 264). David Eddy appears on a list, dated April 9, 1757, of the 1st Co. of Militia in the town of Norton, commanded by Major George Leonard Jr., comprising the Train band and Alarm list, of men between 16 and 60 years. Rank. Private. Reported belonged to the Train Band.

(Vol. XCVI, p. 111). David Eddey appears on a bileting roll, endorsed 1758, of Capt. Jonathan Eddey's Norton Co., Col. Not given. Regt., enlisted, March 30, year not given, probably 1758. Roll made up to May 31, . . . Number of days, 62. Amount, £2 1s. 4d.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 170). David Eddy appears on a return, dated April 26, 1759, of men enlisted or impressed for His Majesty's service in Col. Ephraim Leonard's Regt., to be put under the command of His Excellency Jeffry Amherst, Esq., General and Commander-in-Chief of His Majesty's forces in North America, for the invasion of Canada. Age, 22. Residence, Norton. When enlisted, April 6. Reported served on a former expedition 1758 at Crown Point. Remarks: Reported: Said Eddy and others passed muster and were delivered to Capt. Ebenezer Cox.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 100a). David Eddy appears in a billeting roll of Capt. Ebenezer Cox's Co., 1st battalion of Gen. Ruggle's regt. Roll certified at Worcester, April 30, 1759. Rank, . . . not given. Enlisted April 6, 1759. Date of receiving the King's provision, April 30, 1759. 25 days billeting charged, 1 day less allowed.

(Vol. XCVII, p. 234). David Eadey appears on a Billeting Roll dated Worcester, May 22, 1759 of the several companies of the 1st and 2nd Battalions Co., in Brig. Gen. Timothy Ruggles' Regt. Enlisted, April 30 . . . year not given, probably 1759. Roll made up to May 23. Day of receiving the King's provisions. Number of Days, 23. Amount, . . . not given. Remarks: Reported, said Eadey in Capt. Ebenezer Cox's Co. Residence, Norton.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 288). David Eddy appears on a muster roll dated Boston, January 5, 1760, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Ebenezer Cox. Quality, Private. Residence, Norton. Entered service, April 6, 1759. Served until Dec. 1, 1759. Length of service, 34 weeks, 2 days. Remarks: Endorsed: Co. westward.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 223). David Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, March 2, 1761, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Silvester Richmond. Quality, Private. Residence, Norton. Entered service, June 28 . . . year not given, endorsed 1760. Served until Nov. 28 . . . year not given, endorsed 1760. Length of service, 22 weeks. Remarks: Reported: 150 miles travel, horse allowed.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 383). David Eddy appears on a billeting account sworn to Wrentham, Mar. 23, 1761, rendered by John Goldsbury. For meals furnished soldiers on their return home from the expedition to the westward in the last campaign, many of them being weakly, lame, and suffering. Capt. Richmond's Co., Col. Whitcomb's Regt., Charged with 1 meal Dec. 1.

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, with the following service:

David, Edey, Brookfield. List of men dated Brookfield, June 30, 1778, showing service credited to them respectively, as returned by the committee chosen to make an average of the service rendered to the credit of the 3d Precinct of Brookfield; total amount of service rendered made to average 5½ mos. for each single poll in said precinct; said Edey credited with 3¼ mos. service.

According to the 1790 Census, David Eddy was then in Brookfield, Mass., with two males over sixteen, and two females in his family.

Children of David and Keziah (Ormsbee) Eddy, b. in Rehoboth (V.R.):

+9441 Keziah Eddy, b. Nov. 28, 1764.
+9442 Jonathan Eddy, b. Aug. 20, 1766.
+9443 Daniel Eddy, b. Aug. 11, 1768.
Perhaps others, but these three are mentioned in the will of their uncle, Ephraim Eddy.

9343 Ebenezer Eddy (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John of T), b. May 3, 1743, Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. July 18, 1830, Heath, Mass. (V.R.); m. (1) Mar. 17, 1768, Hanover, Mass. (intentions recorded Feb. 26, 1768), Deborah Palmer of Hanover; m. (2) Jan. 5, 1813, Elizabeth White at Whitingham, Vt. (V.R.). He resided at Norton, Bridgewater, Pembroke, Hanover, Coleraine, and Heath, Mass.

In the "History and Records of the First Congregational Church of Hanover, Mass. from 1727–1865" by L. Vernon Briggs, it is recorded on page 143 that Ebenezer and Deborah Eddy were at Covenant in the Church on May 27, 1770. On that date Ebenezer and Waterman Eddy were baptized.

He was a man 5 ft. 10 in. in height and of a dark complexion with black hair. He was apprenticed to Theophilus Hayward (or Howard) and lived at Bridgewater. When the French and Indian War broke out he became a soldier. After this war was over he married and lived for a while at Kingston, Mass., where he was at the outbreak of the Revolution. He was one of the Minute men who marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775, and later he enlisted. He became sergeant. He was at Valley Forge in the winter of 1778 and at West Point in 1781. After the war he left Hanover where he had been living and migrated to the northwestern part of Mass., where he settled in Coleraine. He was one of those who were entitled to 200 acres of land in accordance with a resolution of Congress passed in 1801. He died in Heath, Mass.

As a soldier in the French and Indian war, his name appears on the Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives as follows:

(Vol. XCIX, p. 125.) On a Pay Roll dated Boston, April 1, 1762, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Lemuel Dunbar; a Private, residence Bridgewater; entered service, May 6, 1761; served until Dec. 7, 1761; length of service, 7 mos. 20 days. Remarks: Father or Master; . . . T. Howard.

(2) Oct. 19, 1773, Esther Smith of Spencer, Mass. (Brookfield V.R.), who d. Oct. 26, 1797, at Charlton (V.R.). He m. (3) Lydia (Gould) Eells (Will of Ephraim, Hampshire Co.) who survived him. She was dau. of Jeremiah and Hannah Gould (Gould Gen.) and b. 1770.

At the time of the 1790 Census, Ephraim Eddy was in Coleraine with a family consisting of one male over sixteen, two under sixteen, and two females.

He was a private in the Revolutionary War. His service is as follows:

Edy, Ephraim. Private, Capt. John Woolcott's co. of rangers, which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775, from Brookfield and Spencer; service, 12 days.

From these records it would seem that he settled in Brookfield or Spencer after leaving Norton and then as early as 1780 moved farther north to Coleraine, where he died about 1811. His will dated Feb. 25, 1811, mentions, grave of first wife, dec'd; wife, Lydia; adopted daughter, Esther White; my brother, Ebenezer Eddy; Jonathan Eddy, my nephew; Daniel Eddy, my nephew; Keziah Green, my niece; Deborah Eddy, my niece; Ephraim Eddy, 2nd, my nephew;

Matthew Burr; Hannah Burr and son-in-law, George Eells. Sullivan Taft of Heath, Exec.

(Bk. 21, p. 293) Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine bought of Oliver Newell of Coleraine land in Coleraine lot 49 in the third division. 100 acres, Mar. 5, 1781. (Hampshire Co.)

(Bk. 5, p. 31) Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine yeoman bought 100 acres in lot No. 97 in 3rd Div. on Nov. 3, 1790 (Franklin Co. Rec.).

(Bk. 6, p. 392) Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine, Township No. 2 now called Coleraine, lot No. 37, on Feb. 10, 1792.

(Bk. 7.197) Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine "bought land in Coleraine . . . Lot No. 89 in 3rd Division." Dated Dec. 2, 1793.

(Bk. 21.98) Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine bought land in Heath on Mar. 16, 1805. He sold it the same day. Wife Esther signed.

(Bk. 8.70) Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine sold "southeast part of Lot No. 49 in the 3rd Division on the road to Charlemont." Dated June 9, 1793. Wife Esther signed and Samuel Eddy and David Morton signed as witnesses.

(This deed is of interest because Samuel was son of Samuel^5 (Samuel^4, Obadiah^3, Samuel^2, Wm.^{1}) and he married Anna Morton, perhaps the daughter or sister of this David Morton.)

(Bk. 9, p. 86). Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine yeoman "to Leonard Eddy . . . ½ the lot of No. 49 and is one half the farm I now possess in common with Leonard Eddy." Bounds mention Joshua Winslow, . . . Ichabod Eddy. Dated Jan. 31, 1795. Signed by Ephraim and Esther Eddy and witnessed by Waterman Eddy, and Oren Smith. (Bk. 14.55). Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine sold "to Leonard Eddy . . . part of lot 37 and 49 in the 3rd Division . . . ." Dated Oct. 2, 1798. Ephraim and wife Lydia sign and it is witnessed by Jonathan and Elizabeth Paterson.

(Bk. 23, p. 380). Ephraim Eddy of Coleraine, yeoman, sold land in Heath on the road from Heath to Rowe . . . . Dated Jan. 23, 1807, and signed by Ephraim and wife Lydia and witnessed by Elijah and Abigail Weydon.

9345 Moses Eddy (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Apr. 4, 1747, Norton, Mass. (V.R.). Nothing is known for certain about this Moses Eddy. It seems likely that he is the Moses Eddy that enlisted from Damariscotta and whose service follows, but proof is lacking.

Moses Eddy, Damariscotta. Private, Capt. Benjamin Bowne's co., Lieut. Col. William Bond's (late Gardner's) 37th regt.; company return dated Prospect Hill, Oct. 7, 1775; reported enlisted for Quebec.

9347 Sarah Eddy (Samuel, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Dec. 29, 1735, Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. . . .; living in 1778 (will of her mother); probably m. Mar. 31, 1774, Isaac Perrin, Rehoboth, Mass. (V.R.). From the following deed it would seem that this was the Sarah Eddy that married Isaac Perrin.

(B.C.D. 72.315). Isaac Perrin and Sarah his wife, and Hannah Eddy, spinster, of Rehoboth, "sold Jonathan Leonard of Norton land in Norton, 9 acres . . . on northerly side of road that leads from John Grays to Elkanah Woodwards . . . other bounds mentioned are . . . Jonathan Leonard and David Arnold. Wife Sarah, in token of her relinquishing her dower in ye premises" . . . Dated Apr. 1793. Both Isaac and Sarah sign with a mark and Hannah does the same.

9350 Samuel Eddy (Samuel, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Jan. 31, 1740 41, Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. bet. 1814 and 1816, Norton. Intentions of marriage, Feb. 22, 1770, Norton, Mass., to Mary Philips of Smithfield, R. I. She died before Nov. 4, 1839. (See Adm. acc. Taunton.) She had a pension. Samuel Eddy was a soldier in the Revolutionary War from Norton. His service is as follows:

Samuel Eddy, Norton. Private, Capt. Zebedee Redding's co., Col. Josiah Whitney's regt.; company ordered for advance pay for 1 month, etc., dated Camp at Hull, June 21, 1776; also, same co. and regt.; service from 4 days prior to marching to Aug. 1, 1776, 2 mos. 23 days; also, same co. and regt.; service from Aug. 1, 1776, to Dec. 1, 1776, 4 mos.; also, Capt. John Shaw's co., Col. Jacob Gerrish's regt. of guards; enlisted Oct. 6, 1778; discharged Dec. 14, 1778; service, 2 mos. 8 days, at Cambridge; roll dated Raynham; also, receipt dated Norton, April 2, 1781, for bounties paid said Eddy and others, by the Committee or the heads of the respective classes of the town of Norton, to serve in the Continental Army for the term of 3 years, also, descriptive list of men raised to reinforce Continental Army, agreeable to resolve of Dec. 2, 1781 [1780], returned as received by Sergt. Edward Stebbens, at Taunton, April 5, 1781, to be conducted to Springfield and delivered to Col. William Shepard; age 40 yrs.; stature, 5 ft. 8 in.; complexion, dark; occupation, laborer; residence Norton; engaged for town of Norton; term, 3 years; also, Private, Capt. William Moore's co., Col. William Shepard's (4th) regt.; muster roll for May, 1781, dated West Point; enlisted March 1, 1781; reported on command at New Windsor; also, muster roll for June, 1781; reported on command at New Windsor; also, muster rolls for July and Aug., 1781; reported on command at Fishkill; also, muster rolls for Sept., 1781, dated Camp Continental Village; reported on command at Fishkill; also, muster rolls for Oct., 1781–Feb., 1782, dated York Hutts; also, Private, 6th co., order dated July 30, 1783, for wages for May and June [year not given], appearing in a register of orders accepted on account of wages.

Samuel Eady. Collier and Woodcutter; return for rations allowed in Quartermaster General's department at Fishkill, dated Fishkill, Oct. 14, 1781; reported drafted from 4th Mass. regt.

According to the 1790 Census, Samuel Eddy's household then consisted of one male over sixteen, one male under sixteen, and five females. The names of Samuel Eddy and wife, Mary, are found on deeds between 1780 and 1813. At his death he left a will in which he mentioned Mary Edy, wife, and sons, Welcome and Samuel, and daughters, Freelove Jackson, wife of Samuel Jackson, Tilly Eddy and Dorcas Eddy.

(NOTE. The writing on the will is rather illegible. There may be also a son, William, but the word William may be Wellcome.)

Mary Eddy, the wife, went insane. On Nov. 4th, 1839, Lemuel Morse was appointed to administer her estate. The heirs at law were Preston Harvey, Sarah Eddy, and Mary Eddy. The account speaks of Fila Eddy, who rented land. In the division of the estate payments were made to Preston Harvey; heirs of Welcome Eddy; Mary Eddy; Freelove Jackson; George Shearman; and heirs of Samuel Eddy, deceased.

Children, b. in Norton:

+9452 WELLCOME EDDY, b. abt. 1785.
9453 SAMUEL EDDY, d. before 1839, when mother's estate was settled, leaving children.
9454 DORCAS EDDY, m. (int. Sept. 8, 1805), Norton (V.R.), GEORGE SHEARMAN.
9455 FREELOVE EDDY, m. Mar. 15, 1810, Norton (V.R.), SAMUEL JACKSON of Attleboro.
9456 MARY EDDY, unmar. in 1839 when mother's estate was settled.
9457 SILENCE EDDY, (called Tilly) lived in Rehoboth, Mass.; m. to PRESTON HARVEY of Taunton (recorded in newspapers of Dec. 26, 1819, and Jan. 4, 1820).

9354 Comfort Eddy (Samuel, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Jan. 25, 1747/48, Norton, Mass.; d. Feb. 22, 1819, aged 68 years according to a Bible Rec. The Providence Gazette, dated Feb. 27, 1819, records the death of Comfort Eddy "about 75 years of age who was a Revolutionary pensioner and wounded at Yorktown." His gravestone at the North End Cemetery, in Providence, gives the date of death as Feb. 12, 1820, aged 67, which is obviously wrong. His pension record gives Feb. 22, 1819. It is probable that he is the Comfort Eddy who published his intentions to marry Phebe Matthews of Rehoboth (V.R.) Nov. 2, 1771. According to the Providence V.R. he married Mary Drake on Feb. 16, 1772, at Providence. She was b. abt. 1750 and d. Aug. 29, 1832, aged 80, at Prov. (V.R.). Her stone in the North End Cemetery has this inscription:

"Sacred to the memory of Mrs. Mary, wife of the late Comfort Eddy, who died Aug. 29, 1832 in the 80th year of her age. She was a worthy member of the First Baptist Church in this town for upwards of 40 years."

Comfort Eddy was a blacksmith by trade. He left Norton probably at the time of his marriage. When the Providence Census of 1774 was taken Comfort was a resident of the town with a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, one female over 16, and four under 16. His name does not appear in the 1777 Census of Providence, as he was a soldier with the army outside of R. I. In 1790 when the U. S. Census was taken he was again in Providence with a household consisting of one male over 16, four under 16, and four females. For a while about 1783 he resided in Douglas, Mass. (Worcester Co. Deeds 81, p. 273).

When Comfort first enlisted in the Revolutionary War he enlisted from Norton but later from Providence. His service follows:

Comfort Eddy, Norton. Private, Capt. Josiah King's co., Col. David Brewer's (9th) regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted June 20, 1775; service, 1 mo. 2 weeks; also, Capt. King's co., Col. Rufus Putnam's (late D. Brewer's) 9th regt.; order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Roxbury, Dec. 2, 1775; also, list of men mustered by James Leonard, Muster Master for Bristol Co., dated March 17, 1778; Col. William Lea's regt.; engaged for town of Norton.

Comfort Eddy. Private, Capt. Thomas Marshall Baker's co., Col. Samuel Denney's regt.; enlisted Oct. 23, 1779; discharged Nov. 23, 1779; service, 1 mo. 11 days; company raised for 3 months and ordered to Claverack. Roll dated Upton.

Comfort Eddey, Norton. Private, Capt. Josiah King's co., Col. David Brewer's (9th) regt.; company return dated Oct. 7, 1775.

Comfort Eddy (also spelled Eddey, Eady and Edy). B. Norton, Mass.; lived Prov., R. I.; blacksmith, enlisted at Prov. Jan. 10, 1781, for 3 yrs.; dark hair, light complexion, size 5 ft. 7½ in.; was private in Col. J. Olney's R. I. reg't; lost use of right arm, foot and leg, when sick in hospital from injury received in removing cannon, etc., at Head of Elk, 1781.

A recruit for town Smithfield and Mr. Isaac Brayton's class to serve 3 yrs.; certificate dated Prov. Jan. 29, 1781; mustered by Lt. Col. J. Olney; private, Col. R. Elliott's reg't; enlisted by Rhoades Packard, Jan. 5, for 15 mos.; remains in camp; on Muster Roll for 1781 of 1st reg't R. I. Continental Infantry; private 2nd co. R. I. reg't; private, 7th co. R. I. reg't of Foot, Feb., 1781; term 1 yr. 11 mos.; last mustered or enlisted Dec.; "not mustered;" private Lt. Benj. Sherburne's co.; Lt. Col. Olney's reg't, U. S. service; term 3 yrs.; enlisted Jan. 29, 1781; private, Capt. John Dexter's co. 1st R. I. reg't of Foot, Col. Greene commanding, U. S. service, Feb. and Mar., 1781; private in Capt. John Dexter's co., R. I. reg't, Late Col. Greene's, now Lt. Col. Olney's reg't; enlisted Jan. 29, 1781, for 3 yrs.; served 3 mos., Apr., May, June, 1781; private, 7th co. R. I. reg't, Lt. Col. Olney commanding; month of July, 1781; term 3 yrs.; enlisted Jan. 29, 1781, 3 days guard; private, 7th co. R. I. reg't; Lt. Col. Olney's co. U. S. service, Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov., Dec., 1781; private, 7th co. in the R. I. reg't of Foot, Jan., 1782; term 3 yrs.; sick at hospital in Philadelphia, disabled Sept., 1781, in removing cannon at Head of Elk; name on "Return of Casualties in 5th co. R. I. reg't, Jan., 1782; transferred to Light Infantry, June 1, 1782; private, 1st co. R. I. detachment commanded by Capt. Wm. Allen on company Muster Roll for June, July, Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov. to Dec. 25, 1783; roll dated Dec. 25, 1783; discharged on pension, June 20, 1783; term of service was 2 yrs. 6 mos. Name also appears on receipts for pay, clothing, lists of invalids, etc.

There are several deeds on file in Providence, in which Comfort Eddy was one of the parties. In one he is spoken of as of Providence, a sand-carter and a pensioner. His home was near the North End Burying Ground on the present Sexton St.

Children, full list not known:

+9458 George W. Eddy, b. May 11, 1784.
+9459 Comfort Eddy.
9460 Sally Eddy, m. Nov. 3, 1793, John Greenman of Swanzey (U. S. Chronicle of Nov. 14).
9461 Benjamin Eddy, d. probably unm. He was in the service of the U. S.

George W. Eddy as Administrator on the estate of Benjamin Eddy who died intestate was cited to appear on Jan. 30, 1836, and to bring in his account but he didn't. On Jan. 3, 1837 he declared that his brother Benjamin of the late town, now city, of Providence, deceased on the 6th of June, 1813. . . . The inventory showed $49.60 rec'd by the hands of Tristram Burgess from the War Department for wages due to said Benjamin while in the service of the U. S.

9462 Joseph Eddy. Perhaps he is 11947.

9356 Ichabod Eddy (Samuel, Ebenezer, John of T), b. . . .; bapt. May 3, 1754, Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. . . . before July 20, 1813, when his wife Lucy and Stephen Thompson were appointed to administer his estate; m. (Int. published Dec. 24, 1780), Lucy Cleveland of Hardwick, Mass. (V.R.).

When the Revolutionary War broke out he became a soldier. His service is as follows:

Ichabod Eddy, Norton. Capt. Isaac Hodges's co., Col. George Williams's regt.; service from Sept. 25, 1777, to Oct. 31, 1777, 1 mo. 6 days, on a secret expedition; roll sworn to at Norton; also, Private Capt. Israel Trow's co., Col. John Dagget's regt.; entered service Jan. 12, 1778; discharged March 31, 1778; service, 2 mos. 20 days; company drafted to serve for 3 months from Jan. 1, 1778, under Gen. Spencer at Rhode Island; also, list of men mustered June 29, 1778, by James Leonard, Muster Master for Bristol Co., for 6 months' service at Rhode Island; Col. John Dagget's regt.; also, Private, Capt. Joseph Cole's co., Col. John Jacobs's regt.; enlisted June 23, 1778, service 6 mos. 10 days, at Rhode Island; enlistment to expire Jan. 1, 1779.

He went to Hampshire County after the war and for a while he was living in Greenwich. Then on Mar. 3, 1786, he bought land in Shutesbury. While there he sold out his Norton property. Before 1790 he had left Shutesbury and had settled in Coleraine. When the 1790 Census was taken he was the head of a family in Coleraine consisting of one male over 16, two under 16, and two females. After his death his wife and Stephen Thompson administered his estate and the latter became guardian of Ebenezer and Chloe, two of his children, minors, but over 14 years of age.

The following items taken from the Hampshire Records are of interest.

(H.C.D. 8.225). Ichabod Edy of Greenwich, Hampshire Co., yeoman . . . bought land in Shutesbury near . . . Moses Spers and Ed. Crossetts and the county road. Dated Mar. 3, 1786.

(B.C.D. 66.523). Ichabod Eddy of Shutesbury in Hampshire Co., Mass., yeoman, sold to Elkanah Linkon, Gentleman, land in Norton . . . Seconk Cedar Swamp, . . . bounds mention, Morgan Cobb 2nd, John King . . . being the same that Morgan Cobb conveyed to Sarah Eddy, late of Norton Dec'd as per deed . . . Dated Apr. 1787, and acknowledged Jan. 2, 1788. Ichabod signed with a mark.

(H.C.D. 10.95). Ichabod Edy, yeoman of Coleraine, Hampshire Co., sold land in Shutesbury for £30 . . . being about 50 acres. . . . Dated Jan. 11, 1793.

(H.C.D. 47.330). Simeon Eddy of Coleraine, laborer to Lucy Eddy widow . . . all my right in the estate of my father, Ichabod Eddy, late of Colerain, yeoman. Dated Jan. 5, 1816.

(H.C. Probate). Lucy Eddy and Stephen Thompson, friends of Joseph Eddy of Coleraine . . . say that Joseph is an Idiot and wish that a Guardian be appointed for him. Dated at Charlemont, July 20, 1813. Stephen Thompson of Heath was made his guardian. His property is an undivided 5th part of the farm lately owned by Ichabod Eddy, situate in Coleraine.

(H.C.D. 61.137). "We, Lucy Eddy, Ebenezer Eddy, Lois Eddy, and Chloe Eddy, all of Coleraine, and heirs of Ichabod Eddy, late dec'd of Coleraine, sell to Major George Elles" etc. . . . Dated Apr. 6, 1819.

Children, exact order of birth not known (Census and guardianship papers):

+9463 Simeon Eddy, b. before 1790.
9464 Joseph Eddy, b. before 1790. He was "non-compos."
9465 Lois Eddy, b. 1784; d. at Heath, Mass. (V.R.), 1824, aged 40 yrs.
+9466 Ebenezer Eddy, b. between 1792 and 1798 (under 14 in 1813).
+9467 Chloe Eddy, b. between 1792 and 1798 (under 14 in 1813).

9358 John Eddy (John, Eleazar, John of T), b. Feb. 20, 1726/27, at Preston, Conn. (V.R.); d. Aug. 20, 1820, age 94 (Hist. of Middlesex Co., Conn.). He m. Oct. 25, 1750, Haddam, Conn., Elizabeth Brainerd (Early Conn. Marriages, by Bailey). She was b. about 1733; d. Jan. 16, 1813, at the age of 80 (Hist. of Middlesex Co., Conn. Middle Haddam Church Records also give the marriage).

John is mentioned in the will of his father as oldest son, and he was ordered to care for his brother, James, during his natural life. So it is likely that James was an invalid or a cripple.

According to the 1790 census, he was then living in Chatham with a family of three males over 16, and two females. He bought and sold land in Middletown, Conn. The following records are of interest:

(Middletown, Conn. Land records Vol. XIX, p. 400). Dated Oct. 22, 1765. Thomas Fuller 2d of East Haddam, sold to John Eddy Jr. of Middletown, land situated in Middletown on the east side of the river, which lies northwest of Nathan Fuller, late of said Middletown, sold to Sylvanus Higgins of said Middletown, north on Rhoad that runs by said Higgins house, west and north by Capt. George Stocking.

(Chatham, Conn. Land Records Vol. 5, p. 435). Dated Jan. 1, 1792. John Eddy . . . "for the goodwill and affection that I have for my oldest son, John Eddy, Jr. of Chatham, quitclaim unto him . . . half of my home lot together with half of my dwelling house and barn. . . ."

Children:

+9468 John Eddy, b. Apr. 17, 1755, Chatham, Conn.; bapt. May 18, 1755.
+9469 Leveus Eddy, b. Dec. 12, 1758, Chatham, Conn.; bapt. Jan. 14, 1759.
9470 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Jan. 7, 1763, Middletown, Conn.; bapt. Mar. 20, 1763 (V.R.); m. Nov. 29, 1792, Joseph Hitchcock, Chatham, Conn. (V.R.).
9471 Charity Eddy, b. May 3, 1765, Middletown, Conn.; bapt. June 16, 1765 (V.R.); m. Sept. 7, 1783, Lemuel Higgins, Jr., son of Lemuel and Elizabeth (Cole) Higgins.

9359 Elizabeth Eddy (John, Eleazar, John of T), b. July 27, 1729, Preston, Conn. (V.R.) also (Weyborn Gen.); m. June 14, 1750, Nathaniel Bosworth at Middletown, Conn. (V.R. and will of father). He was the son of John and Elizabeth (Toogood) Bosworth (Bosworth Fam., p. 2044, Vol. IV).

In 1791 they lived in Sandisfield, Mass. (East Haddam Deeds, Vol. II, 493).

Children (Bosworth Family):

i John Bosworth, b. Sept. 23, 1751, at Middletown, Conn.
iii Amos Bosworth.
iv Amy Bosworth.
v Roderick Bosworth.
vi Edith Bosworth.
vii Morris Bosworth, b. 1772.

9360 Zephaniah Eddy (John, Eleazar, John of T), b. Feb. 11, 1730/31, at Preston, Conn. (V.R.); m. Lucy Stephens. She was an heir of Uriah Stephens either as his daughter or granddaughter. She died Feb. 21, 1806, in her 67th year. She is buried in the Factory Village Cemetery (Durkee's Epitaphs p. 326, of Vol. I, under town of Milton).

During the Revolutionary War he served as a private in Col. John McCrea's Regt. under Gen. Schuyler (State of New York Rev. War Rec. p. 123 and p. 271).

According to the 1790 Census Zephaniah was then living in Stillwater, N. Y. with a family consisting of one male over 16, and two females.

(Berkshire County Deeds on file at Great Barrington, Mass. Bk. 7.513). Zephaniah Eddy and Lucy Eddy his wife of Stillwater, N. Y., County of Albany, yeoman, . . . sold to Jonathan Smith . . . lot 173 . . . & 70 acres in the 3rd Division drawn by Capt. Uriah Stephens on the right of Abel Rice as may appear in the distribution of Uriah Stephens, late of Canaan, dec'd, Estate, which lot of land is lying and being in town of New Marlbory. . . . Dated Oct. 28, 1783 and acknowledged at Stillwater. John Thompson and Samuel Andrews signed as witnesses.

(Note. There was a Uriah Stephens in Canaan, Conn. who sold land in 1762. There was also a Silas Stephens who had a wife, Lucy Stephens, who owned land in southern Berkshire Co.)

Child:

+9472 Nathan Eddy, b. . . .; Stillwater, N. Y.

9361 James Eddy (John, Eleazar, John of T), b. Feb. 15, 1732/33, at Preston, Conn. (V.R., also Weyborn Gen.). He was living in 1782 when his father made his will and in accordance with it, his brother John was to care for him "during his natural life."

In the French and Indian War there was a James Eddee in the 9th Co., 1st Regt., Capt. Walcott. His name is found on an abstract of Capt. Wolcott's Company's account, etc., 1761, also there was a James Eady in Capt. Northam's Co. enlisted May 13, 1762, a carpenter. His name appears on the Muster Roll of the men raised in the Colony of Connecticut and passed muster for the New York regiments under Capt. Timothy Northam, New York, June 29th, 1762. Age 30; b. Conn., and stature, 5 ft. 9 in. So far as can be found there was no other James Eddy in Conn. at this time. It seems that this James must have been the soldier and it is very possible that he was so wounded that his father felt that he must be provided for.

9364 Labeas Eddy (John, Eleazar, John of T). There is no proof that Labeas Eddy or Leveus (as the name was more frequently spelled) was the son of this John but from the fact that there was a grandson by that name it seems likely that he belongs here. He was a soldier in the French and Indian War in the 4th Co. 4th Regt., Capt. Welles. Enlisted Apr. 7, 1756, and died Nov. 16, 1756 (French and Indian War Rolls, Vol. I, p. 148).

9366 Abiel Eddy (Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. Apr. 5, 1740, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. July 18, 1829, Norton, Mass., age 89 (V.R.); m. Aug. 10, 1763, Norton (Int. filed July 9, 1763) (V.R.), Zerviah Harvey of Taunton. She was b. about 1743, d. Apr. 24, 1825, aged 82, Norton (V.R.). She was the daughter of David and Abigail (Woodward) Harvey and the sister of Lydia Harvey who married Pelatiah Eddy and of Abigail Harvey who married Oliver Eddy.

He was made administrator on his father's estate. He owned land in Norton, a part of which he deeded to his son, John. He was a farmer and lived all his life on his farm not far from the Three Mile River. His service as a soldier in the French and Indian War, as recorded on the Muster Rolls in the Massachusetts Archives, was as follows:

(Vol. XCVI, p. 111). Abiall Eddy appears on a Billeting Roll endorsed 1758 of Capt. Jonathan Eddey's Norton Co., Col. . . . Not given. Regt., Enlisted April 3 . . . year not given probably 1758. Roll made up to May 31. Number of days, 58. Amount £1 18sh. 8d.

(Vol. XCV, p. 270). Abial Eddy appears on a list dated Norton, Apr. 6, 1757, of the 3d Co. of Militia in the town of Norton, commanded by Capt. Simeon Wetherell, comprising the Train band and Alarm list. Rank, Private (Probably) Reported belonged to the Train band.

(Vol. XCVI, p. 355). Abial Eddy appears on a Billeting Account sworn to Wrentham, Feb. 3, 1759 rendered by John Goldsbury for victualling soldiers on their return home in 1758. Capt. Jonathan Eddey's Co., Col. Thomas Doty's Regt., Charged with 1 meal—Oct. 18.

(Vol. XCV, p. 85). Abiel Eddy appears on a List dated Norton, Jan. 16, 1759, of men in Capt. Benjamin Cobb's 3rd co. of militia of Norton who received bayonets of said captain.

The following deeds from the Bristol Co. Registry are of interest,—

(73.410) Abiel Eddy of Norton, yeoman and Zerviah Eddy, wife of Abiel sell for £180 to John Eddy of Norton, yeoman . . . land bounded by Jacob Shaws land, . . . Ezra Eddy's on the south and also on Elijah's land and thence to Mary Keith's land and then to Ezra's . . . and a piece lying in ye Neck so called on ye Three Mile River and a piece given me by Zerviah by the will of my father, David Harvey, (on 3 Mile River near John Crane's and John Eddy's and a piece lying in Norton, bounded by David Arnold and John Eddy. . . 9367 Caleb Eddy (Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. Jan. 25, 1741/42 Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. Mar. 19, 1820, age 78, at Norton (V.R.); m. in 1765 Chloe Fuller, in Nova Scotia (Affidavit of Caleb, when asking for a divorce, on file at the Courthouse in Providence, R. I.). She d. Dec. 1812 at Pittsfield, Mass.

Caleb enlisted when only a boy of 17 for service in the French and Indian War. He joined those under his uncle Jonathan Eddy, who left for Nova Scotia for the attack upon Fort Cumberland. His service as it appears upon the Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives is as follows:

(Vol. XCVII, p. 168). Caleb Eddy, Jr., appears on a return dated April 26, 1759, of men enlisted or impressed for His Majesty's service in Col. Ephraim Leonard's Regt. to be put under command of His Excellency, Jeffry Amherst, Esq., General and Commander-in-Chief of His Majesty's forces in North America, for the invasion of Canada. Age 17. Residence, Norton. When enlisted, April 6. Remarks: Reported—Son to Caleb Eddy. Reported—Said Eddy and others passed muster and were delivered to Capt. Jonathan Eddy.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 371). Caleb Eddy appears on a Billeting Roll of Capt. Jonathan Eddy's Co., Col. Joseph Fry's Regt. Enlisted April 6, 1759. Roll made up to Apr. 13, 1759. . . . Date of Receiving King's provisions. Number of days, 6. Amount, 11 sh.

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 444). Caleb Eddy appears on a Roll of Officers and Men in Capt. Jonathan Eddy's Co., Col. Frye's Regt. in service in Nova Scotia after Jan. 1, 1760, and at time of discharge. Rank, Private. Service began Jan. 1, 1860. To what time paid, Sept. 30 (1760).

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 183). Caleb Eddy appears on a Muster Roll sworn to Suffolk ss. Jan. 5, 1761, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Jonathan Eddy. Quality, Private. Residence, not given. Entered service, April 6, 1759. Served until Sept. 30, 1760. Length of service, 77 weeks, 5 days. Remarks: Father or Master; Caleb Eddy Endorsed Co. at Fort Cumberland.

At about the time of his marriage Caleb was in Hebron, Conn. Two of his children were born there; Caleb in 1766 and Naomi in 1768. (Note. I believe that the records give 1776 for Caleb's birth date, but this date is not in accordance with family records, with the age given at death, nor with the place of birth, for in 1776 Caleb was no longer living in Hebron.)

After leaving Conn. he went to western Mass. He settled in Partridgefield in Berkshire Co. and was there when the Revolutionary War broke out. His service was as follows:

Caleb Eddy, Partridgefield. Private, Capt. Nathan Watkins's co., Col. John Paterson's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 10, 1775; service, 2 mos. 27 days; also, company return [probably Oct., 1775]; also, receipt for bounty coat, or its equivalent in money dated Nov. 13, 1775.

From Partridgefield, Caleb went to Tyringham and then to Hancock, Mass. While there about 1780 his wife and children joined the Colony of Shakers. It is not clear from the records whether Caleb also joined, but it would seem that he was among them for a while, but about 1795 he decided to leave that part of Mass. He deeded his land to some of his children and left. In 1800 he was in Smithfield, R. I., where he began proceedings for a divorce. These were never finished. The case was withdrawn. He later returned to Norton, where he died. When the 1790 census was taken Caleb was in Hancock, Mass., with a family consisting of one male over sixteen, two under sixteen, and two females. The following deeds enable us to trace Caleb as he traveled from place to place.

(Bristol Co. deeds 59.359). Caleb Eddy of Partridgefield in Berkshire Co. in New England, Gentleman . . . to Elijah Eddy of Norton, laborer, 4 acres . . . in Norton. Bounds mention John Crane . . . Crane's line, . . . corner of widow Wood's lot. . . . and he sells also ⅓ part of the west room in the dwelling house of the late Caleb Eddy dec'd, and ⅓ part of the buttry. . . . Dated Apr. 23, 1778. Witnessed by Ezra Eddy, and acknowledged in Taunton by Caleb on July 17, 1779.

(Berkshire Co. Deeds). Caleb Eddy of Partridgefield, Mass. bought land in Tyringham on Feb. 27, 1786 and later in the same year, Caleb Eddy of Tyringham bought more land in Tyringham.

(Bristol Co. Deeds 81, C.111). Caleb Eddy of Hancock, Berkshire Co., Housewright, sold to Ezra Eddy of Norton, yeoman, land in Norton, . . . bounds mention Ezra Eddy's land. Dated Jan. 26, 1789.

(Berkshire Co. Deeds at Adams, 4.228). Caleb Eddy of Hancock bought land. On Sept. 4, 1794, he gave "to my daughter Chloe Eddy . . . a part where I now live." A few days later she deeded this land to the Shakers of Hancock. On Mar. 2, 1797 he sold to Levi Eddy of Hancock, carpenter, more of his property.

(Berkshire Co. Deeds at Adams, Mass., 5.465). I, Chloe Eddy of Hancock, Mass., spinster . . . one of the members of the Church and United Family of Christians called Shakers in Hancock for the love and goodwill I bear the Church and Family aforesaid and for the future well-being and support and upholding in Christian fellowship and communion as well as maintenance do sell . . . unto Daniel Goodrich and Solomon Young, . . . two members as Deacons of said Church and family, who have the care and management of the estate and temporal Interest of said Church and Family at said Hancock. Dated Sept. 16, 1794 and signed by Chloe Eddy with a mark.

Caleb Eddy of Smithfield, shipwright, asked for a divorce from Chloe, his wife, in 1800. In Sept. he testified that he married Chloe in 1765 and that more than 20 years ago she left him and that for 15 years she had lived separate from him in his house and that five years ago she eloped.

Ezra Eddy of Norton, Yeoman, testified in a letter dated Nov. 10, 1800,—that my brother, Caleb Eddy married Chloe Fuller in the year 1766, in the province of Nova Scotia and they lived together about 16 or 17 years according to the best of my knowledge and she joined herself to the Society called Shaking Quakers about 17 years ago and since which time I have understood she has refused to live with her husband and notwithstanding all urging she still refuses.

Hezekiah Osborne of Hancock Co. or Berkshire Co. deposed that he was acquainted with Caleb Eddy and family for 18 years and "Edy's wife left Caleb five years ago and joined people called Shakers and has often been requested to return and has refused. She stripped the house of furniture." He swore to the truth of his statement at Canaan, N. Y., Columbia Co.

9369 Abiathar Eddy (Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. June 16, 1746, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. Feb. 7, 1816, aged 70, Harvard, Mass. (Gravestone Rec.); m. Hannah . . .; d. Jan. 2, 1823, aged 78 (gravestone record).

Abiathar like his brother, Caleb, and father, Caleb, and grandfather, Eleazar, and great-grandfather, John, was a carpenter. After leaving Norton he settled in Petersham, Worcester Co. But when the 1790 census was taken he was in Hardwick, Mass., with a family of two males over sixteen and two females. He became interested in the beliefs of the sect called Shakers and both he and his wife joined them. They became members of the Harvard group of Shakers. They are both buried in Harvard. Whether the two extra members in his family were a son and daughter has not yet been discovered. The following abstracts from deeds allow us to trace the location of his homes.

(Bristol Co. Deeds 81.111). Abiathar Eddy of Petersham, Worcester Co., carpenter, to Ezra Eddy of Norton, husbandman, . . . 3 acres in Norton . . . bounds mention Elijah Eddy, John Crane's land. It is on the east side of the road. . . . "also a part of Cedar Swamp in Crooked meadow and is the other half of the part I sold to Elijah Eddy." Dated Nov. 27, 1783.

(Bristol Co. Deeds 81.112). Abiathar Eddy of Hardwick, Worcester Co. . . . to Ezra Eddy of Norton, laborer, . . . land in Norton 2 acres . . . "bounds mention corner of Abiel Eddy . . . Mary Keith . . . Highway to John Crane's, Elijah Eddy . . . and he also sells ¼ part of the great room, chamber, and garret and ⅛ part of ⅛ part of said rooms." Dated Feb. 21, 1789, and witnessed by John Thayer and Ephraim Briggs.

(Worcester Co. Deeds, 111.439). Abiathar Eddy of Hardwick, Mass., carpenter, sold to Annas Newcomb of Norton, clothier, land at Hardwick, Apr. 18, 1791. Wife Hannah signs this deed.

(Middlesex Co. Deeds). Benjamin Morse Jr. of Groton sold to Jonathan Bridges and Abiathar Eddy, both of Harvard, 18 acres of land in Groton . . . "a part of the farm where I now live" . . . Dated Feb. 1806.

(Middlesex Co. Deeds). Abiathar Eddy of Harvard, Worcester Co., yeoman, sold to Chapman Whitcomb, schoolmaster, . . . house, barn, etc. where Aaron Bigelow now lives, laid out to Aaron Bigelow's wife as her thirds in her former husband's Samuel Pierce's estate . . . also 2 acres on the north side of the county road between Sandy Pond and . . . near Sandy Pond Bridge. Wife Hannah signed this deed. Dated Apr. 18, 1806.

In the records of the United Society of Believers of Harvard, commonly called Shakers, the names of Abiathar and his wife appear. Abiathar was there as early as 1781. In the Shaker Record, Hannah's age is given as 87, but the gravestone gives 78.

9372 Elijah Eddy (Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. in Norton, Mass., Aug. 2, 1752 (V.R.); d. Apr. 25, 1836, Norton (V.R.). He published his intentions to marry Wealthy Harvey of Taunton on Feb. 12, 1778 (Norton V.R.). She was the daughter of John Harvey, Jr., and Abigail^4 Hodges (Henry^3, Henry^2, Wm.^{1}) his wife. She was born about 1751, and d. Jan. 23, 1835, at Norton, aged 84 yrs (V.R.).

Elijah Eddy was a farmer and spent all his life in Norton. When the Revolutionary War broke out he enlisted and was of those who marched to Boston in May 1775. His service, for which he received a pension, follows:

Elijah Eddy, Norton (also given Taunton). Private, Capt. Peter Pitts's co., Col. Timothy Walker's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 2, 1775; service, 3 mos. 6 days; also, company return dated Oct. 6, 1775; also, order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money, dated Roxbury, Nov. 5, 1775.

Elijah Eddy, Norton. Private, Capt. John Allen's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt.; entered service July 27, 1780; discharged July 30, 1780; service, 6 days, travel included, at Rhode Island on an alarm; regiment detached from Bristol Co. militia for 6 days' service.

Elijah Eddy. Capt. Abiel Clap's co., Col. Carpenter's (Bristol Co.) regt.; service, 34 days; company marched to Rhode Island July 24, 1777.

Elijah Eddy. Capt. Isaac Hodges's co., Col. George Williams's regt.; services from Sept. 25, 1777, to Oct. 31, 1777, 1 mo. 6 days, on a secret expedition. Roll sworn to at Norton.

Elijah Eddy. Private, Capt. Josiah Keith's co., Col. Isaac Dean's (Bristol Co.) regt.; enlisted March 4, 1781; discharged March 16, 1781; service, 13 days, at Rhode Island by order of His Excellency, John Hancock.

He inherited a part of his father's property and added to it from time to time by purchasing the shares of Caleb and Abiathar, when they left to settle elsewhere. The Bristol Co. Registry of Deeds contain transactions bearing his signature and several bear that of his wife, Wealthy. One under date of July 18, 1829 states that he sold to James Smith and Luther Short, "land I bought of Caleb Eddy in 1778 . . . and all set off to me in the division of my father's estate, on the west side of the road leading to my house." When his estate was settled, after his death there were but five heirs, so probably the son, Darius, died before reaching manhood.

On June 24, 1836, William, Elijah, and Lyman appeared before the Probate court and said that their father was dead and that he left no wife and but one daughter, who is married. She was Wealthy Macomber, wife of Ard. Macomber in the state of Maine. When the estate was finally divided 1/5 was set off to William, Lucy, John, Lyman, Eliza, Emily, Wealthy, and Rhoda Eddy, all minors and of New York and children of Rhoda Eddy dec'd.

When the census of 1790 was taken, Elijah Eddy was in Norton with a family consisting of one male over sixteen, two under sixteen, and three females.

Children, b. in Norton, Mass. (V.R.):

+9484 William Eddy, b. June 2, 1778.
9485 Darius Eddy, b. Aug. 20, 1779; d. without heirs.
9486 Rhoda Eddy, b. Sept. 26, 1781; m. John Fuller Eddy; son of Caleb and Chloe (See No. 9480).
+9487 Elijah Eddy, b. Mar. 10, 1785.
9488 Wealthy Eddy, b. Sept. 29, 1787; m. June 1, 1807, Ard. Macomber, Norton, (V.R.).
+9489 Lyman Eddy, b. Nov. 11, 1792.

9373 Ezra Eddy (Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. about 1757, at Norton; d. May 28, 1832, at Taunton, Mass., aged 75 yrs. (V.R.); m. (1) Ruth Leonard of Bridgewater, Mass. Their intentions were published Jan. 18, 1784. She was born about 1762 and d. Sept. 9, 1826, at Taunton, aged 64 years (V.R.). She was the daughter of Seth and Ruth (Horn or Hoar) Leonard (Cheseboro Gen., p. 60.) In her will she left money to her sister Sarah Field, brother Seth

Leonard, brother Daniel Leonard and real estate to her nephew, Artemas Field. Ezra Eddy m. (2) June 6, 1830, Mrs. Silence (Tucker) Hill, the widow of Joseph Hill, whom she had married Apr. 8, 1789. A newspaper, "The American" had this notice in the issue of June 22, 1830,—"Ezra Eddy of Taunton in his 76th year married Silence Hill, widow, aged 79. They were married at Taunton."

Ezra Eddy lived all his life in Norton and Taunton. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and also in the war of 1812. His service follows:

Ezra Eddy, Norton. Private, Capt. George Makepeace's co., Col. John Dagget's regt.; service, 25 days; company marched Dec. 8, 1776 on an alarm at Rhode Island; also, Capt. Israel Trow's co., Col. John Dagget's regt.; entered service Jan. 12, 1778; discharged March 31, 1778; service, 2 mos. 20 days; company drafted to serve for 3 months from Jan. 1, 1778, under Gen. Spencer at Rhode Island; also, Capt. Seth Smith's co., Col. Isaac Dean's (4th Bristol Co.) regt.; enlisted Aug. 1, 1780; discharged Aug. 7, 1780; service, 9 days, on the alarm at Rhode Island of Aug. 1, 1780.

In the war of 1812 he was a private in Capt. Cushman's Co.

Ezra bought and sold land several times. In 1802 he sold to William Eddy of Norton, yeoman, a piece of land whose bounds were Elijah Eddy's land, Mary Keith, Abiel Eddy. Besides the land he sold ⅛ part of the cellar and 4/8th and 3/6th of ⅛th part of the great room. This deed was signed by wife Ruth and witnessed by John and Hannah Eddy. One other deed is of interest. Just before his second marriage he sold to Silence Hill of Norton, widow woman . . . during her lifetime, . . . one undivided half of my homestead farm where I now live and ½ of the buildings. This is dated May 1, 1830. He married her in the following month. (B.C.D. 129.184).

She outlived him. After his death she refused administration on his estate. On the records of Norton there is a marriage of a Silence Eddy on Nov. 3, 1834, to Ephraim Dean. It is possible that Silence married again. Ezra Eddy had no children. At the time of the 1790 census his household consisted of two males over 16, and one female.

9384 Abiathar Millard (Hannah Eddy, Eleazar, John of T), b. June 22, 1744, at Pawling, N. Y.; d. in 1811 in Orleans Co., N. Y.; m. Tabitha Hopkins; dau. of Ebenezer Hopkins. She was b. Oct. 16, 1745, probably in Conn.

Children:

i Abiathar Millard, b. May 6, 1762 ii Tabitha Millard, b. Mar. 4, 1765.
iii Lydia Millard, b. Oct. 14, 1768.
iv Huldah Millard, b. Mar. 5, 1773.
v Sarah Millard, b. Jan. 18, 1775.
vi Olive Millard, b. May 5, 1778.
vii Phebe Millard, b. Aug. 12, 1781; m. Nathaniel Fillmore. Their son, Millard Fillmore, b. in Locke Twsp., Feb. 7, 1800; d. Mar. 8, 1874, was President of the United States.
viii Jesse Millard, b. Oct. 6, 1784.
ix Almon H. Millard, b. Apr. 19, 1788.

9386 Elisha Eddy (Eleazar, Eleazar, John of T), b. Aug. 24, 1736, Preston, Conn. (V.R.); d. probably at Hoosic, New York; m. Bersheba Pierce, Nov. 10, 1763, at Preston, Conn. (V.R.). Like so many others of this branch of the family, Elisha learned the trade of a carpenter or joiner as those more skilled were often called. He was a soldier on the Crown Point expedition in the French and Indian War. He was at Camp William Henry and was reported ill at Fort Edward. His service follows:

(Vol. XCIV, p. 190; Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives). Elisha Eddy appears on a Descriptive List of Capt. John Clap's Co., Col. Joseph Dwight's Regt., raised for the expedition against Crown Point under John Winslow, Commander-in-Chief. Age, 20. Birthplace,—Preston. Residence, Canterbury. Occupation, Laborer. Company returned as mustered by Byfield Lyde, Commissary of Musters, in a certificate dated Boston, May 8, 1756.

(Vol. XCIV, p. 319). Elisha Eddy appears on a Descriptive List of Capt. John Clap's Co., Col. Dwight's Regt., dated July 26, 1756,—Camp at Fort Edward Station—Not given,—Age, 20. Occupation,—Laborer. Birthplace,—Preston. Residence, Canterbury. Joined from Capt. Howard's Co., Col. Tho. Clap's Reg't. and from the town of Bridgwater. Remarks: Reported Enlisted.

(Vol. XCIV, p. 534). Elisha Edy appears on a Muster Roll of Capt. John Clap's Co., Col.—Not given—Regt., mustered according to a return dated Oct. 11, 1756, by Henry Leddel, Muster-Master-

General of the Provincial Army raised for an expedition against Crown Point. Quality,—Private. Remarks: Reported sick at Fort Edward.

(Vol. XCIV, p. 448). Elisha Edy appears on a Muster Roll of Capt. John Clap's Co., Col. Joseph Dwight's Regt., mustered by Henry Leddel, Muster-Master General of the Provincial Army, (raised for an expedition against Crown Point)—according to a return dated Camp at Fort William Henry, Oct. 11, 1756. Quality,—Private. Remarks: Reported sick at Fort Edward.

(Vol. XCV, p. 36). Elisha Edy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Feb. 4, 1757, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. John Clap, Jr. Quality, Private. Residence, Bridg w (Bridgewater). Entered service, April 22. Served until Nov. 24. Year not given both endorsed 1756. Length of service, 31 weeks. Remarks: Endorsed, on Crown Point Expedition.

(Conn. Hist. Soc. Coll., Vol. II, p. 334). Elisha Eddy's name appears on Muster Rolls of the French and Indian War. "(Copied from Ens. Benjamin Hayward's Diary) Capt. Putnam's men Dr. to Capt. Barry," Elisha Eddy.

(Coll. of N. Y. Hist. Soc., Vol. XXIV, p. 238). Elisha Eddy's name is on the Muster Roll of New York Provincial Troops Raised in 1760 in County Suffolk, (Long Island). Enlistment, April 29, 1760, age 23, from Conn. Joyner (joiner).

In the Registry of Deeds in Preston, Conn. (Vol. IX, X, and XI) Elisha Eddy's name appears in several transactions during the years 1782 and 1784. It is probable that soon after this he left Preston and settled in Hoosac, New York, as the 1790 Census gives Elisha Eddy living there with a family of two males over 16, three under 16, and two females.

Children (names not known):

9388 Ephraim Eddy (Obadiah, Eleazar, John of T), b. Nov. 17, 1744, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.); m. June 25, 1767, at Norton, Rachel Tucker. She was born Jan. 9, 1741, and died Jan. 18, 1845, at the age of 104 years, 9 days, at Norton (V.R.). She died at the almshouse and the town voted her a "pair of grave-stones" because of her great age.

Ephraim served in the Revolutionary War. His service was as follows:

Ephraim Eddy, Norton. Private, Capt. George Makepeace's co., Col. John Dagget's regt.; service 10 days; company marched Dec. 8, 1776, on an alarm at Rhode Island; also, Capt. Isaac Hodges's co., Col. George Williams's regt.; service between Sept. 25, 1777, and Oct. 31, 1777, 26 days, on a secret expedition; roll sworn to at Norton; also, Capt. John Allen's co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's regt.; entered service July 27, 1780; discharged July 30, 1780; service 6 days, travel included, at Rhode Island on an alarm; regiment detached from Bristol Co. militia for 6 days' service; also, Capt. Seth Smith's co., Col. Isaac Dean's (4th Bristol Co.) regt.; enlisted Aug. 1, 1780; discharged Aug. 7, 1780; service, 9 days, on the alarm at Rhode Island of Aug. 1, 1780.

When the 1790 census was taken he was a resident of Norton with a family of two males over 16, and two females.

Children, b. in Norton (V.R.):

9490 Lois Eddy, b. Sept. 22, 1767.
9491 Rachel Eddy, b. Aug. 24, 1769.
9492 Ephraim Eddy, b. Feb. 16, 1772. He may be the one whose widow lived in Randolph, Vt., with three children.

9389 James Eddy (Obadiah, Eleazar, John of T), b. Jan. 12, 1746, Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. Dec. 8, 1815, at Randolph, Vt. (V.R.); m. Sarah Newton; b. June 9, 1759; d. Nov. 10, 1834, at Randolph, Vt. (Family Records). He is buried in the cemetery in East Bethel, Vt. The inscription on his stone is as follows:

In memory of Mr. James Eddy, who died Dec. 8th, 1815 aged 67 years. (Note: The stone would make birth date 1747 or 1748.)

Refuse me not this little spot
My weary limbs to rest
Till I shall rise.

The stone erected to Sarah Eddy, the daughter, bears this Inscription,

Sarah Eddy died Nov., 1855, age 67 years.
Relatives, Friends, as you pass by
As you are now so once was I
As I am now so you must be Prepare for death and follow me.

He was a Revolutionary soldier. (Note. The compiler has not been able to pick out from the various James Eddys, who fought, the service of this James, with any degree of certainty. He is probably the one who lived in Keene, N. H., and served from there. But there is no question of the fact of his being a soldier, for his granddaughter is now living and she knows from statements of her father, that his father was in the army. Ed.)

In 1790 when the census was taken, James Eddy was living in Randolph, Orange Co., Vt., with one male over 16, and three females in his family.

Children, b. in Randolph, Vt. (V.R.); also given in a Bible in the possession of Will E. Eddy of Mentor, Ohio:

9493 Sarah Eddy, b. Jan. 19, 1789; d. Nov. 24, 1855, at Bethel, Vt. (V.R.). Unmar.
9494 Lois Eddy, b. Mar. 21, 1791; d. Jan. 15, 1867 (Bible Rec.). Unmar.
+9495 Reuben Eddy, b. May 12, 1793.
9496 Elam Eddy, b. Mar. 25, 1795; d. Jan. 1867, (Bible Rec.). Unmar. (The vital record in Randolph gives this name as Ellen.) He was a soldier in War of 1812.
9497 Ephraim Eddy, b. May 25, 1797; d. Jan. 28, 1823, at Randolph, Vt. (V.R.). He is buried in the East Bethel Cemetery. He lived in Albany, N. Y. Unmar.
9498 Rachel Eddy, b. Sept. 6, 1800; d. July 25, 1827 (V.R.). She was engaged to be married when she died.
+9499 Ezra Eddy, b. Aug. 17, 1805.

9390 Obadiah Eddy (Obadiah, Eleazar, John of T), b. Mar. 10, 1751, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. May 24, 1826, at Woodford, Vt., age 75 (V.R.), and buried in Watershill Cemetery. He married Phebe Prouty who died Nov. 27, 1821, aged 75 at Woodford, Vt., and is buried in Watershill Cemetery (V.R.).

When he was seven years old, he was apprenticed to learn a trade. He became a worker in iron. When the Revolutionary War broke out he enlisted. His service which began with a march to Boston when the first call came, was as follows:

Obadiah Eddy, Taunton. Private, Capt. John King's co., Col. Timothy Walker's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 3, 1775; service, 3 mos. 5 days; also, company return dated Oct. 6, 1775; also, order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money dated Roxbury, Nov. 27, 1775.

Obadiah Eddy, Taunton. Private, Capt. Ichabod Leonard's 6th (Taunton) co., Col. George Williams's regt.; service, 7 days; company marched to Warren, R. I., via Rehoboth, on the alarm at Rhode Island of Dec. 8, 1776; also, Capt. Ichabod Leonard's co., Col. Abiel Mitchel's regt.; commanded by Lieut. Col. James Williams, Brig. Gen. Godfrey's (Bristol Co.) brigade; service, 8 days; company marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I., on the alarm of Aug. 1, 1780.

Soon after the war he went to southern Vermont. "The first inhabitants of Woodford to take the freeman's oath were—Caleb More, Obed Eddy, Zadok Pierce, etc.; also;—the first representative chosen was Obed Eddy, who utterly refused to serve, in consequence of which no suffrages were given for Governor" etc. (Hemingway's Gazetteer of Vermont History in Vol. I, p. 248).

When the census of 1790 was taken Obadiah was in Bennington, Vt., with a household consisting of three males over 16, five under 16, and one female. At the time of the census of 1800, Obadiah Edee was in Bennington and his family consisted of one boy under 10, two boys between 10 and 16, and a male over 45, one girl under 10, and a female over 45. When his estate was settled Oct. 5, 1825, Phebe, "daughter and heir of Obadiah, late of Woodford, Vt., was made administrator with Joseph Hollister as surety." Ebenezer Temple and John Knapp were the appraisers (Bennington, Vt. Probate Rec.).

Children (not in order of birth, and taken from a list among the papers of the late Dr. Charles Eddy which are now in the possession of Mr. Byron Barnes Horton of Sheffield, Penn.):

9500 Otis Eddy, b. about 1771; d. Oct. 22, 1794, at Woodford, Vt., aged 22: buried in Watershill Cem., at Woodford (V.R.).
+9501 Obadiah Eddy, b. about 1772.
9502 Reuel Eddy.
+9503 Frederick Eddy.
+9504 Eleazar Eddy, b. abt. 1788.
9505 James Eddy.
9506 William Eddy.
9507 Phebe Eddy, d. before Apr. 22, 1865, when Eleazar Eddy, her brother, declined administration on her estate and Obadiah Eddy was appointed (Bennington Vt. Probate Rec.).
Probably Bildad Eddy, who m. Roxana . . . and lived in Shaftsbury, Vt.

9391 Considerit Eddy (Obadiah, Eleazar, John of T), b. . . .; d. . . .; m. . . . After leaving Norton, he settled in Hardwick, Mass. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He enlisted under the name Consider Eddy. His service follows:

Consider Eady. Capt. Barnabas Sears's co.; company receipt for ammunition dated Dorchester Camp, Feb. 15, 1776.

Consider Eddy, Hardwick. Private, Capt. Silas Cobb's co., Col. Timothy Walker's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 2, 1775; service, 3 mos. 7 days; also, company return dated Oct. 6, 1775.

9393 Jonathan Eddy (Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. Jan. 28, 1750, at Mansfield, Mass.; bapt. May 15, 1763, Norton, Mass.; d. in 1808; m. Rebecca Hicks. According to the Memoir of Colonel Jonathan Eddy, he was lost in the Bay of Fundy. In 1848 his wife was living in Sackville, New Brunswick. They had no children. His service in the Revolutionary War was as follows:

Jonathan Eddy, St. Johns. Private, Capt. Reuben Dyer's co.; enlisted June 24, 1777; discharged July 18, 1777; service, 24 days; company raised between Mt. Desert and Machias for an expedition to St. Johns, N. S.

Jonathan Eddy. Courier; enlisted Jan. 1, 1778; discharged June 1, 1778; service, 5 mos., under Col. John Allan, Commander-in-Chief of Eastern Indian department in the defence of Machias; also, enlisted June 1, 1778; discharged July 18, 1778; service, 1 mo. 18 days, under Col. John Allan; said Eddy reported as "employed in Indian business for going expresses, etc.;" also, enlisted Aug. 8, 1778; discharged Dec. 1, 1778; service, 3 mos. 22 days, under Col. John Allan; said Eddy reported as "employed in Indian business for going expresses, etc.;" also, Courier; pay roll dated Machias, June 1, 1779, of sundry persons who continued in service for defence of Machias, agreeable to order of Council of Nov. 11, 1778, and others employed in the Indian business under Col. John Allan; entered service Dec. 1, 1778; discharged Dec. 16, 1778; service, 16 days, probably in Indian affairs with Capt. John Preble.

9394 William Eddy (Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. Aug. 16, 1752; bapt. May 15, 1763, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. May 1778, killed by a shot from a British Man-o-war (Eddy Gen. of 1881). The Memoir of Colonel Jonathan Eddy states that he was a lieutenant in the Continental Army, and was killed by a shot from a British frigate while in an open boat near Eastport, Maine, on May 3, 1778. He married Olive Morse; b. 1752. She married (2) Hezekiah King. She lived in Nova Scotia with George King, her son by her second husband. She was alive in 1848 at the age of 96. William Eddy's service as a soldier follows:

William Eddy, St. Johns. Private, Capt. Reuben Dyar's co.; enlisted June 24, 1777; discharged July 18, 1777; service, 24 days; company raised between Mt. Desert and Machias for an expedition to St. Johns, N. S.

"Sept. 27, 1777, a flag of truce was granted to bring from Nova Scotia the family of William Eddy."

Children (Eddy Gen. 1881, p. 179):

+9508 JOSEPH EDDY, b. Oct. 1766, at Sackville, Nova Scotia, now New Brunswick.
+9509 WILLIAM EDDY, b. July 1, 1775, at Sackville, Nova Scotia.
+9510 MARY EDDY, b. . . . , 1778.
9511 LAWRENCE EDDY (?) (No proof of this child).

9395 Ibrook Eddy (Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. Jan. 9, 1754, at Mansfield, Mass.; bapt. May 15, 1763; d. Jan. 6, 1833 or 1834, at Eddington, Maine; m. Nov. 2, 1780, Lona Pratt; dau. of Samuel Pratt and Experience (White) Pratt of Mansfield, Mass. She was born May 6, 1761, at Norton, Mass. and died at Eddington, Maine, in 1802. He married (2) Celia (Wilde) Coggeshall of Taunton on April 17, 1806 (Taunton, V.R.). She died May 23, 1842.

He went to Nova Scotia with his father in 1764, and was one of the refugees from that Province during the Revolutionary War, for which he received a grant of land in Maine in that section now called Eddington. He was Deputy Sheriff in Bristol County, Mass., and resided in Mansfield until about 1785, when he went to Maine. His service is as follows:

Ibrook Edey. Sergeant, Capt. Isaac Hodge's co., Col. John Hatheway's regt.; company return dated Little Compton, April 10, 1779; statement affixed made by Israel Fisher of Warwick, one of said company, states that service was for 5 or 6 mos. at Rhode Island.

Ibrook Eddy. Private, Capt. Robert Swan's co., Col. Benjamin Gill's regt.; service, 24 days; company marched to Bristol, R. I., April 18, 1777. Roll dated Stoughton.

Ibrook Eddy. Sergeant, Capt. Isaac Hodges's co., Col. John Hathaway's regt.; enlisted March 24, 1779; discharged April 17, 1779; service, 25 days, at Rhode Island. Roll sworn to at Taunton.

According to the census of 1790, Ibrook Eddy was a resident of Eddy Township in Hancock County, Me., with a household consisting of one male over 16, three under 16, and four females.

Children (Family Records):

9512 Jonathan Eddy, b. Jan. 31, 1781, at Mansfield, Mass.; d. young.
9513 Experience Eddy, b. June 5, 1782, at Mansfield, Mass.; d. July 10, 1791.
+9514 Ware Eddy, b. May 3, 1784.
+9515 Nancy Eddy, b. Aug. 8, 1786, at Eddington, Maine.
9516 Rachel Eddy, b. Feb. 22, 1788, at Eddington, Me.; m. Moses Collins.

+9521 Experience Eddy, b. Apr. 19, 1800, at Eddington, Me.

9396 Elias Eddy (Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. Nov. 30, 1751, at Mansfield, Mass.; bapt. May 15, 1763, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.); d. at Eddington, Me. He married Mary Savels of Sharon, Mass.; dau. of Edward Bridge Savels. She owned property in Sharon, Mass., which her children inherited. In 1790 when the United States Census was taken Elias Eddy was in Eddington, Me., with a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, and three females. Like his father and all his brothers he, too, was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. His service follows:

Elias Eddy, Norton. List of men mustered June 29, 1778, by James Leonard, Muster Master for Bristol co., for 6 months' service at Rhode Island; Col. John Daggett's regt.; also, Private, Capt. Joseph Cole's co., Col. John Jacob's regt.; enlisted June 24, 1778; service, 6 mos. 9 days, at Rhode Island; enlistment expired Jan. 1, 1779.

Elias Eddy. Private Capt. Israel Trow's co., Col. John Hathaway's regt.; service, 21 days, in April and May, 1777, at Rhode Island; company raised in Bristol Co.

Elias Eddy. Private, Capt. Abiel Clap's co., Col. Carpenter's (Bristol Co.) regt.; service, 34 days; company marched to Rhode Island July 24, 1777.

Elias Eddy. Private, Capt. Ichabod Wade's (Light Infantry) co., Col. George William's regt.; service, 11 days; company stationed at Tiverton, R. I., Oct. 7, 1777. Roll sworn to at Rehoboth.

Elias Eddy. Capt. Isaac Hodges's co., Col. George Williams's regt.; service between Sept. 25, 1777, and Oct. 31, 1777, 26 days, on a secret expedition. Roll sworn to at Norton.

Children (order of birth unknown), b. in Eddington, Me.:

9522 Edward Eddy.
9523 Experience Eddy, m. Wright Stockwell; lived in Hamden, Me.
9524 Lavinia Eddy, m. Nathaniel Hinckley, lived in Galena, Davis Co., Ill.
9525 Elizabeth Eddy, m. Elisha Bedell, lived in Lunenburg, Essex Co., Vt.
9526 Mary Eddy, m. Abraham Bedell, lived in Jefferson, N. H.
+9527 William Eddy, b. July 5, 1793, at Eddington, Me.
+9528 Oliver Curtis Eddy, b. July 25, 1808, at Eddington, Me.

9397 Abigail Eddy (Oliver, Eleazar, John of T), m. Nov. 24, 1776, Jonathan Barney, who was b. Apr. 17, 1752, at Taunton; d. Sept. 10, 1826; son of Jonathan and Abigail (Dean) Barney. He was a corporal in Col. Timothy Walker's Regt.

Children (incomplete list):

i Oliver Barney, b. 1777; d. 1839.
ii Jonathan Barney.

9398 Oliver Eddy (Oliver, Eleazar, John of T), b. about 1767 (age given at time of enlistment in 1781, was 14 years). Nothing more is known about him except his service in the war which is as follows:

Oliver Eddy. Descriptive list of men raised agreeable to resolve of Dec. 2, 1780, returned as received by John Burt, at Taunton, May 22, 1781, to be conducted to Springfield and delivered to Col. Shepard; age, 14 yrs.; stature, 5 ft. 1 in.; complexion, dark; occupation, laborer; engaged for the town of Easton; engaged April 16, 1781; term, 3 years.

Oliver Eaddy. Receipt dated Easton, April 16, 1781, for bounty paid said Eaddy by Capt. Ephraim Burr, in behalf of Capt. James Perry, to serve in the Continental Army during the war.

9399 Oded Eddy (Oded, Joseph, John of T), b. Feb. 28, 1760, in Taunton (Family Rec.); d. July 31, 1825. He m. Dec. 13, 1781, Wealthy Pratt (Family Rec.). The Taunton V.R. give the date as Dec. 7, 1780. She was the daughter of Paul^5 Pratt (Paul^4, Samuel^3, Samuel^2, Matthew^1) and his wife Marcia (Hoskins). She was b. July 14, 1765; d. Mar. 29, 1820. She was a very large woman. There was not a seat large enough for her in the church, and one was made for her use by the side of the pulpit.

As was stated in the last chapter under Oded Eddy, it is not clear which of the items giving the service of Oded Eddy refer to the father and which to the son but it would seem that the following referred to the son, since at this date the father was not a private. (NOTE. It is just possible that Obed is short for Obadiah and that this record refers to Obadiah, son of Obadiah, who was also a soldier. The name is spelled "Obed" instead of "Oded.")

Obed Eaddy, Taunton. Private, Capt. Josiah King's co.; marched Sept. 29, 1777; discharged Oct. 29, 1777; service, 1 mo. 2 days; company marched from Taunton under command of Col. George Williams on a secret expedition to Rhode Island.

Some time between 1781, when Oded and Wealthy signed a deed in Taunton, and 1790, when the census was taken, they left Taunton and settled in Cheshire, Mass. It was probably as early as 1782. In 1790 he was in Adams, Berkshire Co., Mass., with a family consisting of one male over 16, two under 16, and two females. About 1796 he left Mass. and settled in Deerfield, N. Y. Here he studied for the ministry, was ordained and became the pastor of the church there.

(Bristol Co. Deeds, 71.171). Oded Eddy of Taunton, "Husbandman and Weltha, wife of Oded and one of the daughters of Paul Pratt, the second, late of Taunton, Dec'd, sold to Jonathan Pratt, yeoman, . . . Mercy Pratt, daughter of Paul Pratt and Mehitable Pratt . . . being the land set off to Weltha in Paul Pratt's land," . . . Dated, Dec. 1781 and signed by Oded and Welthy Eddy. Welthy signed with a mark.

Children (Family Rec.):

9530 WEALTHY EDDY, b. May 31, 1788, in Berkshire Co., at Cheshire, Mass.; d. Feb. 3, 1843, at the old homestead in New York. Unmar.
+9531 ODED EDDY, b. Sept. 12, 1790, at Adams, Mass.
9532 ANNA EDDY, b. Oct. 1802, at Deerfield, N. Y.; m. AMASA ROOT.

9400 Paul Eddy (Paul, Joseph, John of T), b. about 1747, at Taunton, Mass.; d. Mar. 27, 1843, aged 96 (Taunton V.R.); m. Dec. 9, 1773, Hannah Macomber at Taunton (V.R.). She was the daughter of John and Mary Macomber, (B.C.D., 64.321, and 64.156). After the death of his father, Paul Eddy, his mother Elizabeth (Hodges) Eddy, married Benjamin Wilbour of Raynham. They applied for guardianship of the two boys, Paul and Apollos (B.C. Prob. Rec.). They were mentioned in the will of their grandfather, Joseph Eddy, from whom they received the following bequest:

I Give and Bequeath to my Two Grand sons Paul and Polas Eddy sons of my son Paul Eddy Late Deceasd About fifty acres of Land in sd Taunton and is ye same Lands on which sd son Paul Lived before his Decease & is to Bound beginning at ye north east corner of James Boldreys Homestead and to Run from Thence a straight line to Come with in 30 foot South of ye South East Corner of my homestead as ye fence now stands; (and this thirty foot wide between ye Land I Give sd Grand Children and what I shall Give in this will to my son Palatiah is to be an open way for my Children & there Legal Representatives to pass from time to time and at all times for Ever) and from sd South East corner of my homestead to Bound westwardly by a path Leading over a plain Called Babbits Plain to a heap of stones on ye East side of sd Path Then Bounding with Lands of Joseph Leonard Seth owen & James Boldrey to ye first Bounds mentioned: They ye sd Grand sons to have ye same in Equal halfs to them there heirs & assigns for Ever to hold in severalty—But in Case Either of sd Grand sons should Die before ye age of 21 years Leaving isue Lawfully Begotten of his Body ye Surviving Grand son to have & hold ye same his heirs & assigns for Ever; But it is to be understood That my son Pelatiah is to have ye Improvement of sd Premises untill ye time shall or may Come That sd Eldest Grand son shall arive . . . years Provided he make no Strip or wast by Improvement:

Paul Eddy was a farmer. He lived all his life at Taunton. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. Enlisting as a private, he soon became a corporal with the following service:

Paul Eddy. Private, Elisha Barney's (10th) co., Col. George Williams's (3rd Bristol Co.) regt.; service, 16 days; company marched to Warren, R. I., via Rehoboth, on the alarm at Rhode Island of Dec. 8, 1776; roll dated Taunton; also, Corporal, Capt. Pelatiah Eddy's co., Col. John Hathaway s (Bristol Co.) regt.; enlisted March 23, 1779; discharged April 15, 1779; service, 24 days; company detached from militia and marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I.; roll dated Taunton; also, Private, Capt. Pelatiah Eddy's co., Col. Abiel Mitchel's regt.; commanded by Lieut. Col. James Williams, Brig. Gen. Godfrey's (Bristol Co.) brigade; service, 8 days; company marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I. on the alarm of Aug. 1, 1780.

The following abstracts from the deeds on file in the Bristol Co. Registry of Deeds are of interest.

(B.C.D. 64.156). Paul Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, for $40 and Mary Macomber of Taunton for $25 sold to Ab. White of Norton . . . two lots or rights in estate of late John Macomber of Taunton, dec'd, and same as Paul purchased of Job Godfrey and Mary Macomber; one right in aforesaid estate "left me by dividend and her rights in dwelling house of said John Macomber and right of widow's thirds." This deed is signed by Paul Eddy and Hannah Eddy, wife of Paul, Mary Macomber and Sarah Owen, wife of Seth Owen who signed off all right of dower. Dated July 6, 1785, and witnessed by James Godfrey, James Stacey and Seth Owen.

(B.C.D., 81.101). Paul Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, sold to Stephen Leonard of Taunton . . . bounds Benjamin Leonard's Land. It was on the road from Benj. Leonard's to Paul Eddy's. This deed was witnessed by Luther Lincoln, Oliver Reed and James Eddy.

(B.C.D., 105.409). Paul Eddy of Taunton "to Paul Eddy Jr.—35 acres which have for bounds land of Asahel Eddy and the road from Benjamin Leonard's to Boston Road, etc.—being my homestead farm." Dated Dec. 30, 1818.

When the census for the United States was taken in 1790, Paul Eddy was in Taunton, with a household consisting of one male over 16, four under 16, and five females. On Nov. 1, 1816, Paul Eddy refused to administer on the estate of his grandson, James Eddy (Bristol Co. Probate).

Children, b. in Taunton, Mass. (V.R.):

9533 Lurany Eddy, b. Apr. 11, 1775; m. Jan. 19, 1800, Benjamin Leonard, 3rd, of Taunton (V.R.).
+9534 Paul Eddy, b. May 16, 1777.
+9535 Barney Eddy, b. Nov. 25, 1778.
9536 James Eddy, b. July 12, 1781; d. Aug. 3, 1803, at Taunton (V.R.). Unmar. He witnessed a deed in 1799 (B.C.D. 81.101).

9538 Betsey Eddy, b. Oct. 18, 1785; d. Nov. 15, 1785, at Taunton (V.R.).
9539 Polly Eddy, b. Oct. 18, 1785 (twin).
9540 Delly Eddy, b. Dec. 26, 1786.
9541 Levi Eddy, b. July 6, 1789; d. Apr. 25, 1808, at Taunton, aged 19 (V.R.).
+9542 Rufus Eddy, b. Jan. 8, 1793.
9543 Nancy Eddy, b. May 23, 1795; m. Dec. 25, 1833, Henry Lees, at Taunton (V.R.).

9401 Apollos Eddy (Paul, Joseph, John of T), b. Mar. 1, 1752, at Taunton, Mass.; d. Feb. 14, 1840, at Taunton, aged 86 yrs. (V.R.). He published his intentions to marry Martha Woodward of Taunton on Jan. 14, 1775 (Norton V.R.), and they were married Feb. 23, 1775, at Taunton (V.R.). She was b. Apr. 20, 1757; d. Apr. 9, 1847. She was daughter of Isaac Woodward and his wife, (probably Sarah). Apollos was a shoemaker by trade. He and wife and children were members of the Friends Church of Swansea. He lived all his life on his farm between Norton and Taunton. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, serving in Isaac Thayer's Co. which did duty in and around Boston Harbor. His service follows:

Apolas (Apollos) Eady, Taunton. Private, Capt. Isaac Thayer's co., Col. Thomas Marshall's regt.; enlisted Aug. 10, 1776; service, 3 mos. 22 days.

He was a Revolutionary Pensioner (Hist. of Taunton, p. 470). When the U. S. Census was taken in 1790, he was in Taunton with a household consisting of one male over 16, three under 16, and three females. Paul, the father of Apollos, died when Apollos was an infant. His mother married again. When his grandfather, Joseph Eddy, died, he left property to his grandson, "Apollos Eddy, son of my son Paul, dec'd." (See under Paul, for terms of will.) So it became necessary for a guardian to be appointed. Benjamin Wilbour of Raynham and Elizabeth, his wife, were appointed guardians of Apollos Eddy, "a minor under 14 years, son of Paul Eddy, dec'd, late of Taunton," April 30, 1759 (B. C. Probate 126.63).

During his long life Apollos Eddy bought and sold land quite often. Many of these deeds contain items of genealogical interest, as well as showing the location of the homestead and property of himself and his children. The following are abstracts from these.

(B.C.D. 77.166). "Isaac Woodward and wife Martha "sold to Apollos Eddy, yeoman, of Taunton, . . . two undivided third parts of 28 acres . . . the home farm of Apollas . . . meaning to convey what Apollas and I purchased of Jesse Jones." The bounds mention the land of Nathaniel Field, Daniel Leonard, John Thayer, Jeremiah Bassett, Ephraim Woodward . . . . This was dated Aug. 16, 1800, and witnessed by Apollos Eddy, Jr. and James Williams.

On this same day, Apollos sold this same piece "to my son Apollos Eddy, nailer." Apollos and his wife Martha signed the deed and it was witnessed by Isaac Woodward and James Williams (B.C.D. 77.166).

(B.C.D. 68.46). Apollos Eddy, husbandman, and wife Martha sold "one-half of the land which they have in common with Seth Owen and Sarah his wife, . . . on the easterly side of the road that leadeth from the dwelling house of Caleb Woodward to Taunton Green adjacent to Prospect Hill Pond . . . about 50 acres." Dated Apr. 28, 1789. Witnessed by Elizabeth Wheeler and Apollas Leonard.

(B.C.D. 92.456). "Isaac Woodward of Norton, yeoman and Apollos Eddy of Taunton, cordwainer and Martha, wife of Apollos Eddy and daughter of Isaac Woodward, late of Norton dec'd, sold to William Makepeace of Raynham, 5 acres in Raynham" . . . bounds mention "Wm. Makepeace, Seth Bolton and Prospect Hill Pond" . . . Dated Feb. 3, 1789. Witnessed by Prudence Leonard and Apollos Leonard.

(B.C.D. 71.293). "Isaac Woodward of Norton, Apollos Eddy, yeoman, and Martha his wife, Seth Owen, husbandman, and Sarah his wife, all of Taunton, sold two tracts of land partly in Taunton and partly in Raynham." Dated Jan. 9, 1792. Witnessed by John West, Apollos Leonard, Abigail Macomber, Asa Barney.

(B.C.D. 102.279). Apollos Eddy and William Eddy both of Taunton, yeomen, agreed about a water privilege with Asa Arnold of Norton, Levi Woodward of Norton, Lincoln Woodward and Abiathar Wetherell in 1817.

(B.C.D. 109.289). This deed is of interest because it contains the signatures of the three Apollos Eddys. Apollos Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, sold land to Jeremiah Bassett, Oct. 17, 1816. Deed was signed by Apollos and Martha, his wife, and witnessed by Apollos Eddy, Jr. and Apollos Eddy, 3rd.

(B.C.D. 104.516). Apollos Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, for $170 sold "to my son, Apollos Eddy, the second, of Taunton, yeoman, land in Taunton about 13½ acres, land I now own belonging to the Jones farm . . . bounded by the road leading from the dwelling house of Nathaniel Field, Jr. to John Thayer's, and west on Abner Thayer . . . ". Dated Oct. 3, 1818. Apollos and Martha signed. Apollos Eddy 3rd and Betsey Eddy witnessed the deed.

(B.C.D. 117.14). Apollos Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, sold to "Barzillai Eddy for $125 . . . 10 acres in Taunton all land I purchased from Zephaniah Hodges, S. Hodges; O. Hodges, P. Hodges, Leonard White and Lydia."

(B.C.D.). Apollos Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, sold to "Barzillai Eddy of Taunton, mechanic, . . . land in the northerly part of Taunton with the barn and corn barn . . . near Abner Thayer's land and John Eddy's." Dated June 30, 1828. Signed by Apollos and Martha. Witnessed by Sally Eddy and Joseph Wilbour.

At his death his sons, William Eddy, 2nd and Barzillai Eddy, refused administration on "the estate of our father Apollos Eddy" (B. C. Probate) and they petitioned that Stephen White should be appointed administrator. The accounts show that Martha Eddy survived her husband and on May 19, 1841, her thirds were set off to her. Apollos had sold to his children and others so much of his land during his lifetime that there was very little left. From the following deed it is plain that Apollos and Martha spent the last days of their lives with their daughter Betsey.

(B.C.D.). Apollas Eddy of Taunton to Betsy Woodward, wife of William Woodward of Taunton . . . the dwelling house, adjoining the house I now live in and on the east end of my dwelling house and land reserving to me and my wife during our natural lives privileges in said house and lands. Dated Apr. 1826.

(B.C.D. 136.112). Apollos Eddy of Taunton, yeoman to "Betsy Woodward, widow-woman, one acre . . . bounds are Apollos Eddy, David Harvey, . . . but reserving use of said acre during my and my wife's lifetime." Dated Apr. 19, 1832. This time Apollos signed with a cross. Cephas Eddy was one of the witnesses.

Children, b. in Taunton or Raynham, Mass.:

+9544 APOLLOS EDDY (called Apollos, Jr. and Apollos, 2nd).
+9545 WILLIAM EDDY (called William Eddy, 2nd, to distinguish him from William, son of Elijah Eddy), b. May 9, 1781.
+9546 BARZILLAI EDDY, b. Aug. 7, 1784.
+9547 ELIZABETH EDDY (called Betsy).
9548 MARTHA EDDY (often called Patty), b. Apr. 5, 1789.

9402 Joseph Eddy (Pelatiah, Joseph, John of T), b. before July 22, 1758 (Will of Joseph Eddy). Very little is known about this Joseph Eddy. He is mentioned in the will of his grandfather and he may be the Joseph Eddy who appears as a witness on a deed where the name is signed Joseph Eddy, Jr. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, where he became Corporal. His service was as follows:

Joseph Eddy. Private, Capt. Jonathan Shaw's co., Col. George Williams's regt.; service, 1 mo. 1 day; company marched from Raynham, Taunton, and Easton, in Sept., 1777, on a secret expedition.

Joseph Eddy. Corporal, Capt. John Shaw's co., Col. Jacob Gerrish's regt. of guards, enlisted Aug. 24, 1778; discharged Dec. 14, 1778; service, 3 mos. 20 days, at Cambridge. Roll dated Raynham.

The Eddy Genealogy of 1881 states that he went East. Whether this means that he went to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick or Maine, has not been ascertained. It is possible that East was a misprint for West and that he and his descendants are lost somewhere west of New England. The Genealogy also states that he had no descendants, but if all trace of Joseph was lost, the truth of this statement could be considered as questionable.

9403 Pelatiah Eddy (Pelatiah, Joseph, John of T), d. after June 27, 1827, when he signed a deed (B.C.D. 125.484); m. Sarah . . . She was probably Sarah White.

He served in the Revolutionary War as a private and marched on an alarm from Taunton to Tiverton, later he served in his father's company. His service follows:

Pelatiah Eddy, Taunton. Private, Capt. Joshua Wilbore's co., Col. Ebenezer Francis's regt.; pay abstract for mileage, etc., to camp and home; credited with 2 days' allowance; warrant allowed in Council Nov. 29, 1776; company drafted from Taunton, Raynham, Easton, Dartmouth, Freetown, Berkley, and Dighton; also, Capt. Ichabod Leonard's co., Col. John Hathaway's regt.; service, 22 days, in April, 1777; company marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I.; also, Capt. Pelatiah Eddy's co., Col. Abiel Mitchel's regt.; commanded by Lieut. Col. James Williams, Brig. Gen Godfrey's (Bristol Co.) brigade; service, 8 days; company marched from Taunton to Tiverton, R. I., on the alarm of Aug. 1, 1780.

In 1790, when the U. S. Census was taken, he was in Taunton with a household consisting of one male over 16, two under 16, and one female. Soon after this, probably in the spring of 1793, he left Taunton and went to Buckland, Mass., where he purchased land of Elijah Thayer. (Franklin Co. Deeds, 11,286.) "Elijah Thayer to Pelatiah Eddy of Buckland, laborer, land in Buckland." Dated July 9, 1793.

The next year he sold the land which he inherited from his father.

(B.C.D. 73.231). "Pelatiah Eddy of Buckland, Co. Hampshire, yeoman, and Abishai Eddy, yeoman, Asahel Eddy, yeoman, and Timothy Eddy, yeoman, all of Taunton and owners of the estate of Capt. Pelatiah Eddy's late of Taunton, dec'd, sold land" . . . Dated Jan. 16, 1794.

After his mother's death he sold off all that he inherited from her (B.C.D. 125.184). "Pelatiah Eddy of Buckland, Franklin Co., yeoman, . . . to Leonard Field . . . one undivided fourth part that was set off to Lydia Eddy, widow of Capt. Pelatiah Eddy, late of Taunton. . . . on the road from David Harvey to Paul Eddy's . . . ". Deed dated June 11, 1827. Signed by Pelatiah and wife Sarah. Witnessed by Joel Woodward and Zebulon Eddy. Acknowledged in Franklin Co.

(B.C.D. 125.566). Pelatiah Eddy of Buckland, Franklin Co. sold "land in Taunton and part of which was set off to Lydia, widow of Pelatiah Eddy of Taunton. Dated 1827. Signed by Pelatiah and Sarah Eddy. Witnessed by Zebulon White and Zebulon Eddy.

Pelatiah Eddy's will on file in Franklin Co. mentions wife Sarah and gives bequests "to my late son, Eli's heirs" $450 when they are of age; and to son, Zebulon, who is made the executor. Dated Sept. 14, 1825.

Children, b. in Taunton:

+9549 ZEBULON EDDY, b. before 1790.
+9550 ELI EDDY, b. before 1790.

9404 Abishai Eddy (Pelatiah, Joseph, John of T), b. Sept. 10, 1761; d. Feb. 28, 1855, Taunton, Mass., aged 93-5-20 (V.R.); m. (1) Abigail . . .; m. (2) Jan. 3, 1786, Mary (or Mercy) White of Taunton (V.R.); dau. of John and Molly White (B.C.D. 87.412).

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and received a pension. His service follows:

Abishai Eddy. Private, Capt. Jacob Haskins's co., Col. John Jacobs's regt.; enlisted June 13, 1778; service, 6 mos. 20 days, at Rhode Island; enlistment to expire Jan. 1, 1779; roll dated Tiverton; also, Capt. Jacob Haskins's co., Col. Abiel Mitchel's regt.; enlisted July 27, 1780; discharged Oct. 31, 1780; service, 3 mos. 6 days; regiment raised to reinforce Continental Army for 3 months.

(Extract from a letter written Apr. 20, 1911, to James Eddy of Taunton, by an uncle:)

"Your great grandfather Eddy was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He was taken prisoner by the British on Long Island and confined in the Old Prison Ship, Jersey, which was anchored in the East River, between New York and Brooklyn. He made his escape and joined Washington in New Jersey. He served as a soldier until the surrender of Cornwallis. I saw him once some 80 years ago. My father paid him a visit and I went with him. The old gentleman was then nearly 90 years of age. I never saw him again and don't know when he died."

When the Census of 1790 was taken he was in Taunton with a household, consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, and two females. With the exception of a short time about 1829, when he lived in Glocester, R. I., he spent his long life in Taunton. He inherited from both his father and mother much property in Taunton which he sold at various times. Most of the deeds were also signed by "wife, Mercy Eddy," but sometimes she signed her name Mary Eddy. He was a farmer but in the later deeds, which he gave, he called himself, "Gentleman." The following abstracts from deeds are of interest:

(B.C.D. 77.376). Abishai Eddy of Taunton, nailer, sold "to Ruth Dean of Taunton, weaver, a piece in the Cedar Swamp . . . 11 great lot, so called on the right of Edward Bobbit, formerly the property of Henry Hodges late of Taunton Dec'd and in the division of his property set off to his son Spencer Hodges, and by him sold to Henry Hodges and which right was conveyed to Abishai Eddy and Timothy White of Taunton." Dated July 18, 1793. Witnessed by John White and Elisha Pierce.

(B.C.D. 80.127). Abishai Eddy of Taunton, Gentleman, sold "to Job Leonard,—land on the road from Paul Eddy's to Noah Willis'"—Apr. 8, 1790. Signed by Abishai and Marcy and witnessed by Barney Eddy and James Eddy.

(B.C.D. 79.72). Abishai Eddy of Taunton, Gentleman, "For $100 sold to Samuel Leonard and Samuel Crocker . . . land now occupied by my mother Lydia Eddy in her right of dower in the estate of my father, her late husband, Pelatiah, dec'd." Dated May 13, 1800 and witnessed by Asahel Eddy and Marcy Eddy. Wife signed as Mary Eddy.

(B.C.D. 87.412). Leonard and Crocker got a judgment against Abishai Eddy and they stated that he had a life estate by courtesy, of 13 acres " . . . near Abishai's house thence by Scadding Pond to land of Solomon Wetherell, exclusive of the wharf . . . thence . . . to Black Pond . . . except the right of dower in the premises of Molly White, widow of John White, and reserving to Timothy White and John White a privilege." Dated July 20, 1807.

(B.C.D. 88.511). "Abishai Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, and Mercy Eddy, my wife, for $400 sold to Daniel Eddy of Taunton . . . 13 acres . . . bounds are a ditch near the dwelling of the late John White . . . Scadding Pond . . . exclusive of the Ore Wharf." . . . etc. Dated June 7, 1808. Signed by Abishai and Mercy Eddy.

(B.C.D. 82.86). Abishai Eddy of Taunton, Gentleman, for $203 sold "to Samuel Leonard and Samuel Croker, merchants—23 acres and dwelling house in Taunton, beginning at a heap of stones adjoining Paul and Asahel Eddy's land . . ." etc. Dated Aug. 20, 1803. Abishai Eddy and wife Mary signed. Paul Eddy was one of the witnesses.

On Apr. 6, 1855 Daniel Pierce of Smithfield, R. I. was appointed "administrator on the estate of Abishai Eddy late of Taunton, dec'd." In the settlement he paid Melitiah White for Mary White $12.50; paid Mercy Wilbour $12.50; paid John B. Teague $30; paid Amanda Makepeace $12.50; paid Susan Ryder $12.50.

Child of Abishai and Abigail (. . .) Eddy:

+9551 Abishai Leonard Eddy, b. Jan. 11, 1784.

Children of Abishai and Marcy (White) Eddy, b. in Taunton (V.R.):

9555 Marcy Eddy, b. May 30, 1793; m. Aug. 17, 1815, Jedidiah Wilbur, son of Jedidiah Wilbur (White Gen.).
9556 Sarah Eddy, b. Feb. 19, 1797; m. Mar. 7, 1814, Gideon Lincoln, son of Samuel Lincoln (White Gen.).
9557 Zebulon Eddy, b. about 1795, prob. died young.
9558 Abigail Eddy, b. Apr. 5, 1800; m. Feb. 18, 1816 (Family Rec.), Charles Wilbur.
9559 Amanda Eddy, b. . . . . 1803; m. Charles Makepeace (White Gen.)

9405 Asahel Eddy (Pelatiah, Joseph, John of T), b. about 1766; d. July 25, 1847, aged 81 at Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); m. Lydia . . . She was living 1832. He lived in Taunton all his life. He was too young for service in the war. When the U. S. Census was taken he was in Taunton with a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, and two females. The Registry of deeds at Taunton contains many transactions by Asahel Eddy. Many are signed by wife, Lydia, with a mark. The following are the only ones of interest, except the one given in the paragraph about Pelatiah Eddy.

(B.C.D., 107.109). Asahel Eddy of Taunton yeoman to "Lydia Eddy, widow, land set off to Lydia as her dower in the real estate of Pelatiah Eddy, dec'd . . . being the same Lydia gave me on Feb. 4, 1811."

(B.C.D., 106.921). Asahel Eddy of Taunton, yeoman, sold to Elijah Eddy, Jr., of Norton, 5 acres near what was Abishai Eddy's land, etc. Signed by Asahel and wife, Lydia. Witnessed by Abishai Eddy and Asahel Eddy, Jr. Dated Jan. 20, 1819.

Another deed in which Asahel Eddy sold land to Wilbur Smith was witnessed by Hannah Eddy and Barney Eddy on June 9, 1825. After his death Abijah Lincoln, David Harvey and Beza Lincoln were the appraisers of his estate and the heirs given were Asahel Eddy, Tilly Lincoln, Lydia Field and Lucy Eddy.

The second account of Leonard Field, the administrator on the estate of Asahel Eddy: "paid Asahel Eddy his distributive share of the personal estate $4.06. Paid Tilly Lincoln her share $4.06. Paid Lydia Field, her share $4.06 and Lucy Eddy her share $4.06, on Aug. 8, 1851.

Children, b. in Taunton, Mass.:

+9560 ASAHEL EDDY, b. Oct. 7, 1785. (NOTE. It is possible that the age given at death was 78–10–1 and not 76–10–1.)
9561 SILENCE EDDY, (called Tilly); m. . . . LINCOLN. She lived to be a very old woman and died in the almshouse at either Taunton or Norton.
+9562 LYDIA EDDY, b. Nov. 1, 1792.
9563 LUCY EDDY, b. about 1796; m. ELIJAH EDDY (See No. 9487).

9406 Timothy Eddy (Pelatiah, Joseph, John of T), m. Apr. 2, 1797, Mary Leonard. He is mentioned as one of the heirs of Capt. Pelatiah Eddy, when he and his brothers, Abishai, Asahel and Pelatiah sold land and when they agreed to the setting off of the thirds of their mother, Lydia

(B.C.D. 73.421). Timothy Eddy, yeoman, "to Asahel Eddy and Joseph Leonard, yeoman, of Taunton 21 acres in three pieces. Bounds mentioned were Asahel Eddy's land, Abishai Eddy's land, widow of Pelatiah's land, brother Felatiah's land, brother Abishai's land, brother Asahel's land." Dated Mar. 11, 1795. Witnessed by Stephen and Elijah Leonard.

(B.C.D. 73.421). Timothy bought of Abishai Eddy the part of the dwelling house, barn, etc. that he inherited from "my honored father, Pelatiah Eddy, late of said Taunton and is what was set off to me and wife. Marcy Eddy." Dated Feb. 21, 1795. Witnessed by Benjamin Leonard and Asahel Eddy and signed by Abishai and Marcy Eddy.

(B.C.D. 76.454). Timothy Eddy of Taunton, blacksmith, quitclaimed to Stephen Leonard "all my right in my mother's Lydia Eddy's thirds." Dated Apr. 6, 1798. Witnessed by Hart and Elijah Lincoln.

(B.C.D. 79.72). Timothy Eddy of Taunton sold to Abishai Eddy of Taunton, "all rights to land set off to my mother in her thirds." Timothy and wife, Mary, signed. Dated Apr. 25, 1798. Witnessed by Barney Eddy and James Eddy.

Children (Eddy Gen. 1881):

+9564 GEORGE LEONARD EDDY, b. about 1807.
9565 CLARISSA EDDY; m. LEWIS WHITNEY.
9566 ABIGAIL EDDY.
Perhaps also ABIATHAR EDDY.

(NOTE. The Fall River Rec. give the death of Abiathar Eddy, who is son of Timothy and Marcy Eddy. As Marcy and Mary are often used as the same name it is possible that Abiathar should be added to the above list of children.)

9407 Azariah Eddy (Azariah, Joseph, John of T), b. June 16, 1742, Taunton; d. Apr. 12, 1820, at Leicester, Mass., aged 77 yrs. (V.R.); m. Priscilla . . . . She was born about 1741 and d. July 24, 1821, aged 80 yrs., at Leicester, Mass. (V.R.). He left a will which mentions wife, Priscilla; daughter Abigail Briant; daughter, Anna Warren; son Jonathan; son Seth; son Henry. He was mentioned in the will of his grandfather as follows:

I Give and Bequeath to my Two Grand sons Azariah & Loved Sons of my son Azariah Deceased The one half of all my Lands on ye west side of Hattfield which Decended to me from Joseph White; they to have & hold ye same in Equal halfs to Each of them there heirs and assigns for Ever: and to ye four Daughters of my sd son Azariah I Give fifteen shillings Each to be paid to Each of them as they shall severaly arrive at ye age of Eighteen years and to be paid by my Excr. also I Give sd Two Grand sons one Third part of a purchass Right in ye old Township of Taunton in all future Divisions & Commonge to them their heirs & assigns for Ever which Right Decended to me from Isaac Hathway.

At the death of his father, Azariah was a minor and his mother, Martha, became his guardian in May 1759. When he was over 14, he chose Edward Shove for his guardian. He was probably apprenticed to Edward Fisher, because when he enlisted in the French and Indian War, he gave that name as that of his master. His service found on the Muster Rolls in the Mass. Archives is as follows:

(Vol. XCVIII, p. 224). Azariah Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, March 2, 1761 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Silvester Richmond. Quality, Private. Residence, Taunton. Entered service, June 16. Served until Nov. 29— Year not given. Endorsed 1760. Length of service, 23 weeks, 6 days. Remarks: Father or Master: Edward Fisher. Reported: 60 miles travel home allowed.

As soon as he came of age he sold the property which his father had in Coventry, R. I.

(Coventry R. I. Deeds 3.512). Azariah Eddy of Dighton, tanner, eldest son of Azariah Eddy, late of Dartmouth, boatman, dec'd intestate, for £7 sold "to Elkanah Johnson and Elisha Johnson of Coventry all said Azariah of Dighton died seized of, and by reason of said land lying so remote" etc. Dated June 22, 1763.

He bought land in Dighton of Sarah Bartlett. Here he had his farm for a while on the Segregansett River.

(B.C.D. 46.453). Sarah Bartlett of Dighton sold "to Azariah Eddy of Dighton, farmer, the house and land which I bought of Josiah Talbut bounded by the Country road . . . Capt. George Pitts . . . Segregansett River on the south side of which is the house."

Probably in addition to his farming, he carried on his tanning business since he generally refers to himself as a tanner. He sold out the rights left him by the will of his grandfather, Joseph Eddy, and in 1769 he moved to Dartmouth. It is likely that he left Dartmouth about 1778 when he sold out his property there and moved to Leicester, Mass., where he spent the rest of his days.

The following abstracts are of interest:

(B.C.D. 59.498). Azariah Eddy of Dighton, tanner, sold "to Henry Hodges of Taunton, Gentleman . . . . . ⅓ of a purchase right which was given to me and my brother Loved Eddy by the last will of my grandfather, Joseph Eddy, which he got from Isaac Hathaway dec'd and also my right and my said brother Loved's right in ye third part in the Burnt Ground Cedar Swamp in Taunton or the new Training Field in Taunton" . . . Dated Aug. 11, 1767.

(B.C.D. 53.237). Azariah Eddy of Dighton, tanner, sold to "Elkanah Andrews of Dighton, merchant . . . land, dwellinghouse, barkhouse, tann-yard and wooden building and utensils thereon for tanning and curing of leather which house and land is in Dighton. 1½ acres bounding westerly on the country road, southerly on George Pitts late dec'd and every other part by the Segregansett river. Dated Oct. 25, 1769." Signed by Azariah and Priscilla Eddy.

(B.C.D. 53.54) Azariah Eddy of Dartmouth, tanner, for £200 to "John Peirce, yeoman, and Samuel Talbut, Gent. my farm and homestead in Dartmouth, 70 acres, bounded by Benaiah Willis, Ebenezer Pettis, Edward Thurber, and Justin Sarle. He gave this as surety for his appearance at the court at Plymouth, May 15, 1770.

(B.C.D., 59.4) Azariah Eddy of Dartmouth, husbandman, sold Edward Slead . . . "the farm I bought of Jonah Chase where I now live in Dartmouth, 80 acres." Wife Priscilla also signed this deed. Dated Oct. 1, 1778.

Children, order of birth not known:

9568 Abigail Eddy, m. David Briant, Int. Oct. 21, 1784, Leicester (V.R.).
9569 Anna Eddy, m. William Warren, of Paxton, Int. Sept. 8, 1791, Leicester, Mass. (V.R.).
9570 Charlotte Eddy, b. 1770; d. 1790.
+9571 Henry Eddy, b. June 12, 1776.
+9572 Jonathan Eddy.
+9573 Seth Eddy, b. July 18, 1780.

9410 Bethany Eddy (Azariah, Joseph, John of T), b. June 3, 1739, Dighton, Mass.; m. Nathaniel Bishop, who was b. Apr. 6, 1739, at Attleboro, Mass.; son of Joseph and Miriam (Hodges) Bishop (Hodges Gen., p. 98). They lived in Leicester, Mass., and later in Berkshire Co., probably at Adams.

Children:

i Chloe Bishop, m. Isaac Hodges, July 25, 1782.
ii Nancy Bishop, b. May 17, 1778; m. Peter Carpenter, Nov. 24, 1796. He was born Oct. 5, 1773; d. June 9, 1814. Their daughter m. Cyrus Martin Wheaton.

9412 Loved Eddy (Azariah, Joseph, John of T), b. after the death of his father, late in 1749 or early in 1750. On Nov. 7, 1749, Martha, his mother, was made guardian of the other five children of Azariah. This proves that Loved was not yet born. In an account turned in later Martha "prays for allowance for expenses incurred" when a child was born after the death of the father. Loved died probably early in 1831 as his will, dated June 22, 1824, was proved on Mar. 5, 1831. He m. Anne Hoskins (B.C.D. 67.267); dau. of Joshua Hoskins, Sen'r, of Taunton (B.C.D. 67.267). She was living in 1813, when on May 8th she signed a deed. (Berkshire Co. deeds at Adams 18.223). He m. (2) Diadama . . ., who survived him (Deeds at Adams, Mass.).

On May 6, 1755 Martha was made the guardian of Loved and on Dec. 22, 1766, "Azariah Eddy of Dighton, tanner, was made guardian of Loved; son of Azariah Eddy, dec'd. Loved is now over 14 yrs. of age."

When the Revolutionary War broke out, he enlisted as a private from Taunton. He became a Corporal in 1776. Some time between the summer of 1776 and the summer of 1777, he left Taunton and settled in Berkshire Co., where he again served in a company of volunteers and fought in the battle of Bennington, Vt. His service for which he received a pension was as follows:

Loved Eddy, Taunton. Private, Capt. Oliver Soper's co., Col. Timothy Walker's regt.; muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775; enlisted May 2, 1775; service, 3 mos. 6 days; also, company return dated Oct. 6, 1775; also, Capt. Oliver Soper's co.; company receipt for wages for Feb. and March, 1776, dated New York; also, Corporal, same co.; company receipts for rations on march from Dorchester to New York, dated New York, April 29, 1776; also, same co.; company receipt for wages for May and June, 1776; also, same co.; company receipt for money due for rations to July 10, 1776.

Lovit Eddy. Private, Col. Joab Stafford's (Independent) co. of volunteers; marched Aug. 14, 1777; fought in battle near Bennington Aug. 16, 1777; service, 6 days; company raised from the alarm lists of New Providence, Lanesborough, East Hoosuck, and Gageborough; also, Private, Capt. Samuel Low's co., Col. Benjamin Simonds's (Berkshire Co.) regt.; enlisted Oct. 14, 1780; discharged Oct. 17, 1780; service, 4 days; company marched to the Northward by order of Gen. Fellows on an alarm.

When the U. S. Census was taken in 1790, Loved was a resident of "Adams and Windsor in the Gore" with a household consisting of one male over 16, two under 16, and four females. At the time of his death Loved was a resident of the town of Savoy.

The following abstracts from deeds are of interest:

(B.C.D. 67.267). "Loved Eddy of Bullock's Grant, Berkshire Co., joiner, and Anne Eddy, his wife, . . . all right in the estate of our honored father, Joshua Hoskins, Sen'r, late of Taunton, dec'd . . ." Dated Aug. 25, 1788. Signed by Loved and Anne Eddy and witnessed by James Barker and Abiezer Edson. Acknowledged in Berkshire Co. on the same date.

The will of Loved Eddy dated June 22, 1824, was probated Mar. 5, 1831. It mentions youngest daughter Rhoda; daughter, Abigail Staples, wife of Noah; daughter, Anne Bliss, wife of Warren; daughter Patty Carpenter, wife of Abel.

A deed signed by the heirs of Loved Eddy in 1843 (Berkshire Co. Deeds at Adams, Mass.) bore the following signatures. They were all in Illinois. Noah Staples and wife Abigail; Amos Mason; Philo Carpenter and wife, Ann; Laura Carpenter; Moses Bliss and wife Polly; Martin Richardson and wife Ann; Thomas Bridges and Emily, his wife; Abel Carpenter and wife Sarah.

Children were all probably by the first wife as they are given in his will in which there is no mention of a wife, so it is probable that his marriage to Diadama was after 1824.

Children (will of Loved):

9574 Abigail Eddy, m. before 1824, Noah Staples. In 1843 they were living in Illinois.

9575 Anna Eddy, m. before 1824, Warren Bliss. They had a son Moses, who married Polly . . . They were living in Illinois in 1843.

+9576 Patience Eddy.

9577 Rhoda Eddy, under 14 in 1831; probably m. Amos Mason. (See Deed given by heirs of Loved in 1843, Adams, Mass.)

Two sons who probably died young (Census of 1790).

9413 Mary Eddy (Asa, Jonathan, John of T), b. Apr. 25, 1762, at Preston, Conn. (V.R.); d. June 24, 1841, at Sodus, Wayne Co., N. Y.; m. about 1800, as his second wife, Samuel Blair; b. 1743; d. Apr. 15, 1828, at Sodus. They are buried in the "Brick Church Cemetery" at Sodus Center.

Samuel Blair married first Margaret Smith at Palmer, Mass., on May 5, 1774. While he lived at Blandford he joined Capt. Cooley's Co. for service in the Revolutionary War. From Blandford the family went to Great Bend, Susquehanna Co., Penn., where his wife died. By the first wife there were seven daughters, Roxana, Rebecca, Asenath, Margaret Ann, Sylvina, Elizabeth and another who died in youth, whose name is not known.

Children of Mary (Eddy) Blair:

Mary Ann Blair, b. Feb. 5, 1803; d. Feb. 8, 1875, at Lyons, N. Y.; m. (1) Nathaniel Dippy; m. (2) Emanuel D. Miller.

+9578 Samuel Blair, Jr., b. Aug. 24, 1804.

9414 Asa Eddy (Asa, Jonathan, John of T), b. at Preston, Conn., Apr. 16, 1766, according to his pension affidavit; but Apr. 1, 1764, according to the V.R. at Preston; d. June 13, 1841, aged 74 years according to a record in a Bible in possession of Dr. Carroll William Eddy of Cleveland, O. He m. (1) Jan. 12, 1786, Hester Bushnell; dau. of Samuel Bushnell of Sheffield, Mass. The Salisbury Hist. Coll. state that they were married by Peter Bishop, J. P. She was b. Mar. 26, 1768, at Saybrook, Conn., and d. Oct. 13, 1829, in her 60th year at Owego, N. Y. (Gravestone in Lansingville Cem., Lansing, Tompkins Co., N. Y.). He died in Victor, N. Y. He m. (2) Nov. 17, 1831, Rebecca Backus, widow, in Lansing, N. Y. She was allowed a pension. The pension records state that he died June 11, 1840.

It is to be noted in this record that the pension dates do not agree with the town records, but there can be no question concerning the identity of the Asa Eddys mentioned. The following record was obtained from The Interior Bureau of Pensions at Washington:

"Asa Eddy born in Preston, New London Co. Conn., April 16, 1766, while residing at Salisbury, Conn., enlisted Aug. 1780 and served three months as private in Captain Jesse Panier's Company, Col. Canfield's Conn. Regiment. Also 1781 and served three months as a private in Capt. Collin's Company under Major Strong; was allowed a pension Feb. 4, 1834 while a resident of Groton, Tompkins Co., N. Y. He died June 11, 1840 at Victor, Ontario Co., N. Y. Soldier married Nov. 17, 1831, in Lansing, N. Y., Rebecca Backus, widow. She was allowed a pension in 1854. No data of children."

Among some old papers in the possession of Dr. Carroll Eddy are the following which throw some light on the places of residence of Asa Eddy. There is a "Indenture, dated Apr. 30, 1799 between Asa Eddy of the County of Luzerne, State of Penn. of 201 acres of land to Samuel Bushnell." There is a "Discharge given Asa Eddy, member of Friendship Lodge No. 140," held at the village of Owego and dated Aug. 28, 1815. There is an indenture from William Shute to Asa Eddy dated June 7, 1815, at Geneva, County of Cayuga, N. Y.

There is a commission to Asa Eddy, dated Mar. 5, 1806 at Lancaster. This commission states that Asa Eddy is commissioned a captain in the 5th Company, 129th Regiment of Militia of Pennsylvania, which company is a part of the 2nd Brigade of the 9th Division, which is part of the militia of the counties of North Umberland, Lycoming and Luzerne. This commission is signed by T. M. Thompson, Secretary to the Governor.

At the time of the 1790 Census he was living in Sheffield, Mass., with a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16 and two females.

From these records it is clear that Asa was born at Preston, Conn., spent his boyhood in Salisbury and enlisted in the War from that place. After marriage he lived in Sheffield, Mass. and somewhere about 1795 moved to Pennsylvania, to the town of Great Bend. Later he went to New York state and lived in Victor and perhaps in Owego.

Children (Bible of Carroll W. Eddy, also three from Sheffield, Mass. V.R.):

9579 Hester Eddy, b. July 2, 1786, in Salisbury, Conn.; d. May 9, 1788, in Salisbury (Hist. Coll.).

9588 Frances Eddy, b. Mar. 14, 1807 (twin); d. in Owego, N. Y.
9589 Hester Eddy, b. Nov. 13, 1808, Sunday evening, between 8 and 10 o'clock; d. Mar. 11, 1811, at 12 o'clock daytime.

9416 John Wilkes Eddy (Asa, Jonathan, John of T), b. Apr. 16, 1767, in Preston, Conn.; d. Apr. 15, 1816, at Newburgh, Dutchess Co., N. Y.; m. Oct. 15, 1788, at Amenia, N. Y., Dorcas Botsford; dau. of John and Dorcas (Warren) Botsford. (The Botsfords were of Derby, Conn., and John was b. Apr. 23, 1730.)

John Eddy of Salisbury, Conn., appears in land transactions in 1799, 1800 and up to 1810. On May 15, 1812, he was still living in Salisbury. At the time of the Census of 1790, he was in Litchfield with a family of one male over 16, one under 16, and one female.

Children:

+9590 John Wilkes Eddy, b. about 1789 (1790 Census.)
Probably others.

9417 Abner Eddy (Asa, Jonathan, John of T), b. Apr. 4, 1773, in Salisbury, Conn. (Hist. Coll. of Salisbury); d. June 22, 1861, in Big Prairie, Wayne Co., O.; m. Feb. 19, 1798, Martha Chapman of Litchfield, Conn.; b. Sept. 10, 1770; d. Feb. 8, 1847.

He appears in Salisbury in land transactions with his brothers in 1798 and 1799. By 1801 he was located in Great Bend, Penn., where he carried on a business. He is listed as a cordwainer among the other merchants. In 1805 and 1807 he purchased land in Oneida Co., N. Y., and in 1805 and 1806 he sold land there. He was drafted in the War of 1812, but because of poor health he hired David Tryon to serve in his stead. In 1815 he moved to Wayne Co. He built a homestead and lived in it the remainder of his life.

Children:

+9591 Augustus Eddy, b. Oct. 17, 1798.
+9592 Milton Gore Eddy, b. May 15, 1800.

+9600 George Washington Eddy, b. Dec. 8, 1817.
+9601 Asa Eddy, b. Jan. 27, 1823.
+9602 Abner Kneeland Eddy, b. Jan. 30, 1825.

9419 Rufus Eddy (Asa, Jonathan, John of T), b. May 22, 1778, in Salisbury, Conn.; d. Mar. 29, 1829, in Philadelphia; m. (1) about 1805, Clarissa Raymond; b. Oct. 6, 1782; d. Oct. 15, 1819, in Baltimore, Md. He m. (2) . . . Kennedy. He lived in Salisbury, Conn., where his name appears in land transactions from 1800 through 1804. It is likely that he left Conn. at about the time of his marriage. In 1804 he purchased land in Oneida Co., N. Y., which he soon disposed of.

+9603 Mary Ann Eddy, b. Aug. 16, 1806.
+9604 Thomas Rufus Eddy, b. Nov. 3, 1808.
+9605 Clarissa Eddy, b. Oct. 23, 1810.

9442 Jonathan Eddy (David, Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Nov. 28, 1766, at Rehoboth, Mass. (V.R.); d. Mar. 11, 1827, aged 60 yrs., at Montpelier, Vt. (V.R.); m. (1) Sept. 26, 1793, Chloe Richardson of Brookfield, Mass. (Charlton V.R.); m. (2) Dec. 5, 1805, Mrs. Lydia (Moses) Kingsley, the widow of Zephaniah Kingsley. She was b. May, 1786; dau. of Samuel Moses of Royalston, Mass., and his wife, Lydia^5 Ballou (Maturin^4, Peter^3, John^2, Maturin^1). (See Ballou Gen.)

Jonathan left Rehoboth, when a child, with his father and they lived in Brookfield, Mass., until about the time of Jonathan's marriage. Jonathan left Brookfield and settled in the new town of Calais, Vt. In the lists made up for Calais in the year 1797, Jonathan was listed for $31.50. In 1798 Jonathan Eddy was town moderator and selectman, and in 1800 lister or tax assessor. When the census was taken in 1800, his household consisted of one male between the ages of 25 and 45, three girls under ten, and one female between the ages of 16 and 25. If this latter is the wife Chloe it would make her birth date about 1775/76. He published his intentions to marry her on July 14, 1793, at Brookfield, and it is not likely that she was much younger than 18 yrs. at marriage. In 1813 he was 3rd Lieutenant in the 31st Vermont Infantry and the following year he was promoted to 2nd Lieutenant. About 1805 he left Calais and settled in Montpelier where he died.

A relative of his second wife wrote the following description of him: "He was a noble-looking man of more than ordinary intelligence; a good natural mechanic, but visionary, always building castles in the air, that fell before they were finished." The three daughters by his first wife all died of consumption before they reached the age of forty.

Children of Jonathan and Chloe (Richardson) Eddy:
9611 Esther Eddy, b. Sept. 14, 1794, at Calais, Vt. (V.R.). Married.
9612 Harriet Eddy, b. May 22, 1798, at Calais, Vt. (V.R.); m. Apr. 2, 1820, Stephen C. Jacobs, at Montpelier, Vt. (V.R.).
9613 Myra Eddy, b. May 30, 1800, at Calais, Vt. (V.R.); m. Mar. 10, 1822, at Montpelier, Vt. (V.R.), Samuel Jacobs.

Children of Jonathan and Lydia (Moses) Eddy:
9614 David Eddy, died aged 2 yrs. (Ballou Gen. p. 301).
+9615 James Madison Eddy, b. Nov. 6, 1808, at Montpelier, Vt. (V.R.).
+9616 Lauriston Eddy, b. Aug. 24, 1811, at Montpelier, Vt. (V.R.).
9617 Samantha Eddy, b. Aug. 24, 1811, at Montpelier, Vt. (V.R.) twin.

9443 Daniel Eddy (David, Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Aug. 11, 1768, at Rehoboth, Mass. (V.R.); d. Feb. 12, 1858 at Jamaica, Vt., aged 89–6–1. (V.R.). He m. (1) . . . ; m. (2) Jan. 13, 1795, Elizabeth Simmonds of Brookfield, Mass. (V.R.). She was b. about 1770 and d. Jan. 28, 1848, at Jamaica, Vt. Both are buried in the South Hill Cem. at Jamaica, Vt. After her death Daniel married Mrs. Lucy (Crossett) Skinner on Oct. 1, 1850. She was b. about 1796 at Jamaica and d. Jan. 17, 1877, aged 80–6–27 (V.R.).

Daniel spent his early days in Brookfield. On Jan. 24, 1798, for $655 he bought land and buildings in Brookfield of Daniel Doane. (Doane Gen., p. 176.)

In 1799 Daniel sold land in Spencer near Jenks Hathaway, Phinehas Slayton, Jeremiah Simmons and Nathaniel Bemis. His wife Elizabeth signed the deed (Worcester Co. 142,68). After leaving Brookfield and Spencer, Daniel and his father, David, settled in Heath, Mass., where they bought "land in the westerly part of lot No. 7, in range of lots west of Bufinch so-called . . . on tract of land known by name of Green and Walker's land." Dated Dec. 29, 1801. Two years later they sold this piece to David Hammond (Franklin Co. 22,136). David Eddy and Mary, his wife, and Daniel Eddy and Elizabeth, his wife, signed the deed. Both the wives signed with a mark. From Heath, Daniel went to Jamaica, Vt., where he lived until his death.

9618 Jonathan Eddy, b. about 1790; d. Aug. 31, 1811, at Jamaica, Vt., aged 21 yrs. Buried in South Hill Cem.

+9619 David Eddy, b. about 1802 in Heath, Mass.
+9620 Daniel J. Eddy, b. about 1808.
9621 Keziah Eddy, b. about 1809; d. Apr. 21, 1884, at Brattleboro, Vt.

9444 Ebenezer Eddy (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John of T), bapt. May 27, 1770, at Hanover, Mass. (Church records). He was living in 1825. The Heath, Mass., V.R. contain the death of the wife of Ebenezer Eddy, the 2nd on Aug. 4, 1830. The reference may be to this Ebenezer.

9445 Waterman Eddy (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John of T), b. Mar. 2, 1770 (Bible Record); bapt. May 27, 1770, at Hanover, Mass. (Church Record); d. Oct. 11, 1838. He married Lucy Granger, Dec. 28, 1796. She was born Dec. 3, 1775, in Conn. and died Aug. 24, 1838.

He is mentioned in his father's will and his name appears on many deeds as witness and in buying and selling property in Coleraine, Mass. By 1798 he was in northern Conn. in the town of Suffield. From there it would seem that he went to Westfield, Mass., where he had a blacksmith shop and carried on his business. Just when he moved to New York is not known, but he purchased land there in 1797.

The following deeds are of interest:

(Hampshire Co. Deeds, 40.102). Waterman Eddy of Suffield, Hartford Co., Conn., bought of Adijah Dewey on Apr. 7, 1801.

(Hampshire Co. Deeds at Springfield, 40.447). Waterman Eddy of Westfield, Mass. sold land and one-half of the blacksmith shop in Westfield, Oct. 24, 1802.

(Ontario Co. Deeds, N. Y. 5.55 and 21.212). Waterman Eddy of Suffield, Hartford Co., Conn. bought 833⅓ acres of land west of the Genesee River on May 2, 1797.

Children (Family Records):

+9622 Lucy Eddy, b. Feb. 21, 1799.
+9623 Orrin Eddy, b. Apr. 8, 1801, at New Haven, Conn.
+9624 Nathan Eddy, b. Apr. 15, 1803, at New Haven, Conn.
9625 Maria Eddy, b. Mar. 23, 1805; d. Aug. 4, 1886, at Elmira, N. Y. Unmar.
9626 Edwin Eddy, b. Jan. 9, 1808; d. at Winona, Wis. Unmar.
+9627 Julia Ann Eddy, b. Feb. 2, 1810.

9447 Leonard Eddy (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John of T), bapt. at Richville, May 16, 1773 (Church Records), Hanover, Mass.

The gravestone gives the date of death as Jan. 28, 1870, at the age of 98 yrs. 11 days. He married Phoebe Peterson. She died at the age of 91 yrs. 9 mo. 2 da. at Richville, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., on May 13, 1869.

Leonard Eddy lived for a long time in Coleraine, Mass. He was there as early as 1799 with his wife, Phoebe, for on that date he sold land which he had previously purchased. Sometime before 1826, he left Coleraine and settled in Heath and he was there as late as 1836. The Registry of Deeds contains many transactions in which he took part.

The following abstract is of interest:

Ebenezer Eddy sold to Ebenezer Eddy 3rd of Heath, land near Leonard Eddy, Oct. 4, 1828. This was witnessed by Leonard Eddy and Jane Eddy (Franklin Co. 81.38).

The descendants do not agree upon the names of the following list of children. One member of the family states there were only twelve children, but it is possible that two died in infancy and so were not in his records.

Children (order of birth unknown):

9629 WILLIS EDDY, b. . . .; m. Int. Dec. 15, 1834, HARRIET ADAMS, Heath, Mass. (V. R.); dau. of Eliphalet and Lucy (Purrington) Adams. They went to Ohio.

9458 George W. Eddy (Comfort, Samuel, Ebenezer, John of T), b. May 11, 1784, in North Providence, R. I. (Pawtucket V.R.); d. May 23, 1841, at Providence. He is buried in North End Cem. He m. (1) Manilla . . . from whom he obtained a divorce (Prov. Divorce Court Rec.). He m. (2) Fidelia Freeman of Smithfield, R. I. (Item in a newspaper dated Sept. 1, 1821). She was born July 27, 1799, in Blackstone, Mass., and died at the age of 88 yrs. on April 14, 1888, at Chicago. She was the daughter of Salisbury Freeman.

The tradition is handed down in the family that during the War of 1812 he was a prisoner of war on a British vessel and lost his leg trying to escape. He hated the English fervently and spent much time in his later years pounding the floor with his crutch, cursing the whole English tribe and nation. His descendants were carefully taught to hate the English and several of them inherited his violent temper. He owned a store on the north side of Broad St. in Providence, where he carried on his business, that of a "Hatter." On January 30, 1835, he was made administrator on the estate of his brother, Benjamin (Prov. Prob. Rec.). The Providence registry of deeds contains several transactions by him. He lived in the northern part of the city not far from what is now the entrance to the North End Cemetery.

Children, b. in Providence (Bible of Comfort Eddy):

9646 Joseph Eddy, b. Mar. 14, 1813; d. Apr. 10, 1813.

9459 Comfort Eddy (Comfort, Samuel, Ebenezer, John of T), b. abt. 1793, in Providence, R. I., and died Sept. 13, 1872, at the age of 79 yrs. in Providence (V.R.). He married (1) Nov. 16, 1815, Mary Swarts at Providence, R. I. (V.R.) and (Church Records). She was born abt. 1797 and died August 25, 1820, at the age of 23. She was the "eldest daughter of the late Captain Swarts of Newport." (A newspaper item in the "Gazette.") He married (2) Aug. 21, 1821, Katherine Swarts, sister of Mary, at Providence, R. I. (V.R.). She died Feb. 9, 1846, aged 42 years. (G.S.). He was a tailor by trade. (Prov. Deeds 57.553.)

Children of Comfort and Mary (Swarts) Eddy:

9654 Benjamin Eddy, b. 1816; d. Sept. 26, 1849, age 33.
+9655 Ephraim Randolph Eddy, b. Mar. 23, 1818.
9656 Ann Almy Eddy, b. 1820; d. Aug. 16, 1820; aged 7 m. 2d. Prov. (V.R.). (G.S.).

Children of Comfort and Catherine (Swarts) Eddy:

9657 Alpheus Eddy, b. May 1, 1822; d. young.
9658 Mary Swarts Eddy, b. about 1823; d. Sept. 15, 1862; m. June 22, 1856, George L. Sutton, Jr.
9659 Caroline Eddy, b. about 1826.
9660 Eliza Ann Eddy, b. about 1827; d. Aug. 10, 1828 (Newspaper).
9661 Alpheus Eddy, b. 1831.
9662 Comfort Eddy, b. about 1839; d. July 31, 1840, aged 1 yr. 6 m.

9463 Simeon Eddy (Ichabod, Samuel, Ebenezer, John of T), b. 1783; d. Jan. 15, 1862, at Glens Falls, N. Y.; m. Elizabeth . . .; b. 1790; d. Apr. 6, 1872. In Heath, Mass., there is recorded the death of the wife of Simeon Eddy in 1830. It is therefore possible that Elizabeth was the second wife.

Very little is known of Simeon, beyond the fact that he sold the property inherited from his father, Ichabod Eddy, to his mother Lucy Eddy in 1816. (Franklin Co. Deeds, 47.330.)

Children:

+9663 Aaron Browne Eddy, b. Sept. 6, 1824, at Heath, Mass.
+9664 Lucy Eddy.
9665 George Eddy.
+9666 Benjamin Eddy.

9466 Ebenezer Eddy (Ichabod, Samuel, Ebenezer, John of T), b. before 1799, for he is over 14, on July 20, 1813, when his father's estate was settled, and Stephen Thompson was appointed his guardian (Franklin Co. Prob.). He d. between Sept. 26, 1856, and May 19, 1857, when his will was probated. He published his intentions to marry Persis . . . Dec. 9, 1821. She died Aug. 4, 1830 (Heath V.R.). Published his intentions to marry (2) Jan. 29, 1831, Louisa (Temple) Clay; dau. of Richard and Eunice (Christie) Temple. She died Jan. 19, 1845, aged 36 y. 3 m. 29 d. (Heath V.R.). He published his intentions to marry (3) Mar. 13, 1846, Levina W. Brown of Conway, Mass. He probably had no children as none are mentioned in his will. The Franklin Co. probate contains the following:

Ebenezer Eddy of Heath, "yeoman, to my brother, Simeon Eddy, and if dead to his children" . . . it also mentions John Whitaker, Sylvia Preston, Washington Whitaker, Amos Whitaker, Electa Whitaker, Royal Whitaker, Julia Whitaker, Lucy Whitaker; children of my deceased sister, Chloe Whitaker . . . " to wife Levina W. all my property, and wife is executrix." Dated Sept. 26, 1856, probated May 19, 1857.

9467 Chloe Eddy (Ichabod, Samuel, Ebenezar, John of T), b. bef. 1799, as she is over 14 on July 20, 1813, when Stephen Thompson was appointed her guardian. She died before Sept. 26, 1856 (mentioned in will of brother as deceased); m. Joseph Whitaker of Heath, Mass., Dec. 6, 1821 (V.R.).

Children:
i JOHN WHITAKER.
ii SYLVIA WHITAKER, m. . . . PRESTON.
iii WASHINGTON WHITAKER.
iv AMOS WHITAKER.
v ELECTA WHITAKER.
vi ROYAL WHITAKER.
vii JULIA WHITAKER.
viii LUCY WHITAKER.

9468 John Eddy (John, John, Eleazar, John of T), b. Apr. 17, 1755, at Haddam, in Chatham, Conn. (V.R.); d. Nov. 2, 1832 (Hist. of Middlesex County, Conn.). He married before 1792, Anna Clark. Very little is known of John Eddy except that he owned land in Chatham and Middle Haddam and in 1790 when the census was taken, he was the head of a family in Chatham, with one male over 16.

Children, b. in Chatham, Conn. (V.R.):
9667 SALLY EDDY, b. Mar. 17, 1792; m. June 15, 1819, IRA CLARK, Middle Haddam (V.R.).
9668 CHARITY EDDY, b. Dec. 20, 1794; m. Nov. 4, 1817, AUGUSTUS ADAMS, of Colchester, Conn.
9669 FESTUS EDDY, b. Sept. 27, 1797; d. Jan. 11, 1822, Chatham, Conn. (V.R.).

9469 Leveus Eddy (John, John, Eleazar, John of T), b. Dec. 12, 1758, in Chatham, now Middle Haddam, Conn.; d. Jan. 19, 1846, at Newark, N. J. He married Deborah (Doane) Ely, widow of Culver Ely (Brainerd Gen.). She died April 16, 1814, at Williamstown, Mass. (V.R.).

He enlisted in the Revolutionary War and was in Capt. Clark's Co. of Artificers as Private, Feb. 7, 1777. Deserted Aug. 19, 1779. Residence not given but Co. apparently enlisted from Glastonbury and vicinity (Connecticut Rev. Records).

During the battle of Long Island Leveus and two comrades becoming aware of the hopeless issue of the battle and fearing capture and imprisonment planned to swim the East River to New York in the night, but before they were ready the order for retreat was given. They crossed over in boats with the rest but among the last. Their plan for desertion was not for lack of patriotism but merely from prudential motives. Their subsequent service in the army is proof of this fact. It is said of Leveus that in his youth he was distinguished for his enterprise, fortitude, and endurance in the conflicts of the Revolutionary War. He was a man of strict integrity, and was greatly respected and beloved. In 1790 when the census was taken he was in Haddam, Conn., with a household of three males over sixteen, three under sixteen, and three females. Sometime later he left Connecticut and settled in Williamstown, Mass., where he bought property (Berkshire County Deeds at Adams). From Massachusetts he went to New Jersey where he died.

Children:

+9670 Justin Eddy, b. Aug. 17, 1786; bapt. Sept. 17, 1786 (Chatham, Conn. V.R.); d. Mar. 31, 1852, in Edinburg, O. He published his intentions to marry Sally Young on Mar. 3, 1808, at Williamstown, Mass.

In Feb. 1815 he and his brother, Alanson, left their homes in Williamstown and travelled all the distance to Ohio with their families in sleighs. (Hist. of Portage Co., O., p. 425.) Leveus had purchased a plot of ground there in the previous year. From this fact and also because Alanson and Justin were the first to settle there the place was called Eddysburg. This name soon changed to Edinburg and is so called at present. Justin built the first saw-mill. He held several offices in the new town.

9671 Jemima Eddy, b. Aug. 17, 1786; bapt. Sept. 17, 1786 (twin).
+9672 Alanson Eddy, b. Oct. 21, 1787; bapt. Dec. 9, 1787 (Church Rec.).
+9673 Deborah Eddy, b. May 1790; bapt. May 30, 1790.
+9674 Betsey Eddy, b. 1792; bapt. Apr. 8, 1792.
+9675 Chauncey Eddy, b. June 2, 1794; bapt. July 13, 1794.
+9676 Polly Eddy (Mary), b. May 3, 1796.
+9677 Ansel Doane Eddy, b. Oct. 1798.

9472 Nathan Eddy (Zephaniah, John, Eleazar, John of T), b. at Chatham, Conn.; m. June 7, 1781, Mercy Higgins, at Chatham, Conn. (V.R.). She was born June 10, 1762, dau. of Lemuel and Elizabeth (Cole) Higgins. They lived in Chatham, Conn., but later moved to Stillwater, N. Y., where they were when the 1790 Census was taken. Nathan's household consisted of one male over sixteen, two under sixteen, and three females. He later went to Watertown, N. Y.

Children (incomplete list):

9678 Nathan Eddy, b. Chatham, Conn. (Eddy Gen. 1881).
9679 Russell Eddy, b. Mar. 3, 1782, Chatham, Conn. (V.R.).
+9680 Clement W. Eddy, b. Mar. 15, 1784, Chatham, Conn. (V.R.).

9474 John Eddy (Abiel, Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. June 8, 1769, at Norton, Mass. (V.R.). He published his intentions to marry Hannah Leonard 2nd of Taunton, on July 1, 1796, Norton (V.R.). She was b. June 14, 1772; d. Apr. 11, 1840, at Norton (V.R.). They lived in Norton all their lives. Their names appear in the Registry of Deeds in several transactions, from which the following abstracts are taken.

(B.C.D. 131.388). "John Eddy, Abner Lincoln, and Zeruah Lincoln of Norton, and Joel Woodward of Buckland, atty. for the heirs of Marcy Woodward, dec'd, sold to Eddy Lincoln of Norton ¼ part of the 7th share . . . bounded on John Eddy's land on the east." Dated April 28, 1830 and signed by John Eddy and wife, Hannah Edy, Abner Lincoln and Joel Woodward. John Eddy Jr. was a witness.

(B.C.D. 132.264). John Eddy of Norton, yeoman, sold to Joel Wilbur "land that was Anna Wilbur's, mother of Joel Wilbur." Dated July 4, 1831. Signed by John and Hannah Eddy and witnessed by John Eddy Jr. and Charlotte Eddy.

(Note. This Ruth Eddy was the wife of Ezra Eddy.)

Child, b. in Norton:
+9681 John Eddy, Jr., b. Aug. 9, 1798.

9476 Caleb Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. Mar. 1776, at Hebron, Conn. (V.R.); d. Nov. 20, 1857, aged 92, at Hancock, Mass. (N.E.H.G.R. Vol. XII, p. 97). He probably joined the Shakers of Hancock, since he deeded to them his property on Nov. 16, 1802.

9480 John Fuller Eddy (Caleb, Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. Mar. 12, 1774, at New Lebanon, Mass. (Fam. Rec.); d. Nov. 27, 1836, at Sheldon, N. Y. (Fam. Rec.); m. (1) Rhoda Eddy, Aug. 17, 1801, Norton, Mass. She was b. Sept. 26, 1781, at Norton, Mass.; dau. of Elijah and Wealthy (Harvey) Eddy. (See No. 9486.) He m. (2) . . . Bradley.

He did not join the Shakers as so many of his family did but returned to Norton, where he married his cousin. They went to Maine to settle. Some time later they moved to N. Java, Wyoming Co., New York, where they spent the remainder of their lives.

May 15, 1800, Polly Stacey of Taunton (V.R.). His name is found on a deed dated Apr. 8, 1799 (B.C.D. 81.101). In the New Hampshire records there is a death recorded of a child of Barney Eddy in Newton, Oct. 28, 1826. It is possible that he lived there for a while and then returned to Mass. for it is known that his son James went from N. H. to Vt.

Children (Eddy Gen. 1881, probably not in order of birth):
+9855 James Eddy.
9856 Tisdale Eddy.
9857 Alonzo Eddy.
9858 Levi Eddy.

9542 Rufus Eddy (Paul, Paul, Joseph, John of T), b. Jan. 8, 1793, Taunton, Mass. (V.R.); m. Keziah Smith, dau. of James and Hannah (Wilbur) Smith. She was b. Mar. 6, 1796, and died about 1833 (Reed Gen. p. 420). She m. (2) Dec. 18, 1826, Nathaniel Presho. He married, as second wife, Lucy Child, of Woodstock, Conn., on May 2, 1827 (V.R.).

He owned land in Taunton which he sold at various times. Two deeds are of interest, of which the following are abstracts:

(B.C.D. 119.50). Judgment against Rufus Eddy of Taunton, laborer. "His estate is one undivided half of 2½ acres of swamp, with Wilbur Smith, also his right of his and his wife's improvement in the estate of James Smith, late of Taunton dec'd for 13 years." Uriah Smith is the creditor. Dated 1826.

9863 SARAH EDDY, b. 1814; d. young (Reed Gen. p. 420).
9864 JAMES EDDY, b. 1815; d. Nov. 1, 1836. Bristol Prob. Rec. contain the refusal of Paul Eddy to administer on the estate of his grandson, James Eddy. George Smith, Uriah Smith and Barney Eddy refuse to administer on the estate of their nephew, James Eddy.
+9865 OREN EDDY (or Orrin), b. about 1818 (Reed Gen. p. 420).
9866 STEARNS EDDY, b. 1821; d. young (Reed Gen. p. 420).

9867 HANNAH EDDY, b. July 18, 1827, at Woodstock, Conn. (V.R.).

9544 Apollos Eddy (Apollos, Paul, Joseph, John of T), b. Taunton; d. before Nov. 9, 1822, when appraisers of his estate were appointed and his wife Sally was made guardian of the minor children. He m. Sally (probably Leonard) who d. about 1861 in Foxboro at the age of 83 yrs.

The deeds of Bristol Co. contain deeds quoted elsewhere which show him to be the son of Apollos. He owned property and tilled a farm in addition to carrying on his trade of a "Nailer". At his death Sally was made guardian of the children under 14, Cephas, George, Barzillai, Philander and of Lucilda over 14. She requested Ichabod Leonard to administer on the estate.

In order to meet the debts which Apollos owed at his death, it was necessary to sell at auction a part of his real estate and the notice was posted at various spots in the town. It was held at the house of Apollos on the 20th of Oct. 1823 and 10 acres of the estate were to be sold near his dwelling and near that of his father Apollos, Sen'r and bounded by land of John Eddy and others.

In Aug. 1823, Sally, the widow of Apollos, 2nd, and her children signed a statement. From this the names of the children who were living at the decease of the father has been learned.

We the subscribers, being heirs of Apollos Eddy, 2nd, acknowledge receiving notice of sale of land. This was signed by Apollos Eddy, "Sallay Eddy" guardian of Lucilda, George, Cephas, Barzillai, and Philander Eddy, minors; and by Sallay Eddy; daughter of deceased.

Orrin Eddy was a pilot or steersman on the Delaware River from Easton, Pa. (or above) to Trenton, N. J. (tide-water), a distance of 52 miles. He would board a log raft at Easton and steer it to tide-water; then make the return trip of 52 miles on foot. Later when coal was transported from Mauch Chunk, Pa. to Philadelphia, in temporary boats, called "Arks," he piloted them to their destination, where they were then torn apart and sold for building purposes. Later when more substantial boats were built, called "Durham" boats, with a capacity of from five to ten tons, they carried back loads of merchandise. These were propelled by from four to six men who used pikes. There were several bad rapids or falls between the two points, hence, the necessity for a pilot. In passing through some of the rapids they used ropes to pull themselves along. These ropes were fastened to iron rings which were attached to rocks in the bottom of the river. If the wind was favorable, they often erected a sail. Later when the Delaware and Lehigh Canal was being built, Orrin Eddy helped in its construction and in the building of the locks, working with Mr. John Brown of Easton, Pa. who upon the completion of the canal ran one of the first canal boats operated there. As time went on, Orrin became very prosperous, acquiring many holdings in the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, and several coal, slate, and iron industries.

Maria Lake, the first wife of Orrin, died at Easton, when the son George was six weeks old. The remains were put aboard a raft and taken to Stockton, N. J., a distance of thirty-five miles, where she was buried in Sandy Ridge. The six-weeks baby also took this trip on the raft and thus began his boyhood days which were spent with his grandparents at Stockton.

9681 John Eddy, Jr. (John, Abiel, Caleb, Eleazar, John of T), b. Aug. 9, 1798, Norton, Mass.; d. Oct. 6, 1865; m. Oct. 20, 1821 (int.) Charlotte Wilbour, of Raynham; b. Apr. 10, 1797, Norton (V.R.); m. (2) Louisa S. . . .

He left a will dated July 18, 1865. His will gave property to John Eddy, son of Elijah H. Eddy—a minor of Norton; to Hiram Field and John Field of Taunton; to Eddy Lincoln and to Artemas Field. They must fix the grave of his wife, Charlotte. As there is no mention in the will of a living wife it is likely that he married Louisa between July and Oct. 1865, since Louisa, widow, protests the will. When the Census of 1855 was taken, John and Charlotte were living in Norton. He was 58 yrs. and she was 59 yrs. old. His name appears as witness on several deeds and he took a mortgage on property of Mercy Woodward of Buckland, Mass. (Franklin Co. 131.297).

Perhaps also the child, who d. Oct. 28, 1826, in Newton, N. H.

9855 James Eddy (Barney, Paul, Paul, Joseph, John of T), b. in Taunton; d. in Peacham, Vt.; m. Eunice Battice; b. in Woodbury, Vt.; d. Feb. 8, 1879, at Peacham. She was dau. of John and Eunice Battice. He was a very old man when he died.

He lived for a time in New Hampshire before finally settling in Vermont. The death record states that he was the son of James and Patty (Stacy) Eddy. It would seem that this was an error. Barney Eddy m. Polly Stacy in 1800. So far as is known there was no James among the Taunton group of Eddys, who was old enough to be the parent of this James. Barney and Polly had a son, James.

Children:
+10465 James Barney Eddy, b. about 1824, at Corliss, Vt.
10466 Eunice Eddy, b. 1825/26; d. 1879, Peacham, Vt.; unmar. (V.R.).

No family records have been obtained but in the records of land transactions in Norfolk Co., Mass., Maria Eddy admx. on estate of Philander Eddy sold land together with Mary A. Dixon of Foxboro and her husband, Robert M. Dixon; Emily F. Parmenter and husband, Arthur W. Parmenter, and Fred L. Eddy with wife, Mary E. Eddy, so it would seem as though these were the children.

Children (probably as follows):
10485 Mary A. Eddy, m. Robert M. Dixon.
10486 Emily F. Eddy, m. Arthur W. Parmenter.
10487 Fred L. Eddy, m. Mary E. . . . .
10488 Herbert Philander Eddy (?).
(Note. The Foxboro records have the birth of Herbert Philander Eddy on Dec. 2, 1844. It would seem likely that he belonged to this line.)

9877 William Reed Eddy (William, Apollos, Paul, Joseph, John of T), b. Nov. 27, 1807, Taunton; d. Dec. 26, 1880, Taunton, aged 73–0–29 (V.R.); m. Mary Belinda Howard; b. Apr. 12, 1814; d. Sept. 8, 1875, aged 61–4–26. She was the dau. of John and Polly Howard (V.R.).

His father was a Presbyterian clergyman in Penn Yan, N. Y. He graduated from Williams College in the class of 1845. He taught school for a while and then took the full course at Union Theological Seminary, New York City, at the same time taking a partial course in medicine. After preaching in this country for a short time, in November 1851, he sailed for Syria, and entered upon his life work as a foreign missionary, having before leaving this country married the daughter of Rev. Doctor R. W. Condit of Oswego, N. Y. He labored as an efficient missionary for four years at Aleppo, followed by twenty years at Sidon, and twenty-five at Beirut, rounding out nearly half a century of devoted service in the foreign mission field. These years were occupied with varied features of missionary life, preaching in the central stations and travelling throughout the neighboring country, teaching as a professor in the Theological Seminary, writing and publishing tracts and books, and attending to the varied details of administration at the mission stations with which he was connected. But Rev. Dr. Eddy's crowning work was a commentary, in Arabic, of the whole New Testament. He was spared to finish this great work, and it will remain a lasting monument of his scholarly attainments and indefatigable industry. One of the missionaries on the field gives this testimony of the regard in which he was held by those who knew him best: "In every sphere he gathered rich experience which has been of inestimable value at every Mission Meeting. We shall greatly miss his quiet bearing, his peaceful attitude on every question, his clear judgment, and his gifted pen." (Abstract from an article by Rev. William B. Walker of New Rochelle, N. Y.)

10217 Henry Sylvester Eddy (Norman, Obadiah, Obadiah, Obadiah, Eleazar, John of T), b. Jan. 31, 1842, Black Rock, Bennington County, Vt.; m. (1) Nellie Harrington, dau. of Denny Harrington; m. (2) Camille Barbee, at Grand Lake, La. She died Apr. 1924. All children died young.

The following is an account of his life sent in by him when he was eighty-five years old: "My father moved his family from Black Rock, Vt. to Marquette, Mich. when I was 2½ yrs. of age. The latter part of the journey was by schooner and the schooner had to be pulled up through the Sault Ste. Marie Rapids, because it was before the time of the Sault Canal. Our family was about the third family to move into Marquette. My father was an iron worker whose trade at that time was called a "bloomer." He followed that trade for several years. (As I understand, his work was taking the raw ore and refining it into malleable iron in bar for shipment.) After giving up his iron worker's trade he was engaged in exploring for the various natural resources of the country—principally ores, but also timber. At this work he was employed for the most part by his own brother whose name was Cullen C. Eddy, who moved there some years after our family had located in Marquette. Eventually my grandfather and two uncles of mine named Franklin and Faxon moved to Marquette.

"As soon as I was old enough, say around twelve years of age, I assisted my father in his exploring expeditions and we probably located more of the ore around Marquette than all the rest of the explorers of that section put together. I followed that work with my father until I was sixteen years of age when the Civil War broke out and I enlisted in October, 1862 in Co. B, 27th Michigan Infantry and served until August, 1865. I was in the Army of the Cumberland under General Grant and fought in many of the skirmishes of that army. I was at the Siege of Vicksburg. I was all through the battle of the Wilderness and on to the end of that campaign. I was at the Siege of Knoxville. I was taken prisoner at the Battle of Petersburg. I was in Libby Prison, Castle Thunder, and Belle Isle. From there I was moved as a prisoner to Salisbury, N. C. and was paroled from there.

"At the end of the war I went back to Marquette, and was with my father again for several years. I was married about this time for the first time. I went to work for the first railroad soon after it was built—when the road ran only from Marquette to Isphing. I went from there to Port Huron, Mich., working on the railroad. From Port Huron I moved to Yankton, North Dakota, running on the railroad from Yankton to Sioux City, Iowa. This was along in the '70s. I moved from Yankton to Kansas City, Mo. in the latter part of the '70s, still railroading. From Kansas City I moved to San Antonio, Texas and worked as brakeman on railroad running to Columbus, Texas, on the Southern Pacific Ry. About 1880 I moved from San Antonio, Texas to Grand Lake, La. Grand Lake was a post office about twenty-five miles off the railroad, south of Lake Charles, La. The post office has since been discontinued and is now served by Motor Route A, from Lake Charles, La. I worked for J. B. Watkins on the North American Land and Timber Co. Upon leaving their employ I started a blacksmithing and wagon repair shop at Grand Lake, La. and since that time have been including hunting, fishing and trapping as part of my work. For eight years I was Post Master at Grand Lake, La. up to within a year of the time this office was discontinued."

10313 Walter Stanley Eddy (Charles, William, William, Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. June 17, 1855, at East Corinth, Me.; d. Aug. 4, 1918, Saginaw, Mich. He never married. The following are sentences taken from an editorial in a Saginaw newspaper written at the time of his death. They show the esteem in which he was held by his fellow citizens.

> One is gone from among us who can but illy be spared, in these trying times when we need all our strong men as never before, men of forceful character, men who have gained by experience, added store of wisdom; men of true and sterling Americanism. Such a man was Walter S. Eddy.
> Here was indeed a strong and forceful man, of long and valuable experience in affairs, with wide and deep knowledge of other men, one whose Americanism was bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh, the kind of American whose wide-awake mind enabled him to realize the severity and magnitude of the struggle in which we are engaged and whose knowledge but increased his determination and spurred him to further and increased effort.
> In the history of Saginaw Valley in particular and of Michigan in general the name of Eddy will always stand for achievement. The family has played well its part in forwarding the development, progress and prosperity of this section of the state, as well as being elsewhere largely interested and of the members of that family none applied himself with more energy or with more of keenness and intelligently directed effort than Walter S. Eddy.
> He took an active part in affairs though he and public office of any kind always remained strangers. Any cause to which he pledged his support was assured not only of unfaltering loyalty to that pledge but of most determined effort to win. . . . Mr. Eddy was a large and bountiful giver, a long practitioner of that kind of charity which is of the heart and though he was an adept in concealing his benevolences, giving, on the scale and with the continuity with which he practiced it, cannot be altogether concealed from knowledge.

10314 Arthur Dunning Eddy (Charles, William, William, Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. July 7, 1861, Ottawa, Canada; d. Apr. 22, 1925, Saginaw, Mich.; m. Sept. 14, 1909, at Toledo, Ohio, Charlotte Himes; b. June 14, 1876, at Toledo; dau. of Fred W. and Mary Jane (Brigham) Himes. They had no children.

The following extracts from newspapers show the type of man he was and the regard that his fellow citizens had for him.

> Losing a valiant battle against intense suffering, Arthur D. Eddy died at his home of general toxaemia. He was one of the outstanding citizens of Saginaw, an active factor in Saginaw's business and industrial development, a substantial figure in financial circles, a firm believer in the city's future and a real builder for it. But he gained perhaps wider attention as commander in chief of Saginaw's great war work and was a prime mover, first president and heaviest contributor to the Welfare League. He gave liberally to worthy causes and many are the unrecorded instances of his assistance to individuals.
> He was forceful and energetic, frank, determined, able, conscientious, public-spirited, intensely patriotic and charitable,—deeply interested in the underprivileged and the unfortunate. His work in the establishment and success of the Saginaw Welfare league will not soon be forgotten. His part in the industrial and civic development of the city will long be felt.
> In his will he bequeathed one third of his large estate to the public. This fund is to be known as the C. K. Eddy Memorial Fund, and the income is to be devoted to public works of service, mercy, charity, education and public entertainment.
> My father came to Saginaw in 1865 with practically no capital but his energy and ability, and became engaged in the lumber business. In 1893 he organized the C. K. Eddy and Sons, a corporation under the laws of Michigan, consolidated all of his property holdings into this one corporation; and then divided the capital stock thereof equally among the five remaining members of his family, comprising himself and four living children; by reason of his foresight and the sound principles of hard work and thrift which he himself practised and instilled into his children, the family interests were held together as a unit and through the joint efforts of all, the business gradually grew and prospered. Out of this accumulated property is now to be created the "C. K. Eddy Family Memorial Fund" herein described, and it is my earnest hope that the people of Saginaw, whom I have always loved, and their posterity, may be permanently benefited thereby.
> The third thus given to the public is more than a million dollars and of this twenty percent is for educational purposes to be used for "financing in full or in part deserving boys and girls, and men and women from fifteen to thirty years of age, residents of Saginaw Co., Mich., in their endeavors to continue their education in any of the public schools, colleges or universities of the state of Michigan."

10321 John Franklin Eddy (Jonathan, Ware, Ibrook, Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. Mar. 23, 1848; (also given Feb. 23) at Bangor, Me.; d. Dec. 13, 1899, in Florida; m. Sept. 5, 1871, at Bay City, Mich., Charlotte Whittemore of Rome, N. Y.; dau. of John and . . . (Glover) Whittemore.

After the death of his father, John Eddy transferred his business to Michigan, where Jonathan had already purchased great tracts of pine forests. He was most successful, accumulating a fortune, and becoming one of the leading lumbermen of the state. He was president of the First Nat'l Bank; a leader and supporter of the Universalist Church, and interested in all the projects pertaining to the welfare of the city. He was identified with banking and lumber interests not only in Michigan, but also in the South and the Pacific coast. His lumbering firms were Eddy, Avery & Eddy, and Eddy Bros. & Co. He also built and operated ships on the Great Lakes.

Jan. 28, 1874, at Bucksport, Me., Elizabeth Genn; b. Oct. 22, 1853, Bucksport, Me.; d. Jan. 3, 1889, dau. of William and Rachel (Cobb) Genn.

Charles Eddy left Maine and settled in Michigan, where he felt that there were greater opportunities for the carrying on of the lumber business. He resided in Saginaw for a time but later moved to Bay City, where he became one of its most prominent citizens.

Children (Fam. Rec.):
+10860 Kirty Stuart Eddy, b. Nov. 4, 1874, at Bucksport, Me.
+10861 Fred Genn Eddy, b. Mar. 12, 1876, at Bucksport, Me.

10323 Newell Avery Eddy (Jonathan, Ware, Ibrook, Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. May 20, 1856, Bangor, Me.; d. Feb. 28, 1917, at Bay City, Mich.; m. Feb. 9, 1880, at Bangor, Marianna McRuer Field (Field Gen.); b. Dec. 21, 1859, at Bangor; dau. of Dr. Edward Mann and Sarah (McRuer) Field. Edward Field was a graduate of Bowdoin in 1845 and received the degree of M.D. at Jefferson Medical College in 1849; he also studied medicine at medical colleges in London and Paris and was greatly interested in hospitals.

Newell Eddy was a member of the American Association for the advancement of Science and of the Audubon Society. He belonged to the Presbyterian Church. His friends were the young men of the town. No appeal from a youngster, who was willing to help himself, was ever ignored. If he had been asked what he considered his most successful undertaking he would have replied the score of younger men which he had helped to establish in Bay City. His own part in the welfare of the town was considerable. His lumber business was successful and important and to its management were added a share in the control of many profitable enterprises. He was president of the Smalley Motor Co.; secretary and general manager of the Penobscot Mining and of the Platt Mining Co.; secretary of the Eddy, Shaw, Lake Transit and of the Eddy Bros. Companies; treasurer of the Eddy Investment Co. and director of two banks and on the school board as well as in several other public offices. He occupied a position in that small group of men whose cooperation is considered indispensable to the success of every serious undertaking. His career was the outcome of sense and sincerity, which were his characteristics from youth. His boyhood's enthusiasm for wild birds developed in later life into an expert collector's knowledge of birds and their eggs of which he possessed the largest collection in Michigan. His contributions on ornithology earned for him the position of Smithsonian representative of the Central West. (Article by Miss Clara Avery.)

10362 Selwyn Eddy (Edwin, Eleazar, Ibrook, Jonathan, Eleazar, John of T), b. Mar. 25, 1847, at Bradley, Me.; d. Oct. 12, 1911, at Oakland, Cal.; m. Sept. 21, 1869, Cornelia Clorinda Hall; b. Feb. 7, 1849, in Mich.; d. June 13, 1917, at Oakland, Cal.; dau. of Hiram and Clarinda (Glover) Hall.

The following abstract is taken from The American Lumberman. It was written soon after the death of Selwyn Eddy, in 1911. Selwyn Eddy was a man of a dynasty, so to speak, of lumbermen honorably famous. So far as the term dynasty may appropriately be applied to a long line of ancestry inseparably interlinked with the lumber industry of the American continent, so far it may be applied to the Eddy family, a family of American lumbermen with its genesis on the shores of the Atlantic, its later tenure on and adjoining the waters of the great inland lakes, and its surviving and now pending operations within sound of the waves of the Pacific. Mr. Eddy's ancestors were of sturdy capable, irreproachable stock. The ancestral founder in Maine was Col. Jonathan Eddy, who had earned renown as an Indian fighter in his younger days and later as a defender of the Revolution. For these services he was accorded honorable recognition by the Federal Congress and two separate grants of land, one in Maine and the other in Ohio. The first was taken up and retained, the other was abandoned only later to attain great value as the site of Columbus, Ohio. At this time the Penobscot River was skirted with great forests. Col. Jonathan Eddy together with others began the development of a lumber trade. Later a firm composed of a descendant of Jonathan Eddy, Simon J. Murphy and Newell Avery and their heirs in one relation or another have been inseparable from that day to this. Probably no more remarkable instance of tenacious mutual loyalty and confidence could be cited in the history of American lumbering. Each of the sons became interested with the others in the active pursuits of the expanding operations of the old house.

In 1850 an expedition into the unbroken fastnesses of the Saginaw Valley forests, which were of tremendous proportions and unsurpassed character was organized by the firm and it resulted in the acquisition of large holdings by Eddy, Avery and Co. The interrelations and the personal relations of the various members of the family to each other and to the allied affairs of all constitute a wonderful chapter in the history of the family. Their sturdiness of character, their high business ideals and standards have left an ineffaceable mark upon the Saginaw Valley. In 1904 the Eddys again went to the west and the Pacific Lumber Co. was founded with Selwyn Eddy at its head. They are now interested in a large fleet of steel freighting steamships.

Aside from his large lumbering interests, Selwyn Eddy was identified with banking and several other business enterprises. In politics he was a Republican. He was among the founders and governing personnel of two banks in Bay City; a stockholder and director of the Bay City Sugar Co. and of the Wallaceburg Sugar Co. as well as of various other corporations, including certain mining interests in Arizona. He took an untiring interest in civic affairs and was regarded as a devoted, sagacious and high-minded citizen.

Mr. Eddy spent his boyhood days in Utah and Montana and graduated from the University of California. In July 1906 he enlisted in the Navy and passed through the various grades to Hospital Apprentice, 1st Class. He purchased his discharge from the Navy in 1908 and entered the drug business with his brother Wynn. Later he studied at the College of Pharmacy at the University of Cal. He became editor of the Pacific Pharmacist and manager of a drug company in San Francisco. He is now president of the New York Branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association and connected with allied societies. He also writes for periodicals and magazines. He served in the World War in France as a photographer with the Air Service. In this capacity he was sent to the Front on a special mission and made thousands of pictures from airplanes and observation balloons.

He organized and led the only expedition that ever has navigated the Colorado River at high water. Fourteen major expeditions have met with defeat or disaster on the Colorado in the last sixteen years and in that time only one other expedition, that of the U. S. Geological Survey, has gone through the Canyon all the way (800 miles) from Greenriver, Utah, to Needles, California.

On his return from the Colorado River, in 1927, he was appointed Director of Education and Research for the Bray Pictures Corporation. In November and December he returned to the Grand Canyon, in connection with the Pathe-Bray Colorado River expedition.

Barton Eddy was a Methodist Episcopal clergyman. He began his ministry when very young. He married a college classmate and they entered the missionary field. They sailed for India, Nov. 3, 1883. He became assistant pastor to Dr. Thorburn in Calcutta, while he was learning the language. He was then given charge of the work with sailors and had just received his appointment as principal of the Baldwin Schools at Bengalore and had served only six weeks when death came in Jan. 1886. Mrs. Eddy remained a year in India and then returned to America. She did evangelistic work for a while and then taught in the Methodist Mission school in Salt Lake City and later in the Agricultural School in Logan, Utah. She was then appointed professor of history in her Alma Mater, Baldwin University, at Berea, O. In 1903 she returned to India, where she was given charge of the Taylor High School at Poona. After six years of this work she returned again to America on a furlough, but because of her ill-health did not go back to India. She is now a teacher in the Chicago Evangelistic Institute.

Rev. Henry Nelson was a famous minister of St. Louis. He was at one time "moderator" of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. The Sunday after Lincoln's death Mr. Nelson was called to Springfield, Ill. to preach the funeral service in Lincoln's own church. At that time he was presented with a picture of Lincoln, which the family values greatly. William King Eddy was born of missionary parents on the missionary field and with the exception of the years at Princeton, from which he graduated in 1875, and the work at the Theological Seminary, he spent his whole life in Syria. He was thus especially equipped for the carrying on of the work of his father and soon became one of the strongest, most active and capable missionaries in the field. His knowledge of the Arabic language was his Syrian heritage. He lived plainly, was much with the people, and entered heartily and tactfully into the "round of their daily lives." He had a thorough mastery of Turkish law and preeminent ability to cope with official and unofficial abusers of that law. His general executive ability was a large factor in his success.

She was the first woman to be admitted to the medical profession in Turkey. In order to obtain certification as a doctor, she had to study the Turkish language, which is different from that spoken in Syria, which is Arabic. Then she was obliged to take an examination in the Turkish language at Constantinople. She made the diseases of the eye her special field and was wonderfully successful in her work. By the Arabs she was considered a prophetess of Allah, who had been sent to cure the blind. Her reputation spread through all Arabia and she was greatly beloved by all who had any dealings with her.

11145 Ruth Margaret Eddy (William, William, Chauncey, Leveus, John, John, Eleazar, John of T), b. Apr. 9, 1886, in Syria. She is now in Syria where she is a missionary-nurse, carrying on the work of her father and grandfather.

Note. During the winter of 1924, Mr. Samuel Alden Eddy was traveling in the western part of the U. S. As was his custom, he called upon as many Eddys as he could find in any of the towns through which he passed. In one town he found a Syrian, who said that his name was Eddy. It seems very likely that this man's father or grandfather upon coming to this country, and desiring to have an American name, chose that one with which he had been most familiar, or the name of the family to which he owed gratitude in his Syrian homeland.

11146 Dora Elizabeth Eddy (William, William, Chauncey, Leveus, John, John, Eleazar, John of T), b. Mar. 17, 1887, in Syria; m. Feb. 16, 1917, Harold Wilberforce Close; b. May 16, 1888, at Rochester, N. Y.

Children (Fam. Rec.):

William Simonson Eddy (11514)

Genealogist of the New Jersey Branch

JOHN EDDY OF NEW JERSEY AND HIS DESCENDANTS

FOREWORD

Several years ago Mr. William Simonson Eddy of New York City became greatly interested in his branch of Eddys, which had for several generations lived on Staten Island. As no published genealogy of the Eddy Family contained any reference to this branch, he began to collect data concerning it and traced it back to a John Eddy of Woodbridge, N. J., who married at Woodbridge on March 31, 1706, Elizabeth Edwards, the daughter of James and Alison (Neell) Edwards. His search then turned to New England. In the Registry of Deeds of Bristol County, Mass., he found a deed dated Jan. 8, 1713/14 given by John Eddy, blacksmith, with a wife Elizabeth Eddy, in which they sold all their holdings in Swansea to Major James Brown of Newport. The Registry contained no later reference to this John Eddy. The natural conclusion was that he moved to New Jersey, where in Woodbridge the Vital Records contain a list of the births of the children of John and Elizabeth Eddy from 1707 to 1725. There seemed to be no reason to question this line of descent of the New Jersey Eddys from Samuel Eddy of Plymouth until about three years ago, when the chance discovery of an old deed proved that when John Eddy left Swansea after the sale of the Swansea lands, he purchased of the same Major James Brown and wife Ann of Newport, some of their property in Newport and went there to live. Both died there, so that it is impossible to call the John Eddy of Swansea and the John Eddy of New Jersey the same person.

Since this discovery in the Rhode Island Historical Society of the copy of the old deed, Mr. Horace Dickerman, another descendant of John Eddy of New Jersey, has spent much time in research trying to find some clue which would connect the New Jersey branch with the New England Eddys, but up to the present time without success. He has discovered that a John Adye was in Burlington, New Jersey, as early as 1682.

Whether John Eddy of Woodbridge, New Jersey, was related to either John Eddy of Watertown or Samuel Eddy of Plymouth is not known. It is perhaps not out of place to suggest possibilities. When John Eddy of Watertown made his will on Jan. 11, 1677, he mentioned the fact that his son John had been married the preceding April or May. It is not known whom this son John married or whether he had any children. It is possible that he had a son, John Eddy, who in his early manhood left Watertown and settled in New Jersey or who may have been apprenticed to some man who went to New Jersey and took with him the boy, John Eddy. Moreover, it is not known whether Samuel Eddy of Plymouth had any more sons to grow to maturity than the four whose posterity is given earlier in the book. The presence of a John Eddy in Taunton in 1660 and of William Eddy in Bristol, R. I., in 1696, suggests either that Samuel had more children or else that some of Samuel's relatives joined the families in New England. John Eddy of New Jersey might belong to the same parent as William Eddy of Bristol. These are only suggestions of possibilities and must be taken as such.

John Eddy's name is variously spelled in the New Jersey Records. It occurs as Eddie, Edie, Edey, Adie, Aide, and Adye. The descendants have kept in general two spellings, Eddey and Eddy.

The earliest record found in New Jersey is in the Burlington Court Records (See Stilwell's Miscellany, Vol. II, p. 19), where John Adye and others signed a protest in regard to the retention of the vessel, "Marcy of ffowey," Capt. Wm. Lugger, master, which arrived Aug. 15, 1682, and could not unload because of William Pickering. This protest was dated Sept. 18, 1682, and signed also by John Tefft, Thomas Wall, Charles Pickering, Thomas Phillips, Edward Read and others.

What relationship this John Adye had to the John Eddy of Woodbridge, if any, is not known, but it gives information concerning a branch which was interested in shipping, before 1700. This fact would make it probable that the New Jersey branch was connected with some line whose home was near the coast or even across the water, in England or Scotland. It is worthy of note that this spelling of the name. Adye, is the same as that used by the children of William Adye of Bristol, R. I., in the earliest records, about 1700, and it is well to remember that Bristol is a seaport town and at that time was interested in the coast-trade.

The mother of Elizabeth Edwards was Alison Neell. In 1675 there was a family by the name of Neal in Braintree, Mass. Braintree was the place where John Eddy of Taunton married his second wife in 1672. It is known that Alison Neell in 1701 was living in Stevenston, Parish of Haddington, in the southeastern part of Scotland. Thus far none of these clues has led to anything of value, and they are mentioned here only that they may not be lost.

There is another connection between New Jersey and the New England Eddys. In the early Records of Middlesex Co. under New Brunswick, N. J., it is recorded that the Sloop Sea Flower arrived and was there on Mar. 11, 1721 and that on Mar. 30, 1721, the vessel's crew filed a protest at the City of Perth Amboy, stating that they sailed from Roanoke in N. C. for New York or Perth Amboy, that there was a bad storm and they threw over many things: Samuel Dunham, master; Jonathan Freeman, mate; and Joseph Fenner, foremast. In the New Jersey Archives, Series I, Vol. XI, on page 162, it is recorded that the Sloop Sea Flower from Swansey arrived with John Eady master on Feb. 11, 1728/29. This news item was taken from the American Weekly Mercury of that date. On page 164 of the same volume it is recorded in an item from the same paper that on Feb. 20, 1728/29 the Sloop departed from Perth Amboy outward bound, J. Eady for Swansey, and again on p. 167 "cleared for departure Apr. 3, 1729, Eady for Rhode Island from Perth Amboy."

The John Eady mentioned as master of the Sea Flower was doubtless the oldest son of John and Mary Eddy of Swansea, later of Newport, and brother of Jeremiah Eddy, who also was master of a vessel engaged in the coastwise trade and who appears in records as anchoring in Newport harbor. There is another item concerning the Sea Flower in Vol. XII, which does not mention John Eddy, but is of interest. "On Jan. 18, 1739 At the Inferior Court of Common Pleas held at Newport the Sloop Sea Flower, now lying in Harbor of Newport, whereof John Watson of Perth Amboy was late Master. This is therefore to give notice to all persons having any share or parts in said ship that she is to be put up at public Vendue the 20th day of February next in order to satisfy Judgment."

The following posterity of John Eddy of New Jersey (with the exception of the branch descended from James and Miriam (Wilkerson) Eddy) has been worked out by Mr. William Simonson Eddy and contributed by him for this book. Mr. Horace Dickerman by his researches has traced his own descent from John and Elizabeth Eddy and has added many other details and interesting facts. To these two belong the whole credit of the following work.

11343 John Eddy of Woodbridge, N. J. (parentage unknown), b. probably about 1680; d. after 1734; m. Mar. 31, 1706, at Woodbridge, N. J., by Samuel Hale, Justice of the Peace, to Elizabeth Edwards; dau. of James Edwards and his wife Alison Neell of Stevenston of the Parish of Haddington, Scotland. The dates of her birth and death are not known.

James Edwards (spelled Jeames Edwards) in his will proved Nov. 25, 1719, refers to his eldest daughter, Elizabeth Eadea. On the 15th of Feb. 1700/01, Thomas Cesford gave a receipt to James Edwards of Freehold, N. J., for money to be paid to Alison Neell of Stevenston, Parish of Haddington, wife of said Edwards. Haddington is a parish to the east and south of Edinboro, not very far distant from the English border. There were Alison Families in Woodbridge and also in York Co., Pa. Probably these were of Scottish origin. The marriage of John Eddy to a girl of Scottish ancestry would account for the Scottish names found among the children, namely, Alison, or Ellison as it is frequently spelled, Gavin or Gawen, Jean and Robert, and it might also suggest a Scottish ancestry for this branch of Eddys.

The earliest record that has been found which relates to John Eddy of Woodbridge is dated Mar. 28, 1703, when he appears together with Thomas Pike as a witness to the will of Thomas Gauge of Woodbridge (New Jersey Archives, Vol. XXIII, p. 182). Doubtless this Thomas Gauge, or Gach, as name was more often spelled, was the grandfather of Mary Gach, who married James Eddy, son of John.

In these earliest records the name Eddy is variously spelled. In the Freeholder's Book A, is the record Allison Aide was b. August ye second, 1707, dau. of John Aide and Elizabeth, his wife; also Marien Aide, dau. of above was born January ye 29, 1708/09, and James Aide, son of above, born Feb. 8, 1710. When John witnessed the will of Thomas Gauge (Gach) he signed Adie. When the son Robert was born the name appears as Eddye. In the marriage record of John to Elizabeth it is spelled Edie. In 1719 when he purchased land at the sale of the estate of Robert King, it is spelled Edey and in purchasing land in 1727 he spelled it Eddie. From these records it is very clear that the spelling of the name varied, probably because scribes wrote the various records. As time went on two spellings seem to have been used, Eddy and Eddey. To avoid confusion in the records the lists of children have been given with the name spelled Eddy, as that is the spelling used by the greater number.

On Dec. 23, 1709 (Freeholder's Book A) it is recorded that "The earmark of John Adde for cattle, swine, etc. is a hollow Cropp on ye top of ye right ear and a half cropp on ye fore side of ye left ear." In 1744 this mark was given to James Adie as his mark.

On Oct. 28, 1709, John Adie, husbandman, purchased of Josias Marlatt, both being of Woodbridge, N. J., for £11, 30 acres of land. (Middlesex, N. J. Early Rec.) The witnesses to the deed were Samuel Dennis and George Ewbank. The deed was ack. before Peter Soumans on Feb. 7, 1709/10.

On Jan. 16, 1709, from John Foreman he purchased 22 acres for £20. On Oct. 8, 1715, John Adie, Planter, purchased from Thomas Colier (or Collier) land at Horseneck in Woodbridge . . . layed out in Aug. 1715. . . . bounded by John Ilshire. This deed was witnessed by Adam Hude and Thomas Price. This was a purchase of 10 acres for £13. On Mar. 1, 1727, John Eddie of Woodbridge purchased land in "Horseneck", from James Smith (Trenton Deeds C. 3, p. 132) being 4¾ acres for £5.

In 1734 John Adie, yeoman, of Woodbridge, N. J., sold to Henry Moores, yeoman, 67 acres in Woodbridge, being ½ part of the 1st Division Lot, originally laid out to John Foreman, Thomas Collier, Stephen Kent and Nathaniel Fitz-Randolph, who were among the original settlers of Woodbridge. A part of his land bordered on the Church Property. (See plat in Freeholder's book, Folio 84, p. 172.)

On Oct. 15, 1719, John Edey and Robert Heays are mentioned in the settlement of the estate of Robert King of Woodbridge, and on Nov. 15, 1719, he was one who bought at Vendue a portion of the estate of Robert King (New Jersey Records, Vol. XXIII, p. 275).

On Mar. 20, 1754 a John Eddy purchased land from John Smith, about 30 acres for £10, but it is not clear from the records whether this was John, son of John Eddy, or the father. It is possible that after selling the land in 1734, the elder John Eddy went farther west to York Co., Pa. and is the John Eddy who died there about 1751. From the names of the Eddys in York Co. and from the fact that John Eddy, Jr., one of the New Jersey Eddys, owned land in York Co., Pa., as is shown by his will, it is to be inferred that there is a very close relationship between the York Co. Eddys and the Eddys of Woodbridge. There are many other families in the two places bearing the same names, a fact which would seem to suggest a very close relationship between the two places.

The births of the children are recorded in the Freeholder's Book A of Woodbridge. In Book A, just before the Index is another Index of Vital Records which has another list of the children with a slight difference. Jean appears as Jane; Gavin is Gawin, and Robert has the spelling Eddye for his surname. Hereafter the spelling Eddy will be used in lists.

Children (name generally spelled Aide and Adie):

+11344 ELLISON EDDY, b. Aug. 8, 1707 (also spelled Alison and Elison).
11345 MERIAM EDDY, b. Jan. 25, 1708/09 (name also spelled Marien).
+11346 JAMES EDDY, b. Feb. 27, 1710/11.
11347 JEAN EDDY, b. Dec. 28, 1712.

11355 EDWARD CROWELL, m. SARAH . . . and among his children were Benjamin, Samuel, David of Newark, Abner, and Mrs. Campbell.

11346 James Eddy (John of N. J.), b. Feb. 25, 1710/11; d. Aug. 19, 1792; m. May 29, 1743, at Woodbridge, N. J. (Vol. XXII, p. 122) Mary Gach; dau. of Thomas and Elizabeth (Bloodgood) Gach, b. Feb. 11, 1724; d. Sept. 8, 1789. Both James Eddy and Mary are buried in the Presbyterian Churchyard at Metuchen, N. J.

James left a will dated July 28, 1792, which mentions all of his children except Susannah. His will was probated at New Brunswick, Aug. 27, 1792, and the Inventory, taken Aug. 28, 1792, showed a value of £423–9–10. Thomas Gach, father of Mary Gach, wife of James, was a friend and neighbor of James Eddy at Woodbridge and as was customary in those days permission to marry had to be given in writing by the parents and recorded, hence there appears in the N. J. "Marriage Licenses," Book E, 1736–1792, "James Eddy and Mary Gach of Woodbridge, married May 29, 1743, and the signed permission of Thomas Gach." James Eddy was an executor of Thomas Gach's will, dated April 12, 1763 and probated Mar. 9, 1770. James resided at Woodbridge, where he inherited from his father some property. On Apr. 11, 1774, he was moderator of the Town Meeting at Woodbridge, and on June 2, 1766, he was made Surveyor of Highways.

During the Revolutionary War he served as a private in Capt. Carter's Co.; Col. Sylvanus Seeley's Reg't, Eastern Battalion, Morris Co. New Jersey Militia. He was a member of a War Commission which met May 7, 1778. His sons also served in the War.

Children, b. at Woodbridge, N. J.:

11357 James Eddy.
11358 Samuel Eddy. He inherited property from his father at Woodbridge. During the Revolutionary War he served as a private, enlisting in the spring of 1778 in the 1st Reg't of Middlesex Co. Militia and he served in various regiments. He was in the Battle of Monmouth, June 28, 1778 and also in the defense of the frontiers of N. J. from June to December of 1779.
+11359 William Eddy, b. Dec. 6, 1753.
11361 Jane Eddy.
11362 Martha Eddy.
11363 Elizabeth Eddy.
11364 Sarah Eddy, m. Nov. 29, 1768, Thomas Heath of Middlesex (N. J. Archives XXII); who d. 1810.
11365 Esther Eddy.
11366 Susannah Eddy.

11350 John Eddy (John of N. J.), b. Jan. 29, 1719, at Woodbridge, N. J.; d. Sept. 1759, aged 40 years; m. Hannah Crowell; dau. of Seth and Mary (Crowell) Crowell and half-sister of Seth Crowell, Jr. After the death of John Eddy, she mar. (2) Mr. . . . Clark of Green Village (Bible of Seth Crowell, Jr., owned by Eliza (James) Douglas of Morristown).

John Eddy left a will, dated Sept. 4, 1759, probated Sept. 27, 1759 at Elizabethtown, in which he mentions children under age, but does not give their names. He gives "to my several children to be equally divided for the bringing up of the children which God has given me." He mentions wife Hannah, and Seth Crowell, "my true and trusty friend" and brother Gawen Eddy of Middlesex Co. The witnesses were Stephen Moorhouse, Thomas Darling and Edward Crowell. The will was proved in 1759 and the Inventory filed Oct. 17, 1760, taken by Seth Crowell, Sr., Gawen Eddy, and Hannah Eddy (her mark) and witnessed by Richard Minthorn. (Book G.) He mentions property which he owned in Morris Co., N. J., and York Co., Pa.

Children (list perhaps not complete):

+11367 Thomas Eddy, b. 1756.
+11368 James Eddy, b. 1749.
+11369 John Eddy, b. 1751.
+11370 Elizabeth Eddy.
11371 Mary Eddy, m. . . . Munson. Her children were Hannah, Samuel and Lewis.

11351 Gawen Eddy (John of N. J.), b. in Woodbridge, N. J., Feb. 17, 1721; m. Sarah Cotheal; dau. of William Cotheal.

William Cotheal in his will, Apr. 15, 1761, refers to daughter Sarah Eddy and appoints as executors "my sons" Gawen Eddy and Henry Cotheal. On Dec. 28, 1765, Henry Cotheal of Woodbridge, by will, leaves "the other half to my brother, Going Eddye" "for oldest sons."

(NOTE. In Washington Co., O., on Aug. 21, 1861, there was a Going Eddy, who was 40 years of age. He enlisted in a Virginia Regiment. At this same time there were also a Going Eddy, Jr., aged 15 years; David, aged 24; Alpheus, aged 18; William, aged 13; and Alfred, aged 32. Some of these enlisted also. Perhaps this group were descendants of the New Jersey Gawen who appears also as Going Eddy.)

Gawen Eddy is mentioned in the will of his brother, John Eddy, and he appears on the inventory taken of the possessions of John on Sept. 26, 1759. In the Freeholder's Book "B" is the statement that the "ear mark with which Gawen Eddy marks his cattle is a crop off left and a slit in the crop." Dated Feb. 5, 1759. On Apr. 4, 1761, Joseph Merry made a will in which he left to "William Eddy, £5, to be in the care of his father, Gawen Eddy, until William is 21."

Child (perhaps incomplete list):

11372 WILLIAM EDDY.

11354 Seth Crowell (Ellison Eddy, John of N. J.), b. about 1745, in Morris Co.; m. Joanna Parkhurst (Rec. of First Presbyterian Church at Morristown). He died previous to Apr. 22, 1817.

He served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Capt. Benjamin Carter's Co., Col. Sylvanus Seeley's Eastern Battalion, Morris Co., N. J. Militia, 1778. On cert. 279 and 445 (Adj. Gen. Office) he received certain sums because of the depreciation of his pay.

Children:

11373 HANNAH CROWELL, b. Nov. 17, 1765; d. Apr. 11, 1809; m. Jan. 16, 1788, STEPHEN LINDSLEY; son of John. Their children were David, Anna, Phebe, Seth, Moses.
11374 RHODA CROWELL, bapt. Feb. 1, 1767; m. DANIEL LINDSLEY.

11376 SILAS CROWELL, b. Sept. 4, 1771; d. May 24, 1814, at Green Village. N. J.; m. AGNES ROBERTS. They had a daughter, Catherine, who married George Baird.
11377 MOSES CROWELL, b. Jan. 1, 1774; m. CHARLOTTE MEEKER.
11378 PHOEBE CROWELL, d. Dec. 21, 1823; m. ABRAHAM TUNIS SCHENCK.
11379 ESTHER CROWELL, b. Dec. 31, 1775.

11356 Thomas Eddy (James, John of N. J.), b. 1744, in Woodbridge, N J.; d. 1825; m. Easter . . . .

His will dated Mar. 19, 1823, probated Feb. 8, 1825 (N. J. Wills, Files of 1824-1827) left his estate wholly to wife Easter for her life. After her death the property is equally divided between the two children. The property consisted of the homestead farm adjoining Messrs. Coddington, Gach, and Gibson, also a woodlot of his father, James Eddy. He mentioned also brother Samuel Eddy. The executors were his son Thomas and his son-in-law John Valentine. The witnesses were Jonathan Harned, Sr., Sarah Gilman and Cornelius Harned.

Children:

+11380 THOMAS EDDY.
11381 MARY EDDY, m. JOHN VALENTINE.

11359 William Eddy (James, John of N. J.), b. Dec. 6, 1753, at Woodbridge; d. at Woodrow, Staten Island, N. Y., May 27, 1831; m. Sept. 8, 1782, Catherine Du Bois; b. Jan. 31, 1761; d. at Woodrow on June 10, 1833.

He inherited property from his father in Woodbridge. While on a visit to Staten Island, during the Revolutionary War, owing to the refusal of a pass or the protracted delay in securing the same he was detained upon the island, which the British held at that time. It is handed down by tradition that he made the visit with a team of oxen which he left at Perth Amboy, N. J., before crossing to the island. These oxen were tied to a post and their whereabouts or disposal was never known. The visit was to have been a brief one but circumstances willed it otherwise. Probably forming some attachment for the island, he concluded to remain and eventually he made it his permanent residence. He purchased a farm in Woodrow in the town of Westfield, on the island, where he engaged in agricultural pursuits and on which he resided with his wife until his death in 1831. He and his wife were buried in the Methodist Episcopal Churchyard. Their tombstones are still standing to mark the place of their burial.

Children, b. at Staten Island:

11382 James Eddy, b. Aug. 6, 1783; d. Jan 11, 1826. He lived at Alexander Township in Hunterdon Co., N. J. He died intestate. Benjamin Egbert was appointed to administer the estate on Feb. 8, 1826.
+11383 John Eddy, b. Oct. 21, 1785.
+11384 Catherine Eddy, b. Jan. 20, 1792.
+11385 William Eddy, b. Aug. 7, 1794.
+11386 Andrew Eddy, b. Apr. 3, 1801.
+11387 Maria Eddy, b. Nov. 22, 1803.
11388 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Mar. 28, 1812.

11367 Thomas Eddy (John, John of N. J.), b. about 1756; d. Jan. 22, 1813 in his 57th year (gravestone in Presbyterian Churchyard at Madison, N. J.); m. Elizabeth Minthorn; b. about 1759; d. Feb. 26, 1835 in her 76th year (gravestone). The Morristown Herald of Feb. 4, 1813 gives a notice of his death.

It is learned from the records of the Presbyterian Church at Madison, N. J., that Thomas and Elizabeth, his wife, were members. Elizabeth joined Nov. 2, 1787. On Sept. 25, 1795 his name occurs as one of the subscribers to the Meeting House. Others on the list were James Eddy, John Eddy, Daniel Thompson, and Philip Cochran. Thomas left a will dated Jan. 19, 1813 and proved Feb. 11, 1813, in which he mentioned his wife Elizabeth, leaving to her the use of the entire estate with the privilege of disposing of one-third at her death as she should see fit. He made a bequest of $100 for the support of the Gospel in the Parish of Bottle Hill. "My friend Zopher Freeman" and the wife, Elizabeth, were the executors, and David Freeman, Jacob Pierson and Jacob Allen were the witnesses of the will. When Elizabeth died (Trenton Files, 1511 N) she left a will and in it made bequests to Jacob Minthorn; Thomas E. Allen; Mary Elizabeth Allen; Mary, wife of Jacob Allen; Catherine, wife of George Baird; Philemon Depoe and Eliza Howell.

After her death William Eddy and Crowell Eddy petitioned for a division of the property left by Thomas, which was not disposed of by Elizabeth. They stated that Thomas left two sisters and two brothers, all deceased. The heirs were the children of his brother, John Eddy, dec'd; the children of his brother, James Eddy, dec'd; the children of his sister Elizabeth Losey, dec'd; and of his sister Mary Munson, dec'd. As the names of all the children are given, it is proof of the full list of descendants of John and Hannah (Crowell) Eddy. These names follow in the accounts of their parents.

11368 James Eddy (John, John of N. J.), b. 1749; d. 1831 (gravestone); m. Dec. 8, 1772, Marian (or Miriam) Wilkerson; bapt. Mar. 15, 1752; d. July 16, 1845; dau. of Thomas and Hannah (Crowell) Wilkerson. They lived in Chatham at one time.

The records of the First Presbyterian Church at Morristown, N. J., contain the statement that Miriam Eddy, wife of James, joined the church on July 3, 1772. In 1795 he was one of those that subscribed to the Meeting House. He served in the Revolutionary War, according to traditions handed down in the family. He left a will (Trenton Files, 2380). He and his wife, who died at the age of 94 years, are buried in the Presbyterian Churchyard at Madison, N. J.

Children (list of heirs of Thomas Eddy):

He lived in Green Village and was a member of the First Presbyterian Church to which he contributed in 1795, when subscriptions for a Meeting House were taken. He left a will in which he mentions his daughter, Mary Roll, and speaks of the children of his son, William Eddy, calling them, "the boys and the girls." The executors of the will were William Eddy, William Roll, and Silas Lindsley. The witnesses were John Pierson, Jacob Allen, and Stephen Freeman. William Roll refused the executorship. The Presbyterian Church files show that Phebe Eddy, the widow of John Eddy, was admitted to membership upon examination in 1826.

Children, b. in Green Village, N. J.:
+11396 William Eddy.
+11397 Mary Eddy.

He was born in Woodrow, in the town of Westfield, where the early years of his life were devoted to the work of the farm with a brief period at school during the winter months. When about seventeen he began to learn the trade of a carpenter, which he completed in about four years. He then married the daughter of a man of considerable means. He purchased from his father a farm of eleven acres and settled thereon, building a house which is still standing. At the death of his father he received one half of his father's farm, which adjoined that which he had already purchased, making in all 26 acres upon which he lived for over sixty years. For awhile he conducted a country store, but finally abandoned it.

He was elected constable and collector for Westfield township, serving several years in that capacity, and was subsequently made assessor. He was then elected supervisor and later filled a second term as assessor. Many years of his life were spent in the public service. He often secured his re-election by the votes of the opposite party, because of his strict adherence to a sense of justice and sound judgment. He was a staunch Democrat of the old type and remained so all his life.

He was a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Richmond, S. I., but when a new rector came, with whose views Mr. Eddy did not agree, he withdrew and joined the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Woodrow in 1858. He was made trustee and treasurer of the church and had charge of the distribution of the fund for the poor of the parish, and because of his accuracy in financial matters won the confidence and esteem of those with whom he came in contact. He was a devout Christian and a man of sterling integrity, devoted to his family and home. In 1884 he removed to Tottenville, S. I., where he built a house, which he occupied as long as he lived. He then joined the St. Paul's M. E. Church, of which church he was a member at the time of his death.

Catherine Poillon was descended from a wealthy, intellectual and highly respected French family. Her father owned a large estate of about 200 acres on the south side of Staten Island, located south of what is now known as New Dorp, with a large extent of water-front, now called Midland Beach. He owned a large number of slaves who worked the farm. He was b. Oct. 28, 1770 and died May 7, 1847 and was buried in a vault under the Bedford Street Methodist Episcopal Church in New York City. Mrs. Eddy was a strict Sabbath observer and would tolerate no deviation from her views concerning its observance. She was of a sweet, gentle, loving disposition; patient and forbearing and always interested in the welfare of her family. She was greatly respected in the neighborhood where she lived.

William Eddy was educated in the Public Schools of New York City. He then attended the Centenary Collegiate Institute at Hackettstown, N. J., and followed this by a course in art in the Cooper Union Art School. He entered the Studio of Miss Amalie Ritterhoff in 1896 and after her death in 1903 he carried on the work. His art studio is located at 29 Broadway, N. Y. City. Examples of his work hang in ten of the Royal Palaces of Europe and many of the most prominent organizations of this country have been numbered among his patrons. He is a Mason and a member of several patriotic organizations, among them the Sons of the American Revolution, the Washington Continental Guard, and the Union Society of the Civil War. He has been greatly interested in the early history of his family and is the compiler of the greater part of the New Jersey line of Eddys. He has contributed to the Eddy Family Association of which he is a member the results of his many years of research. He has a beautiful monograph of his own line back to the first John of New Jersey, replete with biographical sketches, pictures of the homes of his ancestors, so far as they could be obtained, and photographs of many of his immediate ancestors. Mrs. Eddy is a descendant of the famous Lewis Family of Virginia and through Edward Doty can trace her line to the Mayflower. Many other of the first families of New Jersey and New York are numbered among her ancestors. Both Mr. and Mrs. Eddy are members of the First Baptist Church of Plainfield, N. J.

Mr. Dickerman is greatly interested in genealogy and has spent much time in adding to the results of the researches of William S. Eddy regarding the history of the branch of John Eddy of New Jersey. He has found the John Adye who was in New Jersey earlier than 1700 and has spent much time trying to find some clue to connect the line with John Eddy of Watertown whose son John "mariade" in 1677, basing his research for clues on the fact that many from Massachusetts Bay settled in New Jersey, and on the fact that one of the daughters of John of New Jersey was named Meriam (or Marien) which perhaps might be because of a connection with the Massachusetts family "Meriam." His knowledge of New Jersey and New England History has been of great assistance in compiling the line. He is a member of various clubs and an active worker in his church at New Haven. He is a graduate of Amherst and has lived in Cleveland, Chicago, Montclair, N. J., New York City, and Philadelphia.

* * * * *

11742 Joseph Eddy, the Michigan Pioneer. According to a record at St. Johns, Clinton Co., Mich., Joseph Eddy, aged 77 years, married Jane Phillips, aged 50 years, at Eagle, Mich. on Oct. 28, 1841. This record, if correct, would place the birth of Joseph at about 1763 or 1764.

Joseph Eddy left a will dated Apr. 13, 1842, which was probated June 6, 1842. He died Apr. 24, 1842, and is buried at Eagle, Mich. He married, first, Naoma (or Navina) Sheldon. The signature to a deed looks like "Navina". On Oct. 28, 1841, he m. Jane Phillips.

He was born in R. I. near Providence, probably in the town of Glocester. No proof of his parentage has been found. But it has been handed down that he had a brother or half brother by the name of John Eddy and that he was one of a large family. According to one account he was the eldest and the rest were his half-brothers. If this last statement is true the only family which would satisfy the conditions is that of Joseph and Mary (Harrington) Eddy. He might be the son of Joseph by an earlier wife. If he were not the eldest son, he might be the son of Enoch and Hannah (Lippitt) Eddy. They had a large family, and among the children there was a John. The name Enoch is characteristic of the latter group and Joseph of the former, while both these names are found very frequently in the Michigan group.

He probably left R. I. when a young man and joined the group of Eddys who were in western Vermont or northwestern Massachusetts. He may be the Joseph Eddy about whom the stories in Hemingway's Gazetteer of Vermont are told,—the early settler in Brandon, Vt. The family tradition is that he emigrated to New York from Vermont and lived far up the Hudson and followed it farther south. The 1790 Census gives a Joseph Eddy in Westfield, Washington Co., N. Y., whose household consisted of one male over 16, one under 16, and two females. It is possible that this Joseph was in Westfield at this time. It is known that he lived for a time in Sodus, N. Y., and it is probably from there that he started on his trip for Michigan. (NOTE. There was another Joseph Eddy with a wife Matilda whose name appears in several transactions in central and western N. Y. at this same period. Care must be taken not to confuse the two Josephs.) On Sept. 20, 1824, Joseph Eddy of Wayne Co., N. Y., purchased from the government the east half of the northwest quarter of Section 34 and the west half of the northwest quarter of Section 35 of the Township of Novi, Michigan, and he and wife Navina (?) sold this on Oct. 23, 1835 (Liber 12, p. 418, Oakland Co., Mich. Deeds).

On Jan. 11, 1836, Joseph Eddy of Oakland Co., Mich., purchased from the government the southeast quarter of Section 17 . . . being in the township of Eagle, Clinton Co. (Liber 31, p. 334.)

The will states that he moved to Eagle in January of 1837. At his death he owned 613 acres in Clinton Co. in Sections 14 and 15 in Eagle and 40 acres in Ionia Township. His widow inherited the latter and moved there after his death. The house was on the outskirts of the village of Portland about eight miles from Eagle.

Until 1827 Novi was called Bloomfield. It was there that Joseph Eddy was one of the first pioneers and established the first cooper's shop. On Section 35 there lived also Zachariah Eddy and his wife. He opened the first shoe-shop. His relationship to Joseph is not known. He was at Novi as early as 1824 and still living in 1837. Probably Abel Eddy who settled early in Oakland Co. and Henry Eddy who was there also as early as 1828 were related, but the relationship is not known.

For a fuller account see Michigan Pioneer Collection, Vol. II, pp. 449–456. In this the statement is made that after leaving the Hud on River section, Joseph settled near Auburn, N. Y., then later moved to Alleghany Co. and finally located in Wayne Co. until that became too civilized for his pioneer spirit. He was obliged to seek a home much farther west. So "he packed up his household goods, gathered his large family together and started on his long journey to the far west." His last abiding place was on the banks of the Looking Glass River, a branch of the Grand River in Clinton Co. During his life he held several offices such as are found necessary in the pioneer settlements.

This life of Joseph Eddy and his descendants has been contributed by Miss Hilah V. Eddy of Detroit and Mr. Emory E. Eddy of Linwood.

11947 Joseph Eddy, b. about 1785; d. Aug. 29, 1833, aged 48 years in Providence (Grave at North End Cem., Prov.); m. Mar. 11, 1804, Ruth Andrews (Friends Rec.) b. about 1784; d. Apr. 6, 1874, aged 90 years (Prov. V.R.); dau. of Benjamin and Sabra Andrews (Death Rec. on file in Prov.).

No proof of the parentage of this Joseph Eddy has been found. Augustus O. Bourn in his notes states that Joseph was the son of Comfort Eddy, but unfortunately neglected to give the authority, so it is not possible to determine whether he learned the fact from some of the older members of the family. It is possible that he was Joseph, the son of Lewis Eddy, or related to the Joseph and Benjamin Eddy who were the ship-builders of Providence. He owned land on Federal St. and also near the Hoyle Tavern in Prov. He ran a stage coach between Providence and Boston.

Children (order of birth not known):

Note. On April 13, 1840 there was a great flood at Simmonsville, R. I. This family was living there at that time. The Mrs. Eddy spoken of in the following account was Ruth (Andrews) Eddy (from the Hist. of Prov. Co., Vol. I, p. 804–806). "A woman named Mrs. Addy was carried down the stream in one-half of her house. She was in bed, an invalid, and could not help herself. Her bed caught against an obstruction and she was saved and lived to tell the story of her narrow escape for more than a third of a century afterward."

11991 Cyril Eddy (Levi, Joel, Benjamin, Obadiah, Samuel, William), b. at Lebanon, in Madison Co., N. Y.; d. in Michigan, in Kent Co.; m. (1) Abigail, who d. 1846, aged 61 yrs., and was buried on the Eddy Farm near Medina, O. He m. (2) in 1858, Dora L. Downer, of Ula, Mich.; dau. of Avery and Melissa (Russell) Downer. . . .

In 1835, five families, the Culvers, Crokers, Eddys, Peltons and one other, left New York, for the section near Medina, O. They journeyed by boat to Cleveland and by stage the rest of the way. On Nov. 7, 1835 Cyril Eddy purchased 100 acres of David King on the Wooster Pike, half-way between Medina and Seville. On this land were many trees, which were cut down, laid in rows and burned, leaving long piles of ashes, which were gathered, leeched, and boiled into crystals of pearl soda. These crystals were taken to Cleveland and refined into soda. This section of the farm was called the "Ashery." The son, Henry Eddy, was engaged in this pursuit as a young man. He gathered the crystals from the surrounding farms and carried them to Cleveland, where he sold them and purchased other commodities which he sold to the neighbors and took his pay in ashes and crystals. His wagon often carried a supply of calico, tea, coffee, flour, and such articles. On one corner of the farm there was a family burial plot, where the graves may still be found.

12047 Cyrus Eddy, b. Mar. 17, 1778 (Bible Rec.) probably in Mass.; d. Aug. 31, 1859, in Adams, N. Y.; m. July 16, 1806, Betsey Baker; b. Feb. 12, 1787; d. Aug. 21, 1858.

A letter written by Justus Eddy in 1878 states that the family was of Mass. origin emigrating from there about 1785 to Clinton, Oneida Co., N. Y.; somewhere near Hamilton College. In 1802 Cyrus went to Adams in Jefferson Co. He had five brothers and a sister. One brother was Benjamin. The rest of the family moved to Champion, Jefferson Co., N. Y. It is known that John Eddy, son of Samuel and Susannah (Merriam) Eddy, went to northern New York and d., aged 72 years, in 1839, in Rutland, N. Y., and that his son John lived in Rutland and his son Reuben lived in Champion, N. Y. It seems most likely that Cyrus Eddy belongs to this branch of the Eddy Family; perhaps he was a younger brother of John. In 1807 Cyrus was a lieut. of a regiment formed and commanded by Paul Sticking, Esq. in Jefferson Co.

The following was contributed by Franklin De Losse Eddy of Grand Rapids, Mich. The traditions concerning the first known ancestor would seem to point to a relationship with the line of Devotion Eddy, but the list of children of Devotion, which has been handed down does not contain a son Edward or Edwin. Further research, however, may prove that it is this branch to which the line belongs.

12104 Edwin (or Edward) Shelley Eddy was b. in one of the Colony states and in the latter part of the years of 1700 was living in northern New York State, perhaps in Herkimer or Steuben Co. His grandson, William H. Eddy, passed on the tradition that Edwin, prior to the Revolutionary War, was a merchant sea-captain, and that his trading vessel was converted into a privateer and operated by its owner (Edwin) in the interest of the American Forces.

Child (list incomplete):

12105 Edwin Shelley Eddy.

12105 Edwin Shelley Eddy, Jr. (Edwin), b. either in the late years of 1700, or early in the years of 1800. He lived in Pittstown, Rensselaer Co., a blacksmith by trade, a man over six feet in height and immensely strong. He would lift a great log of wood from the ground and carry it, a feat which took the united strength of four ordinary men to perform. He could swing a full barrel of flour to his shoulder as easily as an ordinary man could handle a 25-pound sack. He m. Mary (?) Hills, a granddaughter of Guy Hills, who was a titled gentleman of England.

Children (perhaps an incomplete list):

12106 John S. Eddy, b. probably at Pittstown; d. in Wisconsin. He had two sons and two daughters.
+12107 William Henry Eddy, b. in Pittstown, N. Y., Feb. 8, 1832.
12108 Charles Newton Eddy, b. 1836, probably at Pittstown; m. 1865 or 1866, Charlotte Stebbins. They had two sons.
12109 Nancy M. Eddy, b. in N. Y. State; m. James L. Wilder of Oshkosh, Wis. They had two children.

12110 Eliza Eddy, b. in New York State; m. . . . Hummell. They lived at San Antonio, Tex. They had two sons.

12107 William Henry Eddy (Edwin, Edwin), b. in Pittstown, N. Y., Feb. 8, 1832; d. July 31, 1905, at Lowell, Mich.; m. in 1854, Martha Ann Fox, in Rome, N. Y. She was b. Dec. 19, 1831; d. Jan. 14, 1890, at Lowell, Mich. He was a soldier in the Civil War.

Children:

12111 Edwin (or Edward) Shelley Eddy, b. at Rome, N. Y., 1855; d. 1856, at Rome, N. Y.
+12112 Franklin De Losse Eddy, b. May 13, 1859, at Rome, N. Y.
12113 Jennie Eddy, b. Oct. 9, 1861; d. Nov. 5, 1861, at Rome, N. Y.
12114 Minnie Belle Eddy, b. Oct. 9, 1866, at Lowell, Mich.; m. 1898, at Lowell, Mich., Edward R. Pickard. They have two sons. They live at Grand Rapids.
12115 Jessie May Eddy, b. Jan. 16, 1870, at Lowell, Mich.; d. at Syracuse, N. Y. She married, but had no children.

12112 Franklin De Losse Eddy (William, Edwin, Edwin), b. May 13, 1859, at Rome, N. Y.; m. July 3, 1878, at Lowell, Mich., Caroline Clarissa Booth; b. Aug. 11, 1853. They live at Grand Rapids, Mich.

He is a graduate of the Lowell High School and from 1876 to 1881 was clerk and assistant postmaster of Lowell. The following year he entered the railway mail service and then became town clerk of Lowell (1884 to 1892). From 1892 to 1896 he was county clerk of Kent Co., Mich. In 1895 he was admitted as attorney-at-law and counselor. He mustered two companies for the Spanish-American War, as commander of the Michigan Division of the Sons of Veterans of the Civil War. He is now engaged in the sale of real estate and insurance.

12230 John Eddy of Saratoga Co., N. Y. There are several stories about this John. One is that he was an officer in Burgoyne's army and came from England. Another is that he was born in Ireland. The third and the most probable one is that he went to New York from either Connecticut or Massachusetts. There were several Eddy families from New England who settled about Saratoga at this time and it is very likely that he belonged to one of these lines. The tradition is that he married a widow . . . (Thorne) Welsh, who had four daughters, and that he had three children by her.

Children, b. probably at Mt. Morris, N. Y., or Mount Ross, Dutchess Co.: 12231 Nancy Eddy.
+12232 John Eddy.
12233 Daniel Eddy. He went to Hillsdale, Mich.

12232 John Eddy (John), b. Feb. 15, 1780 (Gravestone Rec.); d. Mar. 20, 1857, (G.S.); m. Margaret Miller; b. Apr. 3, 1774; d. Aug. 15, 1838 (G.S.). They are buried at the Whitford Cem., at Saratoga Springs. She was the dau. of Adam Miller. John was a blacksmith at Clairmont and came to Saratoga Springs about 1810, from Dutchess Co. He settled at the place called Eddy's Corners, two miles from Saratoga.

Children:
12234 Maria Eddy, b. 1803; d. 1838; m. Joshua A. Curtis.

For lack of definite information, it has been impossible to arrange the branch of Eddys that settled in Essex County, Mass., early in the eighteenth century. It seems very probable that they are descended from Caleb Eddy of Boston. The old Eddy Genealogy gives children by his second wife only. It is probable that there were some by his first wife Sarah Butcher.

On June 29, 1735, Caleb Edy, shipwright of Boston, together with John Pitts, and Rebecca Walker, widow, sold property which he owned in Marblehead. Wife Hannah sold her dower rights. (Salem Deeds, 68.283.) Since Caleb of Boston had this property in Marblehead, it suggests that these Marblehead Eddys may be of his branch. Except in the case of one family, no attempt has been made to build up a line. For the sake of convenience the whole information obtained is placed here.

12358 Joseph Eddy (also appears as Josias), m. Lydia Mansfield on May 17, 1733, at Salem (V.R.). She was probably the dau. of Sarah Mansfield (widow) and a sister of John Mansfield, who witnessed a deed (Salem Deeds 112, p. 61).

On Apr. 7, 1749 Sarah Mansfield, widow, sold to Josias Edee "one-half a dwelling-house in Salem, the southernmost half." Witnessed by John Mansfield and John Nutting. On Aug. 9, 1762 (Deeds 112.140) Josias Adee of Salem, mariner, sold a piece of beach land. One bound mentioned Timothy Mansfield. On Aug. 4, 1763 Josias Adee of Salem (114.96) sold ½ the dwelling-house, late of Sarah Mansfield in Salem and where I now dwell, bounding on Timothy Mansfield . . . to Samuel Gardner of Salem. Joseph died previous to May 21, 1765, when Matthew and Mary Chubb were appointed to administer the estate. (Salem Probate 8461). The name is here given as Joseph Adie and Joseph Eady and once as Ade. The inventory was declared to be £24-19-6. Among his children were doubtless the two following.

Children:

12359 MARY EDDY, who m. Apr. 7, 1765, at Marblehead, MATTHEW CHUBB.
12360 JOSEPH EDDY, JR., who m. June 14, 1761, MARY SEARLE. He signed a deed Jan. 31, 1769.

Others who were doubtless somehow related were the following:

12361 Daniel Edey, b. about 1740; d. Nov. 24, 1760. He was a soldier in the French and Indian War. His service as given in the Massachusetts Archives was as follows:

Daniel Edey appears on a Return dated Salem, April 14, 1759 of men enlisted or impressed for His Majesty's service in Col. Ichabod Plaisted's Reg't to be put under the command of His Excellency Jeffry Amherst, Esq. General and Commander-in-Chief of His Majesty's forces in North America for the invasion of Canada. Age 19 years. Residence, Danvers. When enlisted, Apr. 2. Remarks, . . . Servant to Samuel Putnam. (Vol. XCVII, p. 143.)

12368 JOHN EDDY of Ipswich, m. Mar. 1780, MRS. BETTY DAVIS. They had a son, William, bapt. May 12, 1781, at Gloucester, Mass. John died before Dec. 30, 1797, when William Eddy, a minor, aged 17 years, chose Daniel Dodge of Newburyport for guardian. On May 9, 1799 the guardian reported that his ward was deceased.
12369 DANIEL EDDY, m. (int.) Jan. 23, 1793, LYDIA PARSONS of old York.
12370 DANIEL EDDY, b. about 1794; d. Feb. 1848, aged 54 years (Salem Paper).

12362 Charles Eddy. The Eddy Genealogy of 1881 gives the parents of the following Daniel Eddy of Salem as Charles and Sarah (Gray) Eddy. As Daniel Clark Eddy, b. 1823, was living at the time that book was compiled, it is possible that he gave that information to Robert H. Eddy, who compiled the book. However, the Charles Eddy, son of John Eddy of Swansea, was not the Charles Eddy who married Sarah Gray, as was stated in that book.

Child:

+12371 DANIEL EDDY.

12371 Daniel Eddy (Charles), b. about 1764; d. June 29, 1798; m. Apr. 24, 1796, Margaret Clark Gordon; d. Dec. 13, 1831, aged 73 years.

Daniel was killed by lightning while on board the ship "Martha', lying in Salem Harbor. Margaret Eddy, widow, appears several times in the Salem Registry of Deeds. She left a will dated Nov. 24, 1831, filed Jan. 5, 1832, in which she leaves to her two children, Daniel Eddy and Margaret Gordon, certain bequests. Margaret received the house and land on Milk St. which she later sold. The inventory gave among other things a "card-table valued at $2.; a square table, 20 cents; one mahogany waiter, 25 cents; a light stand, 20 cents; and six flag-bottom chairs, 60 cents."

Children:

He was a graduate of Harvard University. He was Speaker of the Mass. House of Representatives from 1854 to 1855. He was a prominent clergyman in Lowell, Boston and Brooklyn. He was a prolific writer. Among his books were "Heroines of the Missionary Enterprise"; "Europa, or Scenes in the Old World"; "Waiting at the Cross"; "Angel Whispers"; "The Burman Apostle" which was a life of Judson, "The Unitarian Apostasy." He also wrote a novel which he called "Saxonhurst." This was of considerable historical merit. One of the chief characters in it was Rev. William Eddye, Vicar of St. Dunstan's, Cranbrook, Eng. This book was printed by the American Baptist Association, but is now out of print and no copy can be found in the larger eastern libraries. While engaged in writing this book he had correspondence with people in England. His son thinks that he even went to England to gather information about the Eddy Family. This book carried the Eddy Crest. (From Charles H. Eddy, his son.)

12700 Anthony Eddy was mentioned in the will of James Gilmore of Windham, N. H. on May 19, 1758 with the words "That is bound to serve me shall have £50." (Probate Rec.) It is possible that the following Anthony Eddy belongs to the Salem group of Eddys since on one colonial paper his residence is given as Marblehead. On the other papers it is given as Londonderry, Windham, and Londerey (probably meant for Londonderry). Papers are in the Massachusetts Archives.

Anthony Eddy appears on a Muster Roll dated Boston, Feb. 18, 1761, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Samuel Watts. Quality,—Private. Residence,—Londonderry. Entered service, June 25, 1760. Served until Dec. 2, 1760. Length of service, 23 weeks. Remarks, . . . Reported 105 miles of travel home allowed. (Vol. XCVIII, p. 334.)

Anthony Eddy appears on a Pay Roll sworn to Suffolk ss. Mar. 25, 1762 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Jonathan Carver. Quality,—Private. Residence, Marblehead. Entered service, May 4 . . . year not given . . . endorsed 1761. Served until Nov. 17 . . . year not given, endorsed 1761. Length of service, 28 weeks, 2 days. Remarks—Endorsed: Co. at Crown Point. (Vol. XCIX, p. 143.)

Anthony Eddy appears on a Pay Roll certified to Boston, March 3, 1763, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. John Nixon. Quality,—Private. Residence, Windham. Entered service, Nov. 18, year not given, endorsed 1761. Served until June 30, year not given, . . . endorsed 1762. Length of service, 32 weeks, 1 day. (Vol. XCIX, p. 182.)

Anthony Eddy appears on a Pay Roll certified to Boston, March 8, 1763, of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. John Nixon. Quality, Private. Residence, Windham. Entered service, July, 1762. Served until Nov. 1, 1762. Length of service, 17 weeks, 5 days. (Vol. XCIX, p. 232.)

Anthony Eddy appears on a Pay Roll certified to Boston, Aug. 25, 1763 of a company in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. Edward Blake. Quality, Private. Residence, Londerey. Entered service, Nov. 2 . . . year not given endorsed 1763. Length of service 28 weeks, 4 days. Remarks, . . . Reported: Employed to the Westward. (Vol. XCIX, p. 252.)

12701 William Eddy (parentage unknown), d. between 1707 and 1710 (Newport Mercury); m. July 19, 1697, Hannah Smith of Bristol, R. I. (V.R.). She was b. (in England?) Sept. 25, 1671; d. in Bristol, Jan. 16, 1755, aged 83 years (V.R.). She was the dau. of Richard and Joyce (Standish) Smith.

Hannah Eddy left a will (Bristol, R. I. Probate) dated Apr. 13, 1740 and probated Feb. 3, 1755. The will mentions dau. Elizabeth Daer (?); sons Joseph, William, and John, and brother Samuel Smith, who was made executor. Richard Smith, Martha Manchester and Stephen Paine were the witnesses of the will. There is a fine inventory on file which was taken by Richard and Benjamin Smith. Hannah was received into the church at Bristol in January of 1723.

A deed in the Taunton Registry proves the parentage of Hannah Smith. (Book 10, p. 30) Richard Harrell of Bristol, weaver, and Mercy his wife, late widow of Joseph, late of Bristol, dec'd, Nathaniel Smith, Samuel Smith, and Hannah Eddy, all of Bristol and children of Richard Smith of said Bristol, bricklayer, dec'd, sold land . . . dated Feb. 17, 1713. The records give the birth of Nathaniel, Samuel, and Daniel in 1681, 1683, and 1687 as children of Richard and Joyce Smith.

The only other record concerning William Eddy of Bristol, apart from his marriage is that on Mar. 16, 1706 it was voted that he be abated his "pole money." From this it has been impossible to connect him with Samuel Eddy. The names carried on in the family are typical Eddy names, so that it seems likely that there was some relationship to the Swansea Eddys. His land was not far distant from Swansea and it must be noted that Mr. Richard Smith had a trading post (See Bulletin 2, p. 16) which adjoined land belonging to Zachariah and Caleb Eddy, which was given them by John Brown of Rehoboth. Also it must be recalled that Deliverance Eddy, widow of John Eddy of Taunton, married after his death a Nathaniel Smith.

In the early town records this name is variously spelled, Adee Adye, Adee. The branch that remained in Rhode Island soon used the spelling Eddy, but the line that went to Connecticut and later to Vermont used Adee and Adye. Hannah in her will, called herself Hannah Eddy and signed the will with a mark where the name was spelled Edy.

Children, b. in Bristol (V.R.):

+12702 Joseph Eddy, b. Aug. 26, 1699.
+12703 William Eddy, b. Mar. 22, 1702.
12704 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Apr. 17, 1704; m. (Int. Mar. 30, 1723) Apr. 30, 1723, at Bristol (V.R.), David Deaur.*
+12705 John Eddy, b. June 17, 1707.

*It is worth noting that in 1726 an Elizabeth Duer (?) was one of the witnesses to the will of John Eddy (No. 79) of Newport. If it could be proved that the two Elizabeths were the same it would show a very close relationship with the Samuel Eddy branch.

12702 Joseph Eddy (William), b. Aug. 26, 1699, at Bristol; d. Nov. 9, 1763, aged 65 years (V.R.); m. (1) Dec. 2, 1724, at Bristol (V.R.) (Int. Oct. 31, 1724), Mahaliah Torrey; b. between 1690 and 1699, at Milford, Mass.; d. Jan. 29, 1725/26 at Bristol (V.R.). She was the dau. of Angell and Hannah Torrey. He m. (2) Sept. 7, 1728, Ruth Belcher of Braintree, Mass.; b. Apr. 6, 1702. (N.E.H. G.R. gives the date Oct. 10, 1728 in Vol. LX). She d. in Bristol, Oct. 1778 (V.R.). She was the dau. of Deacon Gregory^3 Belcher (Samuel^2, Gregory^1) and his wife Elizabeth^2 Ruggles (John^1) of Braintree, Mass.

Joseph Eddy lived in Bristol, where he carried on the trade of a weaver. In 1747-1748 he was made a Freeman of Bristol and was a member of the First Church of Bristol from Jan. 21, 1728 to May 13, 1741 (Manual of the First Church of Bristol).

He left a will dated Oct. 4, 1763, in which he mentions his wife Ruth Adee, and sons Belcher, to whom he gives his looms and weaving gear; Joseph, to whom he gave his great Bible; and daughters, Hannah Passmore, of Mendon; Abigail Hogins; Elizabeth Adee; Ruth Adee; Sarah Adee; Joice Adee. His two kinsmen Benjamin and Richard Smith were appointed executors.

Child, by first wife:

12706 Hannah Eddy, b. Dec. 22, 1725; m. John Passmore, at Holliston, Mass. on Nov. 2, 1749.

Children, by second wife (Bristol Rec. See also Ady):

+12707 Belcher Eddy, b. Oct. 19, 1729.
12708 Rebecca Eddy, b. Jan. 31, 1733/34; d. Nov. 21, 1759, at Bristol.
12709 Joseph Eddy, b. Feb. 3, 1735/36; d. Aug. 1778, at Bristol (V.R. under Adee).
12710 Ruth Eddy, b. May 19, 1740; m. Feb. 22, 1770, Barnard Salisbury.
+12711 Sarah Eddy, b. Aug. 26, 1742.
+12712 Joyce Eddy, b. Oct. 3, 1745.
12713 Abigail Eddy, b. Feb. 10, 1731; m. before 1763, . . . Hogins (Higgins ?; Hawkins ?).
12714 Elizabeth Eddy, b. Feb. 6, 1737.

12703 William Eddy (William). In New Haven, Conn. his name appears as William Adee. He was b. Mar. 22, 1702, in Bristol; m. (1) Dorcas Bradley; b. Nov. 4, 1704 and d. between 1729 and 1736; dau. of John and Sarah (Holt) Bradley (See Vol. VII, p. 419 of New Haven Probate, will of John Bradley). He m. (2) Abiah . . . (perhaps Hitchcock or Hotchkiss).

William Adee left a will, dated May 23, 1749 (New Haven Prob.) in which he mentioned wife Abiah, the executrix of the will and two sons William and John. He spoke of his shoemaker's shop. Witnesses of the will were John Hitchcock (Hotchkiss?), Samuel Baker, and Stephen Johnson. There are two pages in the Inventory.

William went to New Haven previous to Feb. 1726, since he gave his residence as New Haven when purchasing land of Jonathan Perkins (Vol. VII, p. 67). On April 17, 1729, William and wife Dorcas sold land and on May 19, 1736, William and wife Abiah sold land (Vol. VIII, 146 and Vol. X, 228).

Children (will of father):

+12715 William Eddy (Adee).
+12716 John Eddy (Adee).

12705 John Eddy (William). Nothing is known about this John but it seems likely that he is the father of the John Eddy who m. Mrs. Dorothy West on May 25, 1755 and to whom a daughter Dorcas was born in 1758 (Prov. Rec.)

12707 Belcher Eddy (Joseph, William), b. Oct. 19, 1729, at Bristol (V.R.); d. May 27, 1769; m. Feb. 18, 1760, at Bristol, Susannah Bragg (V.R.).

Child:

12717 John Eddy, b. Jan. 10, 1761 (Bristol V.R.).

12711 Sarah Eddy (Joseph, William), b. Aug. 26, 1742, at Bristol; d. Oct. 23, 1780; m. Apr. 8, 1764, Curtis Cole; son of Ebenezer and Prudence (Miller) Cole. He was b. in Swansea, Apr. 4, 1742; d. Aug. 2, 1830 (Cole Gen., p. 66).

Children (Cole Gen.):

i Rebecca Cole, b. Dec. 4, 1764.
ii William Cole, b. Dec. 17, 1766.
iii Jonathan Cole, b. Oct. 12, 1767.
iv Prudence Cole, b. July 8, 1769; m. . . . Parsons.
v Elizabeth Cole, b. May 14, 1771; d. Dec. 20, 1776.

vi Sarah Cole, b. Feb. 12, 1773; d. Sept. 1773.
vii Sarah Cole, b. July 8, 1774; m. . . . Henderson.
viii Belcher Cole, b. Apr. 15, 1776; d. Jan. 2, 1777.
ix Ebenezer Cole, b. June 8, 1778; m. Polly Salisbury.
x Mary Cole, b. Oct. 17, 1780.

12712 Joyce Eddy (Joseph, William), b. Oct. 3, 1745, at Bristol; d. Aug. 19, 1819 (Ancestral Dictionary, Austin). She m. Mar. 20, 1774, at Bristol, William Salisbury of Warren, who d. Aug. 25, 1790 (Austin). They lived at first in Warren, but later went to Brattleboro, Vt.

Children (incomplete list):

Phebe Salisbury, b. Sept. 15, 1781; d. Nov. 6, 1868; m. Jonathan Jones on Apr. 11, 1802. He was b. June 28, 1780; d. June 18, 1869 (Austin Gen. Dict.).

12715 William Eddy (William, William), b. before 1730; d. at Woodbury, Conn. after Nov. 17, 1764; m. Sarah Hotchkiss; b. Nov. 12, 1731; dau. of Caleb and Ruth (Munson) Hotchkiss. After his death Sarah probably married Deacon Gideon Stoddard.

William left a will dated Nov. 17, 1764, in which he mentions wife Sarah, and five children, John, Caleb, Sarah, Aner, and Dorcas. His brother Lemuel Hotchkiss was made executor, together with wife Sarah.

On Nov. 3, 1767, John Adee, a minor being capable by law for choosing a guardian, chose "uncle Lemuel Hotchkiss" (Woodbury Conn. Prob.). On Oct. 11, 1771, Caleb Adee choose "father-in-law" Deacon Gideon Stoddard for his guardian.

William Adee appears in the land registry selling to Abiah Adee in 1752 at which time he was a resident of Woodbury, Conn. In 1750 he joined with his brother in selling land.

Children (will and V.R. of Ancient Woodbury, Conn. Vol. III):

+12718 John Adee, b. May 10 or 21, 1752.
+12719 Caleb Adee, b. Mar. 13, 1754, bapt. Mar. 17, 1754.
12720 Sarah Adee, b. Nov. 11, 1756, bapt. Nov. 21, 1756. She witnessed a deed in Bethel, Vt.
+12721 Aner Adee, b. Oct. 9, 1759; bapt. Oct. 16, 1759 (also spelled Anner and Abner).
12722 Dorcas Adee, bapt. Apr. 25, 1762.

12716 John Eddy (William, William), b. before 1730; m. Hannah Johnson, Mar. 22, 1775, at Derby, Conn. She was dau. of Gideon and Lydia (Beecher) Johnson.

He lived in New Haven when in 1755 he sold land to Abiah Adee, which formerly belonged to my "honored father William Adee, dec'd of New Haven." In 1750 he joined with his brother William in selling land which "did belong to our honored grandfather, John Bradley, dec'd." He was made guardian of James and Joseph Markham, sons of William Markham on Mar. 22, 1753. In 1790, when the Census was taken he was a resident of Derby, Conn., the head of a household consisting of one male over 16, one under 16, and three females.

Children:

12723 Sarah Adee, b. Aug. 6, 1775; m. John Crawford, on Dec. 13, 1795.
12724 William Adee, b. Jan. 21, 1780.
+12725 Dorcas Adee, b. Mar. 13, 1785.

12718 John Eddy (William, William, William), b. May 10, 1752, in Woodbury, Conn.; d. Nov. 4, 1833, at Bethel, Vt.; m. Bathsheba . . . .

John went to Vermont some time before 1793 and settled in Bethel. On Jan. 31, 1793, "John Adye of Bethel, yeoman" purchased land in Bethel. In 1794 he took the Freeman's oath. He was instrumental in forming the church at Rochester. In an old scrap-book belonging to the early records of the Episcopal Church at Bethel, Vt. it is stated that "Lay services were performed by John Adye, at a settlement at Rochester. They were begun by John Adye, and Rufus Martin about 1798, and continued until 1810. Lay Reading by John Adye." John was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, serving from Windsor, as a private and corporal on the Connecticut continental line. He is buried in Bethel, Vt. The stone gives his age as 72 years, but this does not agree with the birth record. On one deed which he gave, his sister Sarah Adye signed as a witness. When the Census was taken in 1800 his household consisted of one male under 10, and one over 45; one female under 10, one between 10 and 16, and one between 25 and 45.

Children, b. at Bethel, Vt. (incomplete list):

12726 ANER EDDY, b. July 24, 1797. (Name now spelled Adye instead of Adee.)
12727 Perhaps ABIAH EDDY, who d. at Randolph, Vt., May 12, 1869, aged 80-0-18.

12719 Caleb Eddy (William, William, William), b. Mar. 13, 1754, at Woodbury, Conn.; m. before 1790, Hepzibah . . .

When the Census of 1800 was taken he was a resident of Walden, Vt. with a household consisting of two males between the ages of 16 and 25, and one over 45, one female between the ages of 10 and 16, three between 16 and 25, and one over 45. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and had a pension. When applying for this he gave an account of his life and service. He enlisted from Woodbury, Conn. (Litchfield Co.) in June 1776 for six months in Capt. Nathan Hard's Co., Col. Select Silliman's Reg't. In Oct. 1777 he again enlisted in a company of light dragoons under Capt. Agur Curtiss. In 1779 he was drafted while residing in Woodbury and was attached to a company of light dragoons under Capt. Nichols. He says that he was born in Woodbury in 1755 (NOTE. That date differs by a year from the record.) and that his birth is there on record. At the age of twenty-six he removed to Hartford, Windsor Co., Vt. where he lived for about two years. Then he moved to Royalton and after two years at that town he went to Bethel where he lived for about twenty years. From there he went to Walden, Caledonia Co., where he remained for ten years, and then went to Cabot and resided there for four years. He then went to New York State to the town of Perry, in Genesee Co. After seven years there, he went to Castile, Genesee Co., where he was living at the age of seventy-eight when he made his affidavit on Feb. 8, 1833.

In the land registry at Bethel there is one deed (Book 1, 98) dated Mar. 2, 1790, in which it is stated that George Smith sold to "Hepzibah Adye, consort of Caleb Adye." The names of his children are not known.

12721 Aner Eddy (William, William, William), b. Oct. 9, 1759, bapt. Oct. 16, 1759, at Woodbury, Conn.; m. Abigail Potter, Feb. 12, 1786. He died Oct. 5, 1794 of yellow fever. He lived in New Haven, Conn. His widow owned land in Bethel, Vt. which she purchased on Sept. 1, 1796.

Children (incomplete list):

12728 ANER ADYE, bapt. Dec. 30, 1787, at Fairhaven Ch. (Cong.), New Haven, Conn.; d. May 19, 1789, aged 1 year, 7 mo.
12729 ANER ADYE, d. Sept. 21, 1790, aged 4 mo. 5 da.
12730 ANNA MARIA ADYE, bapt. Apr. 15, 179–.
12731 NATHAN STODDARD ADYE, bapt. Feb. 2, 1794.

12724 William Adye (John, William, William), b. Jan. 21, 1780, at Derby, Conn.; d. Jan. 26, 1814, at Bethel, Vt. and is buried there. In Capt. Nehemiah Noble's Note Book it is recorded that Serg't William Adye died at Randolph, Jan. 26, 1814. Enlisted in the 31st U. S. Inf., mustered at Burlington. In the town records it is stated that William Adye took the oath of Freeman in 1795 and 1803.

12725 Dorcas Adye, m. Ezra West Torrey; son of David and Anna (Lilly) Torrey. She died on Jan. 26, 1819. It is not clear whether it was Dorcas the daughter of William, b. in 1762 or the Dorcas, dau. of John, b. in 1785 who married Ezra Torrey. Their children were Clara Maria, Harriet and William.

No further records of this line have been discovered.

What relationship the group of early Eddys in York Co., Pa. bear to each other and to the John Eddy who settled in Woodbridge is not known. It has been handed down in one line that Samuel Edie was born in Ulster Co., Ireland, of Scottish parentage, and that he came to America owing to persecutions suffered there. In one account it is stated that William Edie was among the Scotch-Irish in Hopewell Twsp. before 1770. It is well to note that although the name Eddy was variously spelled in the early records that the spelling Edie was most common and that that is the spelling which Thomas Eddy, the philanthropist, stated was the one used by his grandfather, a citizen of Ireland, born of Scottish parents, probably near or in Aberdeen. There seems to be no reason to doubt the Scotch-Irish ancestry of this group. Whether it is related to the Woodbridge, N. J., group is not clear. One genealogist has suggested that the first John Eddy of York Co. might have been John of Woodbridge, who married a second time and left New Jersey for York Co., where he died. This was suggested by the fact that one of the sons of John of Woodbridge in his will left "lands in York Co." as a part of his bequests to his children. Many of the families in the two places bear the same names, so that there seems to be a relationship suggested not only between the two Eddy groups but also between many other family groups of Woodbridge and York Co.

The earliest record is that of Samuel, who sometime between 1736 and 1741 owned land in the Manor of Maske (Hist. of Cumberland Co. and of Adams Co., p. 241 and p. 18). In Mar., 1738 he together with others was made guardian of the children of John McKenn. In 1743 a list of those who obstructed the survey was published. This contained the names of William Edie, John Edie, and John Edie, Jr. On Mar. 25, 1751, Janet Eady and Walter Davis and William McClellan were appointed to administer the estate of John Eady (York Co. Files). On Dec. 11, 1754, Samuel Edie was appointed to administer on the estate of David Eadie of York Co.

12825 David Eddy probably was the father of the Samuel Eddy whose record follows, but no proof has been found at the present writing.

12826 Samuel Edie was born according to tradition, in Ulster Co., Ireland, of Scottish parents, who were members of the Presbyterian Church, and came to America for greater freedom and to escape persecution. He d. Feb. 8, 1809 in his 78th year (Adams Co. Sentinel), therefore born about 1731. It is possible that tradition has confused this younger Samuel with the older, who purchased land about 1731 and that it was the older Samuel that was born in Ireland instead of the younger. He mar. Agnes . . . (perhaps Cochran), who died before him. He was buried at Upper Marsh Creek.

Samuel left a will dated Jan. 12, 1809, and probated in March 1809, which mentions the children given below. He was a very important man in the county. In Oct. 1762, he was made commissioner of the county and in December of the same year he became high sheriff. In 1771 and 1774 he was made a justice of the peace. In 1776 he was elected to the Penn. Assembly and in 1778 to the Assembly of York Co. In 1767 he owned proprietary rights in the Manor of Maske which consisted of about 200 acres. On Jan. 11, 1782 he purchased from Sarah Cochran, widow of William, James Cochran and William Cochran, the younger, a plot of land "supposed to have been in Fredericks Co., but is in York Co., which originally contained 2750 acres." As these Cochrans were the executors of the estate of William Cochran, Sen. this deed suggests that the wife Agnes was a Cochran and this method was taken to give a clear title, since Samuel and Agnes sold the land to James and William Cochran on the following day (York Co. Deeds).

Nearly all of the material in the following sketch was taken from a volume in the Essex Institute at Salem, entitled "Life of Thomas Eddy the Philanthropist" by Samuel L. Knapp. Thomas Eddy (1758–1827) is the authority for the early data. He states that it is as far back as he can remember. John Edie lived in Belfast, Ireland. He probably came from Aberdeen, Scotland. He was poor in this world's goods and could give his children but a very small portion of school learning. The family were Presbyterians. One of the children, James, was apprenticed to a merchant, Wm. Sinclair of Dublin. James was born in 1712 in Belfast and about 1742 he married Mary Darragh, who was born in Dublin 1724. They came to America about 1753 and settled in Philadelphia. They also were Presbyterians, but through the influence of Robert Bradshaw became Friends. James and Mary had sixteen children. Of these at the time of writing the memoir, Thomas says that only his sister Mary Hosack and himself are living. Of the children he mentions beside Mary only his elder brother, Charles, and a younger brother, George.

12887 John Edie; b. probably in Aberdeen, Scotland, lived in Belfast, Ireland; m. . . .

Children (incomplete list):
+12888 James Eddy, b. about 1712, in Belfast, Ireland.

12888 James Eddy (John of Aberdeen), b. about 1712; m. about 1742, in Dublin, Mary Darragh; b. about 1724 in Dublin. Mary inherited a fortune of about £1000. They came to America about 1753 and settled in Philadelphia.

He left a will dated Aug. 9, 1769 (Philadelphia Wills) in which he mentions wife Mary to whom he gives 1/3 of his property and "to my father if alive at my death £10 when the money arrives in Ireland, but if dead then his wife is to have £5 and my half sister Mary £5." Besides these two he speaks of daughter Ann Marshall, sons James, Charles, Thomas, George, Daniel, and dau. Mary. Mary Eddy's will was dated May 13, 1788. She mentioned sons Thomas, Charles, George, Daniel; dau. Mary and grandchildren Isabelle Ann Marshall, Sarah Marshall and their father, Christopher Marshall. There is no reference to other children or grandchildren, so it is very likely that they had died without issue.

James was a merchant in Philadelphia. On p. 115 of the "Welcome to Gov. John Penn, from the Philadelphia Merchants" found in Vol. 1 of the Penn. Papers of the General Society of Penn. his original signature may be found. From 1766 until his death he was interested in the ironmongery business.

Children (wills of James and Mary):

12889 ANN EDDY, m. CHRISTOPHER MARSHALL. Their children were Isabella Ann and Sarah.
+12890 CHARLES EDDY.
+12891 THOMAS EDDY, b. "the fifth of the ninth month, 1758, at Philadelphia."
+12892 GEORGE EDDY.
12893 DANIEL EDDY.
12894 JAMES EDDY.
12895 MARY EDDY.
Nine others.

12890 Charles Eddy (James, John of Aberdeen). After the death of his father, his mother carried on the business until he and his brother Thomas were old enough to assume the responsibility. They were Tories and were looked upon with suspicion. In 1777 Charles was apprehended and sent to Virginia as a prisoner on the ground that he was unfriendly to the American cause. In 1779 he was allowed to go to New York and later went to England, then to Ireland and back to America, only to return to England in 1780, where he married and opened a business in London.

12891 Thomas Eddy (James, John of Aberdeen), b. 1758, at Philadelphia; d. at New York City, Sept. 16, 1827; m. Mar. 20, 1782, at the Friends Meeting House in Liberty St., Hannáh Hartshorne, who d. in 1832. She had a brother Lawrence Hartshorne.

Together with his brother Charles he carried on the ironmongery business which his father had begun, but during the Revolutionary War they sold out and went to New York City, where he formed a business under the name of Eddy, Sykes and Co. which engaged in shipping with England and Ireland. His brother George had a business in Philadelphia and these two firms with the consent of Gen. Washington made arrangement to supply the British and foreign troops, who were taken with Lord Cornwallis, with money. He said in defense of his position as a Tory, that the Tories were sensible of the unjust conduct of Great Britain, but thought that redress might be obtained without separation, and that a great number having the knowledge that they later possessed would then have adopted very different political opinions. In 1792 he began the insurance business and became interested in the Western and Northern Canal Co. and later its treasurer. He was one of the great promoters of the Erie Canal. He was director of the first Savings Bank in New York City and a member of the N. Y. Bible Society, and the American Bible Society; and in 1795 was one of the promoters of the System of Public Schools. He was made inspector of New York Prisons in 1797 and from 1797–1812 he was governor of the N. Y. Hospital.

He was a man of simple manners, of sound judgment and purity of principle. He possessed an uncommon zeal for the promotion of all kinds of public improvement. It is to him that New York owes the establishment of its States Prison instead of the local gaols, the improvements in its hospital systems, the placing of the public schools on a firm basis and the improvement in the House of Refuge as well as the building of the Erie Canal. He was at the head of most of the improvements which were made in the period following the Revolutionary War.

Children (Flushing Friends Rec.):

12896 JOHN HARTSHORNE EDDY, b. Mar. 14, 1783; d. Dec. 23, 1817. He lost his hearing at the age of twelve. He was a most remarkable scholar, wonderfully versed in the languages, drawing, botany, painting, poetry, and mathematics. He was a member of the N. Y. Hist. Soc. He prepared a topographical map of New York, which was very accurate. His early death was a great loss to the arts and sciences (American Mag. before 1833).

The following is taken from two letters written by Benjamin V. Eddy:

> My father, William Eddy, did a trucking business and some market gardening. When I was eleven years old I went with my older brother, William James Eddy, who had become a fisherman, as cook in a fishing boat to the North Sea for three months, and the following summer I did the same. At that time education was not compulsory, so that at the age of fourteen I drove a single team for my father. When I was fifteen my father hired a nice little farm named Rosenthorn, St. Kivern, Cornwall. It overlooked Falmouth Bay and it was directly inside the Manacle Rocks. For a time I was a member of the crew of "Mary Ann Story,"—a life boat that saved many lives. In 1888 I left England for America and entered the paper mills at Turners Falls, Mass. I am now, 1914, in the poultry business. I was naturalized in 1895. I have served on the Board of Health and as Milk Inspector of our town.
> William Eddy's people were tin and copper miners. William and all his brothers entered the mine near Land's End at an early age. Only one brother emigrated,—Peter Boase Eddy. He became wealthy in New South Wales, first as a merchant, and then as an owner of a tin mine and a squatter. Eddy Pack was said to be one of the finest estates in New South Wales. Uncle Peter was also a magistrate. The Eddys were self-made men. None of them received any schooling except what they could get on Sunday. My mother's family was very much better off. She was raised on a Freehold farm. I think the Davey branch of the family must have been related to Sir Humphrey Davey, Penzance.
